BRITAIN FEARS GERMANS WILL RAID SEAS

PEACE SPIRIT GRIPS PARTIES IN MAYOR RACE

HARRISON ALONE OUT.

For the first time since the Chicago mayoralty battle opened there was a hatchet burying spirit extant last night.

It was also the initial night of the thunder of "big guns," which will keep booming until Easter.

Judge Olson kept strictly in bounds his enthusiasm over William Hale Thompson; Carter H. Harrison did not participate at all. Otherwise the political leaders lined up either with their Democratic or their Republican candidate.

Ex-Gov. Charles S. Deneen took the stump at a Thompson rally and read his declaration of allegiance to the Republican party and his unqualified approval of the entire city ticket, from Thompson down to the last man.

Olson Speaks for Thompson.

Chief Justice Olson of the Municipal court took the platform and read a carefully prepared statement, in which he asked Republicans, for the sake of party and for the sake of a victory in 1916, to bury their differences and stand united in this fight.

Judge Olson exhibited some scars from the primary struggle. He felt he had been treated unfairly. And he asked his hearers to show their party regularity by supporting Robert M. Buck for alderman in the Thirty-ninth ward while they were demanding of him that he forgive and forget and stand loyally by the primary nominee, Mr. Thompson.

Discord Gone from Democrats.

The last discordant note, except that of the present mayor, was taken out of the Democratic harp at the "monster meeting" in Arcadia hall on Broadway. There, grouped on the same platform, were the old Harrison leaders, Gov. Edward F. Dunne, United States Senator James Hamilton Lewis, and all the Sullivan leaders. They joined in a harmony chorus.

Gov. Dunne and Senator Lewis placed their unqualified stamp of approval on Robert M. Sweitzer and urged the voters of Chicago to elect him mayor of Chicago because, they declared, he was fit and able and clean and big and an honor to Chicago.

DEMOCRATS JOIN IN RALLY.

The Arcadia hall meeting by the Sweitzer people was the largest thing that has been staged in the campaign thus far.

In addition to such feudists as Gov. Dunne and Senator Lewis, former Corporation Counsel William H. Sexton and Phillip McKenna, the Harrison campaign manager, joined in the harmony chorus, while Thomas Webb of the board of review and half a dozen other personal friends and spokesmen for the Sullivan wing of the party stood up and said it was now unanimous.

Senator Lewis had discussed the religious issue for some minutes, declaring that his hand would be raised against any man or set of men, whoever they might be, who would inject that dangerous issue—religion—into our politics. He said in this country our first proposition was that all citizens were at liberty to

Painters' Strike, Involving 6,000, Set for Tomorrow

Order Balks Negotiations Under Way for Uniform Compact.

OPPOSED BY COUNCIL

Hope for the amicable negotiation of a uniform agreement designed to eliminate strikes for the next three years, now being considered by employers and officials of the Chicago Building Trades council, received a severe setback yesterday.

This came in the form of an order from the headquarters of the painters' district council, acting independently of the trades council, directing its members, numbering about 6,000 men, to walk out tomorrow morning unless their employers can show an agreement signed directly with the painters' council, regardless of any uniform understanding that may be reached between the employers and the general trades council.

Opposes Uniform Compact.

The order was signed by Secretary L. P. Lindelof of the painters' organization, who has opposed strenuously the efforts of the Building Trades council and the employers to effect the uniform compact.

Since members of the Decorators and Painters' club, an organization including 150 of the largest employers in the city, have refused flatly to subscribe to the independent agreement demanded by the painters, it is probable a walkout on some jobs cannot be avoided.

In the uniform agreement, which has the support of the trades council and national union leaders, it is said, are an anti-strike clause and another provision permitting the use of nonunion made materials in the construction of buildings on which union men are employed.

Omitted in Painters' Demand.

These two provisions are omitted in the individual agreement the painters' district council demands employers sign if they are to avert a walkout.

"We are not asking any increase in wages," said Mr. Lindelof, "but are only asking for the renewal of the agreement under which we have been working for three years past. We will not abide by the provisions of the uniform agreement and our decision is final."

Until a late hour last night Secretary Lindelof was closeted in a secret conference in the Morrison hotel with leaders favoring the uniform agreement.

Gompers at Conference.

Among those at the conference were Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Thomas J. Williams, president of the building trades department of the federation. He refused to reconsider his action in calling the strike.

Mr. Lindelof asserted that several other trades would strike in sympathy.

Representatives of the milk wagon drivers' union, who have been endeavoring to obtain a six day week, declared there would be no strike of the drivers for several months to come, as had been threatened.

PROTEST LOSS OF U. S. JOBS

29 Federal Gauging Officers Told They Are Part of $400,000 Economy.

Twenty-nine United States gauging officers, employed at rectifying houses in the gauging of distilled spirits before rectification and in the gauging, marking, branding, and stamping of distilled spirits after rectification, yesterday objected in a body to the ruling of the treasury department which deprives them of their jobs May 1. Collector Smietanka explained it is an economy measure, saving the country $400,000 a year.

DR. WINEBURG CONVICTED OF WHITE SLAVERY

GIRL WEEPS AT TRIAL.

Dr. Louis P. Wineburg of Ligonier, Ind., was found guilty late last night of violating the Mann act. The jury returned the verdict in Federal Judge Carpenter's court after eight hours of deliberation.

"We the jury find the defendant guilty as charged in the indictment," read the clerk, "and we respectfully recommend leniency by the court."

Testimony to Girl's Story.

The verdict of the jury was a testimony to the truth of the story told by Grace Belle Locher, the pretty 19 year old girl who was once a patient of Dr. Wineburg.

She said Dr. Wineburg made love to her and gave her mysterious white tablets. She testified they spent the night together at the Great Northern hotel on May 6, 1913, after he had brought her from Kalamazoo, Mich.

When the even tones of the clerk had concluded the reading of the jury's finding Mrs. Wineburg, who was with her husband in the courtroom, burst into tears.

"It's terrible, but I still believe in you, Louis," she sobbed.

Wineburg Near Breakdown.

"Brace up, doctor," said his attorney, Joseph R. Burres, patting the shoulder of his client.

Dr. Wineburg was near a nervous breakdown. He had been advised by his attorney that conviction might mean a maximum of five years in the penitentiary and a heavy fine. It was the first case tried in the federal courts of Chicago where the element of commercial vice did not enter in.

"I can't understand it—it is terrible," he said to reporters. "The jury must have been moved by sentiment. A pretty girl and her story had more weight with them than my seven witnesses who testified I wasn't in Kalamazoo at all. Sentiment, that's what it was. And the motive back of the complaint was blackmail."

"Compromise," Says Burres.

"The doubtful nature of the government's case is shown by the fact that it took almost nine hours for the jury to make a decision," said Mr. Burres. "It was a compromise verdict—the recommendation for leniency is proof of that."

"We won because the girl was telling a perfectly direct, truthful story and the jury knew it," said Assistant District Attorney Benjamin Epstein.

Three formal ballots were taken by the jurymen. The first was eight to four for conviction, it was reported, and the next nine to three. Then the men who stood out for acquittal were won over by the proposal to recommend clemency.

Jurors Surprise Speculators.

The case went to the jury at 3:25 in the afternoon and the verdict was returned at 12:20 this morning. It was reported earlier there would be a disagreement, but a little after midnight one of the jurors asked that the elevator service be retained a few minutes longer.

Judge Carpenter thanked the jury for its attention to the case, saying he felt the jury had been moved to bring in the verdict as the result of a conscientious consideration of the evidence. Attorney Burres made a motion for a new trial which will be argued today.

Miss Irene Wirthlin, office girl of the Indiana physician, who has accompanied Mrs. Wineburg throughout the trial and cared for Myrtle, 10 years old, and Helen, 8 years old, the doctor's little daughters, took the children to the home of their grandmother on Moffat street about 9:30 o'clock.

Dr. Wineburg's Defense.

In his testimony Dr. Wineburg presented what he called a complete alibi to shatter the evidence of the prosecution. It was a coincidence, he said, that he happened to be in Chicago on May 6, 1913. At no time, he said, did he see the girl while he was here.

Grace Belle Locher was not in the courtroom when the jury returned its finding. In her story she told of two occasions when she said she had intimate relations with Dr. Wineburg. The first occasion was in his office in Ligonier. The second was in Chicago. She was his patient at the time. She said he arranged to have her go to Kalamazoo, and then came there to meet her and take her to

MORE THRILLERS DUE

In the shadows of the film inspection room in the city hall yesterday one of the moving picture censors whispered a secret.

"The lid on problem plays, white slave dramas, and such pictures is being lifted and the mayor is lifting it."

There the message stopped, but a little investigation showed that films that had been rejected flatly by the board of censors months ago had received permits in the last few days.

These included "The Lure," "Three Weeks," and "Tainted." There is a question whether one of these had been rejected previously. Other plays of a similar nature now are being brought back for second consideration. One of these is "The House of Bondage."

How They Got By.

The question of how such films were "getting by" was solved when the method by which the owners obtained their permits was uncovered. Both "The Lure" and "Three Weeks" were rejected by censors and appeals were taken—as provided by the ordinance—to Mayor Harrison. Several weeks ago—before the primaries—Mayor Harrison inspected the pictures and he also rejected them.

But the records of the censorship bureau now show that permits were issued for both "by order of the mayor."

Several eliminations were made in "Three Weeks," including a scene of woman on tiger skin and flash of kissing scene near sun dial.

What They Did to "Tainted."

In "Tainted" the following cutouts were ordered: Three scenes of woman in travail, eliminating up to where physician takes baby from bed; giving physician check for assisting to exchange babies and close view of cheek; subtitle, "I've got to have more money or I'll tell about changing the babies," and giving check; subtitle, "This is the last, doctor, before I die I will right the wrong I've done that girl"; end film with physician's suicide.

"The Lure" is one of the most thrilling of white slave dramas. "Three Weeks" is a story of illicit love.

Censors Give Permit.

Because of this change in the situation the censors themselves gave a permit to "Tainted," which is "Damaged Goods" in celluloid drama.

Since it became known that these films passed the censors manufacturers throughout the country who have in their possession reels that were barred from Chicago presentation are preparing to bring them back. It is said "The House of Bondage" is only the first of a large number to be submitted in the next two weeks.

How Mrs. Harrison Censors.

City hall interest in the movies is said to have become intensified since the debut of Mrs. Harrison as a movie playwright and a wide range of comment has followed her blanket approval of "The Birth of the Nation," a dramatization of "The Clansman," which split the national board of censorship and caused the resignation of one of its members.

Further facts in connection with her inspection of this big film have been disclosed. Charles C. Fitzmorris, the mayor's secretary, preceded her to the tenth floor and made arrangements for the exhibition of the picture. The projection room was cleared of the ordinary censors, who were told their services were not needed.

TWO THEATERS ATTACKED IN FILM OPERATORS' WAR.

One Panic Narrowly Averted as Electric Wires Are Cut and "Stink Bombs" Are Hurled.

Two movie theaters on the west side were attacked last night in a war between rival motion picture machine operators' unions. In one a panic was narrowly averted.

Detectives Considine and Lenahan were in the Playhouse, 1846 West Madison street, and prepared for trouble when the lights went out. They told the piano player, Miss May Soddy, to keep playing, and with their pocket flash lamps lit the way to the exits. The cut in the wires was found—on the roof—and speedily repaired.

At the same time the wires were cut "stink bombs" were exploded in the lobby of the theater.

THE GREAT TEMPERANCE WORKER.

MOTHER OF SLAIN YOUTH VANISHES

Mrs. Eleanor Black, Star Witness Against William Shipman, Is Sought.

A new missing witness mystery, paralleling the recent disappearance of Albert Vasey and in the same court, arose yesterday to tie the hands of the state in the prosecution of William Shipman, alleged murderer.

This time it is a woman who has vanished—Mrs. Eleanor Black, mother of the 18 year old boy whom Shipman is accused of having stabbed to death.

Mrs. Black, supposedly a witness to the murder, was to have been played by the prosecution as a trump. But when the case was called in Judge O'Connor's court she did not appear. It developed Assistant State's Attorney W. W. Witte had been seeking the woman since Friday and had learned, in the course of his search, that she was friendly with Shipman.

Joseph Geary, the state's attorney's chief investigator, has been unable to trace Mrs. Black's movements later than Friday night, when she visited the home of Thomas F. Daly at 738 South Kolmar avenue. Daly, like Shipman, is a locomotive engineer, employed on the Chicago Great Western railroad.

Questions the Dalys.

Geary questioned the Dalys in his office yesterday. Mrs. Daly denied having seen the missing witness since Friday. When questioned by Judge O'Connor she admitted having seen Mrs. Black Tuesday morning in the office of Thomas O'Connor, Shipman's lawyer.

Daly admitted Mrs. Black had been at his home Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights.

Judge O'Connor was asked by Mr. Witte to issue an attachment for the Dalys. He refused.

"But if the witness is not produced in court Wednesday," he said, "I will deal with those whom I believe to be responsible in the manner that appears to me best."

On the night of Aug. 1, 1914, Shipman was visiting at the home of Mrs. Black at 1236 West Jackson boulevard. Shipman, who is said to have been drinking, followed young Albert Black into the kitchen when the boy went to get him a drink of water.

Flash of Steel.

There was a fight and a flash of steel. At the end of the fight the boy lay on the floor dying.

Shipman was arrested, but released, according to Witte, after Mrs. Black had told the police she was his wife and had asserted he was not the man who killed her son. Later Shipman was brought back from Oklahoma.

Witte says that later he forced the woman to admit she had seen Shipman stab the boy.

MRS. JUNKIN SUES TO SHIELD MOTHER'S BANK ACCOUNTS.

Further light on Mrs. Emily Hutchinson Crane Junkin's attitude in declining to pay a $10,000 note given her mother in 1910, when Mrs. Junkin was the wife of the late Richard T. Crane Sr., was shed yesterday in a suit which Mrs. Junkin filed in the Superior court.

The suit seeks to restrain Harry S. Stewart, a cousin, from obtaining money on deposit in two Chicago banks under the name of the late Mrs. Emily Stewart Hutchinson. Mrs. Junkin's mother. The pass books for these accounts—one of $5,038.03 in the Union Trust company and another of $9,410.37 in the Illinois Trust and Savings bank—are said to have been given by Mrs. Hutchinson to her nephew, Mr. Stewart, together with the $10,000 note.

Mrs. Junkin declares that her indebtedness to her mother was repaid many times before the latter's death.

Mrs. Junkin charges that her cousin obtained the bank accounts from Mrs. Hutchinson, who was then 74 years old, "by fraud and misrepresentation."

Mrs. Junkin borrowed the $10,000 from her mother to meet a subscription she had made to the endowment fund for Orchestra hall. It is said that Mr. Crane was not in sympathy with the subscription and declined to write a check in payment.

Judge Williams granted Jesse Holdom, attorney for the Illinois Trust and Savings bank, ten days in which to file an affidavit of merits in the suit brought by Mr. Stewart against the bank for $12,224.

AMERICAN DIES IN WAR WRECK

LONDON, March 31, 2:52 a. m.—The official announcement is made that among the missing passengers of the steamer Falaba, which was sunk by a German submarine, is Leon Chester Thrasher, an American engineer, who had been living for the last year on the Gold coast, British West Africa.

Mr. Thrasher had an American passport and in the form he was required to fill out before embarking described himself as an American citizen, but gave no American address.

The Daily Mail, in an editorial in connection with the drowning of Mr. Thrasher, says that the question whether the Washington government will permit a belligerent to destroy an unoffending passenger ship, carrying an American citizen, without giving that citizen any opportunity to escape is raised in its sharpest form.

STRAPHANGER HELD IN $500 IN GOTHAM HEALTH CRUSADE

New York, March 30.—[Special.]—The first arrest in Brooklyn, growing out of Health Commissioner Goldwater's crusade against overcrowding on surface cars occurred last night on a Third avenue car at Court and Livingston streets, when Dennis J. Wall, the conductor, caused Jacob Horowitz to be forcibly stopped in his attempt to push his way into a car that was already well filled. The circumstance caused great excitement among the passenger. After hearing both sides today Magistrate McGuire held Horowitz in the sum of $500 and adjourned the case.

Refusal of Traffic Company to Permit Its Employes to Organize Leads to Labor Action.

Seattle, Wash., March 30.—An immediate strike of employés of the Puget Sound Traction, Light and Power company, operating the street car lines in Seattle, was ordered today at a mass-meeting, called by the Central Labor council, to consider the company's refusal to permit its men to organize.

By 10:30 half the cars in the city had been stopped.

Shortly after 9 o'clock a riot call was received at police headquarters from Ninth avenue and Pike street. The disturbance was not serious.

Asserts Teuton Boats in American Ports Plan to Aid Warships.

BULLETIN.

LONDON, March 31, 3:48 a. m.—The Dutch correspondents of English newspapers, in their dispatches, refer to persistent rumors in circulation in Holland of a change in the German front in Belgium, which is alleged to have been made necessary by the fall of Przemysl and by the pressure of the allies along the existing extended front.

According to these rumors the line on the Yser is to be abandoned in favor of a less extended line slightly west of Brussels. It is reported that large bodies of cavalry already are being withdrawn from the Yser.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

Washington, D. C., March 30.—[Special.]—Discovery of an alleged German plan to unleash a large number of warships to raid British shipping in both the Atlantic and Pacific oceans has stirred Great Britain to extraordinary activity and the proposal of defensive precautions seriously embarrassing to the United States.

According to the British authorities the German plan involves the employment of all German merchant craft now in American ports to supply the fleets of raiders with coal and munitions of war.

The British government through its ambassador to Washington, Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, has made strong representations to the United States urging drastic action to prevent German merchant vessels in American ports from acquiring supplies of this character.

Issue Involves Philippines.

One of the disclosures in connection with this affair is that the United States and Great Britain already have clashed over the pending question in the Philippines and that the British government actually placed an embargo on the exportation of coal to the islands from all sources under its control. The embargo has been modified in consequence of American pledges regarded in some quarters as humiliating. Now Great Britain again is threatening to shut off the supply of coal to the islands completely.

The ambassador has been particularly insistent in asking the United States to limit the supply of coal obtained by German merchant vessels to "bunker coal" and to allow only sufficient of that to carry the vessel to the next coaling point.

Wants Coal Cargoes Limited.

"Bunker" coal is fuel used exclusively for the operation of the ship itself. If the United States accedes to the British demands it will be impossible for a German merchant vessel to carry a cargo of coal out of any American port.

The British appear to be possessed of the fear that the gigantic raid planned by the Germans will materialize at any moment, for the ambassador has been endeavoring to obtain an immediate reply to the representations made to the state department.

The Germans intend, according to the British, to employ the Hamburg-American, North German Lloyd, and other steamers now in ports of the United States to supply the raiders while in the Atlantic and then to fit the merchant craft out as auxiliary warships. The United States has taken elaborate precautions to prevent the fitting out of these German vessels as warships while in American ports. Failure to thwart such a scheme would be a serious violation of neutrality by the United States.

Gather Supplies in Pacific.

In the Pacific the raiders, if they get that far, are to be supplied with coal and munitions by German steamers now in the ports of the Philippines. The British charge that the German plan has progressed so far that German ships in some South American, West Indian, and Philippine ports already have cargoes of coal ready to dash to sea to aid the raiders.

The move has been delayed, it is asserted, by the failure of the Germans so far to get supplies aboard the steamers in New York and other harbors of the United States.

The administration has been fully advised of the ground for the fears entertained by the British and has taken under advisement the proposals made by Ambassador Spring-Rice.

The British ambassador has had several conversations with Secretary of State Bryan on the matter, but pains have been taken to keep the affair secret.

British Course Discloses Situation.

The situation was disclosed today as a result of excitement in the war department over the unusual course pursued by the British government in regard to the German vessels in Philippine ports.

There are sixty-three German merchant vessels in the ports of the Philippines, nineteen of them being in Manila bay. They took shelter in Philippine waters when the British and Japanese succeeded in driving German commerce from the Pacific. Some of these vessels have taken on cargoes of coal and apparently are awaiting sailing orders. Others, the British allege, are preparing to load with coal as soon as the fuel can be procured.

Ambassador Spring-Rice requested the American government to prevent these German vessels from taking aboard cargoes of coal, which, he asserted, were clearly intended for supplying German naval forces.

U. S. Declines to Take Action.

As there are no German naval forces in the Pacific the administration did not at first take the matter seriously. It was loubted that under the circumstances the government would be warranted in interfering and regulating the amount of coal shipped by any German steamer.

When the administration failed to act in accordance with the British demands Great Britain took the unprecedented step of shutting off the exportation of coal to the Philippines fro mber possessions and those of her allies. Practically all of the coal consumed in the Philippines is obtained from Australia and Japan. At a word from Great Britain, Australia and Japan promptly put up the bars on the supply of fuel to the Philippines.

U. S. Protests Embargo on Coal.

The United States protested against this extraordinary action. It was pointed out that American neutrality was being strictly preserved and that the course of Great Britain was anything but friendly.

The Philippines faced a possible coal famine and Gov. Gen. Harrison became rather excited over the situation. The Philippine government and the American army and navy must have coal, he said. Finally the British government consented to allow the shipment of coal for American uses to be resumed, Gov. Gen. Harrison promising that none should find its way into the hands of the Germans.

NAVAL OFFICERS CONFER OVER EITEL FRIEDRICH.

Declared Allied Warships Have Come Within Three Mile Limit at Newport News.

Newport News, Va., March 30.—Enforcement of American neutrality in Hampton Roads was the subject of a protracted conference at the Norfolk navy yard late today after the arrival of the battleship Alabama, which took a commanding position in the chanel to the sea. Officials later refused to make any statement.

It was learned today the Alabama came to Hampton Roads primarily to guard against any breach of neutrality in the event of a clash between the German man of war Prinz Eitel Friedrich and a fleet of allied warships off the Virgina capes.

Reports that allied warships had ventured within the three mile limit and that merchant ships had furnished them with supplies have been circulated here for several days.

RUSSIAN ADRIATIC CLAIMS BRING TART ITALIAN REPLY.

Rome Government Holds Its Position Must Be Ameliorated Despite Slav Angle to Case.

ROME, March 30.—The Giornale d'Italia, replying to comments in Russian newspapers opposing Italy's acquisition of the territory on the Adriatic now in the hands of Austria because of the large Slav population, says that while Italy acknowledged the right of the Slavs to have an outlet on the Adriatic, it was not to be supposed that Italy would acquiesce merely in the substitution of Slavs for Austrians on the eastern coast, the Slavs having the powerful support of Russia behind them.

The Giornale d'Italia adds: "It is best clearly to state now that whether Austria continues to exist as an Adriatic power or a great Serbia be formed, Italy's position on the Adriatic must be absolutely or largely ameliorated."

U.S. PROTESTS ABOUT BLOCKADE ON TRADE PLEA

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., March 30.—[Special.]—The American protest to Great Britain and France against the long range blockade of Germany instituted by the allies is being cabled tonight to London and Paris. It is to be presented to the British government by Ambassador Page and to the French government by Ambassador Sharp within a couple of days and made public by arrangement between the United States and the allies.

According to the administration, the note is not really a protest, but a presentation of the views of the United States upon the procedure adopted to shut off trade with Germany, which, the allies confess, is unprecedented and not in conformity with the recognized principles of international law.

Follows Argument of Others.

The note follows generally the lines of argument contained in the protests addressed to Great Britain by Holland and the Scandinavian countries.

In the communication the United States takes its stand squarely upon the provision of the declaration of Paris, that the "neutral flag covers enemy's goods, with the exception of contraband of war." Great Britain and France are signatories of that convention, which is recognized international law today. In accordance with that declaration the United States contends that interference with its trade with Germany in noncontraband goods is unwarranted. Moreover, the form of blockade proclaimed by the allies is designed to interfere with peaceful trade between the United States and neutral nations.

Upon this invasion of the rights of neutrals to trade peacefully with each other, even in time of war between other nations, the note dwells at great length and quotes many precedents.

Hope for Leniency.

The tenor of the communication indicates that the administration does not expect that the allies will modify the form of blockade which they have proclaimed merely to meet the views of the United States. The most that it is hoped to accomplish is a certain leniency by Great Britain in dealing with seizures and detention of cargoes.

In addition the United States places its objections on record as basis for claims for damages that may be brought in the interest of shippers suffering losses as a result of the blockading operations.

A note presenting the views of the American government regarding the sinking of the American ship William P. Frye by the German commerce destroyer Prinz Eitel Friedrich has been prepared at the state department. After passing through the usual channels it will probably be sent forward to Berlin before the end of the week.

The United Stats note will ask that the act of the commander of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich be disavowed and compensation paid for the losses suffered by the owners of the ship.

AMERICA IN $568,368,469, BALIANCE OF TRADE SHOWS.

Favorable Report for December, January, February, and Most of March Issued by Government.

Washington, D. C., March 30.—[Special.]—The favorable trade balance of the United States for the months of December, January, February, and four weeks of March reached the enormous total of $568,368,469, according to a statement of the department of commerce today, the imports being $486,722,223, and the exports $1,055,090,692.

The favorable balance was $676,776,000 for the entire year 1914, and $386,254,565 the year previous. For the week that ended on March 27 the imports amounted to $40,721,436 and the exports, $56,170,588, a balance of $15,449,152 in thirteen principal customs districts doing 88 per cent of the import business and about 85 per cent of the export business of the country.

Turk Forts in Dardanelles Too Strong for Allied Fleet?

DARDANELLES, March 28, via Berlin, to London, March 30.—After having remained almost totally inactive since March 18, vessels of the allies' fleet today developed a slight activity near the entrance to the Dardanelles, bombarding lightly what appears to have been an untenanted infantry position.

Since March 18 the allies have not made an attack of any sort on the town of Dardanelles, limiting their operations to weak attempts to fish for Turkish mines.

Every allied vessel which has penetrated the straits at night has been met by firing from the alert Turkish troops, and the result invariably has been a quick withdrawal.

Apparently no serious attempt to sweep the mines from the Dardanelles waters has been made by the allies since March 15. Interest by the allies in the Dardanelles defense works has not been lacking, however, for every day an allied aviator takes a spin over the outer end of the waterway.

Meanwhile the weather conditions for a bombardment have been of the best.

Turkish officers say the allies are not likely to resume their operations as long as they are unable to avail themselves of a fire superior to that of March 18, which they declare was tremendous, but totally incapable of coping with the situation.

The Associated Press correspondent in the last few days has visited every Dardanelles fort bombarded by the allies on the 18th. He discovered that, notwithstanding the heavy shell fire from the warships, the damage sustained by the Turkish positions was uniformly slight.

LONDON, March 30.—A Reuter dispatch from Athens says:

"The Turks are repairing the damage done to the forts and concentrating troops in Smyrna.

"The operations in the Dardanelles Sunday were confined to an intermittent bombardment of several Turkish positions, in which seaplanes coöperated. The Turkish reply was feeble."

"A semi-official statement, commenting on the Russian naval operations in the Bosporus," says the Daily Telegraph's Petrograd correspondent, "warns the Russian people not to expect the speedy success either of the allies against the Dardanelles or the Russians against the Bosporus.

"This double attack, the statement says, has been carefully coördinated, but it is recognized that the operations will require great exertion and occupy considerable time. Moreover, whereas the allies are in a position to make good their losses in ships, however great, the Russian Black sea fleet is not in a position to do that. Great caution also is required, as the forts at both ends are manned with heavy guns."

BERLIN, March 30, by Wireless to Sayville, N. Y.—Included in the items given out today by the Overseas News agency is the following:

"A special dispatch received here from Constantinople says the first bombardment of the Turkish fortifications on the Bosporus by the Russian Black sea fleet consisted of the firing of 128 shots at the forts from a distance of eleven miles. The forts did not reply to this fire."

CONSTANTINOPLE, via London, March 30.—An official statement issued today by the war office says:

"One of our seaplanes has dropped bombs on a British warship cruising outside the Dardanelles."

BUCHAREST, via Paris, March 30.—Field Marshal von der Goltz, the German military commandant of Constantinople, interviewed by the Adeverul, declared the defenses of the Dardanelles had proved more effective than had been expected and that he now would affirm that the allied fleet would not force a passage.

"We await a new attack without fear," the field marshal is reported to have averred. "The more ships there are the better satisfied we shall be. We do not lack ammunition, for Turkish factories supply us all we want. Turkish industry has been sufficiently developed to equip a fresh army of 500,000, which it will be easy to mobilize.

"Constantinople is calm and the sultan still is in his Bosporus palace. Enver Pasha, minister of war, is most optimistic and we are convinced we shall win."

Field Marshal von der Goltz has left Bucharest for Berlin.

PETROGRAD, March 30.—An official communication issued tonight tells of the operations of the Russian fleet against the Bosporus. It says:

"On Monday morning our fleet approached the outer fortifications of the Bosporus, but was unable to continue the bombardment, as a fog shrouded the coasts.

"One of our smaller ships exchanged shots with a Turkish destroyer, which made off at full speed for the Bosporus after the first shots."

The appearance of the Russian fleet before the Bosporus is most important strategically, as it cuts off definitely all communication between the Turkish army operating near the Caucasian frontier with its base at Constantinople, and also blocks the Turkish Constantinople fleet between the allied fleet bombarding the Dardanelles and the Russian fleet.

U.S. JURY FINDS WINEBURG GUILTY

Calls Wineburg "Viper."

Attorney Epstein, in his closing address to the jury, characterized Dr. Wineburg as a "moral leper" and "viper."

"Dr. Wineburg betrayed all the confidences reposed in him in a manner most unspeakable," he said. "As a member of that profession which is nearer to God than any other in the saving and repairing of lives, he violated the very sacredness of the home and branded himself as a viper of morality.

"He acted like a cur when Grace Belle Locher went to his office in September, 1913, and sent his office girl out to tell the girl he had wronged that he was not in. Then he called his wife on the telephone. She came to the office and Mrs. Wineburg and Belle Locher crossed swords."

Burres Assails Girl.

Attorney Joseph F. Burres, chief counsel for the defense, said Miss Locher's charges were the outgrowth of "amorous hysteria," or the imagination of a disordered mind. He referred to the young woman as "Attorney Freeman's unsophisticated little country girl."

"Mr. Freeman told you yesterday," he said, "that Miss Grace Belle was a simple child, almost ignorant. Yet you will remember Miss Locher flitting about the corridors bare headed, in and out of the courtroom, frequently coming over to the district attorney's table to make suggestions to these learned prosecutors. She did not wait for them to consult her.

"Do you think that a man such as you saw on the stand yesterday with fire in his eye and the physique of an athlete could stand on the sidewalk outside his house, look through the window and see a man who had entrance to his home by reason of his profession, pick up his daughter from a sick bed and embrace her and then go for ten days without saying anything about it?

"Yet that was the testimony of the father of Grace Belle on the witness stand. The story of Mr. Locher is plainly made out of a very perishable fabric."

Attorney Burres painted a picture of Dr. Wineburg's broken home on Easter Sunday should he be convicted. Attorney Epstein said that had nothing to do with the case.

Federal Judge George A. Carpenter in his charge warned the jurors against allowing sympathy to interfere with the delivery of a just verdict and impressed upon them the necessity of establishing beyond a reasonable doubt the innocence or guilt of the defendant. He called their attention to the fact that the evidence in the case was not of a pleasant nature, but that it was their duty to consider it well in the execution of the federal laws.

GERMANY SENDS BIG NEW ARMY TO AID AUSTRIA

LONDON, March 30.—That Germany is sending heavy forces to the battle front in the Carpathian mountains, in the hope of bolstering up the weakened Austrian army and preventing the threatened Russian invasion of Hungary, is indicated from dispatches received today from several sources.

The Morning Post correspondent at Berne, Switzerland, telegraphs:

"News has just reached me that about 160,000 German troops have arrived in Austria, the greater number being dispatched to Cracow and the Carpathians and any point where Russian attacks are feared."

From Amsterdam it is reported that 60,000 German troops, chiefly cavalry, have passed through Tongres, in the Belgian province of Limbourg, en route to the Carpathians. Tongres is a little more than ten miles north of Liege.

Russian Armies Also Reinforced.

On the other hand Russian forces from Przemysl are already taking their place side by side with the troops who have for weeks past been striving to carry the Carpathian passes in the face of stern opposition by the Austrians and Germans. The presence of a division from Przemysl on the Carpathian front is noted in the Austrian official communication.

That this is a struggle of the greatest importance, the result of which will "exercise a strong effect on the entire situation" is pointed out by Maj. Moraht, the military critic of the Berlin Tageblatt, who adds: "The supreme army command has grounds enough for employing all disposable forces to avert a Russian irruption into the Hungarian plains."

Russians Report Progress.

PETROGRAD, March 30.—The Russian war office tonight made public the following communication:

"In the Carpathians, between points leading to Bartfeld and Uzsok pass, our actions are developing with perfect success. Notwithstanding the enemy's stubborn resistance and a series of desperate counter attacks, we again carried some fortified positions on the heights and captured, Sunday and Monday, seventy-six officers and 5,384 men and five guns, twenty-one machine guns, and one trench mortar.

"A detachment of the enemy advancing from Czernowitz, Bukowina, on Sunday forced our frontier and pushed forward half way to Chotin. Measures have been taken to meet this incursion."

Austrian Official Statement.

VIENNA, March 30.—The war office today issued the following official communication:

"Vigorous fighting again occurred on Monday in the district south and east of Lupkow. Strong Russian forces resumed the offensive and the battle lasted into the night. The enemy everywhere was repulsed with heavy losses.

"Obstinate fighting also has taken place between the Lupkow ridge and the Uzsok pass. In attacks south of Dwernik (Swidnik?) the presence was noted of troops of a division belonging to the Russian forces at Przemysl."

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

LONDON, March 30.—Secretary Sexton of the Dockers' union addressed a meeting of malcontents at Birkenhead to warn them of the consequences of any labor troubles at this time.

A noisy section of the meeting started to shout him down at once, cursing at him and accusing him of having accepted bribes from the shipowners. The meeting broke up in great confusion. The Daily Mail says the men are determined not to yield.

The matter is now to be referred to the executive committee of the union and speedy action is expected.

FORT AT VERDUN GERMAN TARGET

FRENCH WIN TRENCHES

[BY CABLE TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]

PARIS, March 30.—German activity in the vicinity of Verdun is described in today's official war report. The kaiser's batteries got the range of Fort Donaumont and hurled twenty-one 42 centimeter shells into the stronghold, but did little damage. The French artillery soon located the German guns and silenced them. The fort was only slightly damaged.

Infantry attacks in the western part of the forest of Le Pretre won a line of trenches for the French, who took 100 prisoners. Violent counter attacks by the Germans were repulsed.

Many Germans Fall in Alsace.

"Fifty thousand German troops occupy the valley of Kayserberg, the Muenster and Gebweiler, in Alsace.

"It was Feb. 18 when the Germans began their great offensive in Alsace. The Alpine chasseurs yielded ground only inch by inch, fighting like lions and inflicting heavy losses on the Germans.

"When the French reinforcements arrived, they succeeded in repulsing the Germans, whose casualties in these engagements are said to have been 8,000 killed. The check to their offensive seems to have somewhat discouraged the German soldiers."

French War Report.

"During the night of March 29-30 the enemy continued without results to bombard the Nieuport bridges.

"There has been an intermittent cannonade on the entire front from the sea to the Aisne.

"In Champagne, in the region of Perthes, Beausejour, and Ville-sur-Tourbe, there was an artillery action and mine warfare in which we obtained the advantage.

"In the Argonne fighting continues at several points with tenacity and determination, but without appreciable results to either side.

Hurl Big Shells Into Fort.

"Fort Donaumont, north of Verdun, was struck by twenty-one centimeter shells. Our artillery immediately silenced the German batteries. The fort was not damaged.

"In the western part of the forest of Le Pretre we carried a line of trenches in which we took 100 prisoners. Despite a violent counter attack, we maintained the greater part of the trenches won.

"To the west of Pont-a-Mousson we carried a German post and repulsed three counter attacks.

German War Report.

BERLIN, March 30.—The war office gave out the following statement today:

"A telegram from main headquarters says that in the western theater of war there were only artillery combats and sapping operations."

VON KLUCK INVITED DEATH AFTER ROW WITH KAISER?

Amsterdam Report Says Man Who Terrorized Paris Will Be Succeeded by Prince Eitel Friedrich.

LONDON, March 30.—Gen. von Kluck, the German commander who led the advance into France, according to travelers from Berlin, was wounded while recklessly inspecting trenches at the most dangerous point on the line, after a stormy interview with Emperor William, says an Amsterdam dispatch to the Express.

It is learned from the same source that the opinion is expressed in Berlin that as the result of the incident the emperor will intrust the command of Von Kluck's army to Prince Eitel Friedrich.

President Wilson Says Personal Friend Now in Europe Is "Not Up to Anything."

Washington, D. C., March 30.—President Wilson told callers today that his personal friend, Col. E. M. House, now in Europe, was "not up to anything." It had been variously reported that the colonel was making reports on prospects of peace. The president said the colonel was merely observing conditions.

KING OF BELGIUM GIVES ALL PRAISE TO HIS SOLDIERS

Declines to Be Known as Hero; Reiterates Neutrality Was Not Compromised.

GENEVA, March 30.—"I am not a hero. You will find them in our trenches," Albert, king of the Belgians, said, at his headquarters in the field during an interview today with Edouard Chapuist of the Journal de Geneve. During the conversation the guns of the Belgians and the Germans were sounding constantly.

"I affirm that before the war I and my country observed scrupulously all the requirements of neutrality that the powers prescribed for us with a precision of the specifications in an engineering contract."

The king, alluding to the hardships which Belgium had undergone, said:

"It is necessary to tell the truth about these things, but it is better to use moderate language, because the more moderate so much stronger one is."

Further on the Belgian monarch remarked:

"We had no ill feeling against Germany. We received its business people. We had cordial and courteous relations. Even at the present moment, I am at a loss to explain why we have been made to suffer what we have suffered."

The king, referring to allegations that by certain conversations Belgium had compromised its neutrality, said:

"Once again I affirm that it is not true."

VILLA WILL TRY TO MAKE MEXICO DRY AFTER PEACE

BY FLOYD P. GIBBONS.

[War Correspondent of The Tribune.]

[Copyright: 1915: By The Chicago Tribune.]

MONTEREY, Mex., March 19.—"Pancho" Villa, the man whose list of applied names ranges from "bandit" and "murderer" to the "George Washington of Mexico," is also a prohibitionist. He neither drinks nor smokes.

Gen. Paul Madero arranged for an interview with Gen. Villa in the latter's private car here in the railroad yards. Gen. Madero introduced me and interpreted.

Villa sat on the edge of a table in the office compartment at the rear of the car. He wore gray trousers, tan boots, and a heavy gray sweater which covered a soft yellow shirt with collar attached. He wore no necktie. His attention seemed to be divided between my questions and an orange he was eating.

He extended his hand to me. The hand shake was as firm as the hand was hard. His smile was almost boyish as he made some conventional acknowledgment in Spanish and smiled. Then he returned his attention to the orange.

Wants Only the Truth Told.

Gen. Madero was talking to him and I noticed Villa's eyes. He has a way of lowering them to your feet and then slowly elevating his gaze so it takes in your whole stature. He concludes the examination by looking his visitor full in the eyes and this time his look is unaccompanied by a smile.

I had been told that his lasting impression of a man is usually the one he makes upon this first examination. His first remarks as interpreted by Gen. Madero, could hardly be accepted as flattering for my impression.

"I have met a number of newspaper men," repeated Gen. Madero, interpreting in the first person, "but my experiences with some of them have not been of the best. Some of them have written lies about me. I don't care what they write as long as it is the truth. If I make mistakes I want them to write about them as well as anything else I do, but I want all of it the truth. Some of the newspaper men I have met have not been truthful."

I hastened to reply that my object was to portray the general and the events of his campaign, as truthfully as it was in my power to do so.

"The general asks, what do you want to know?" said Gen. Madero. The interpreter placed in Spanish the inquiries about the general's future plans, his aims for the people of Mexico, his opinions on the relations of the United States and Mexico, and his expectations for peace.

His Fight Simply for the Poor.

"I never talk about plans," replied Gen. Villa. "I never say what I am going to do. My fight is simply the fight of the poor people for a chance to live. We want conditions under which the children can be educated and brought up to be intelligent citizens.

"I have never been to school. It took me more than a year to learn to write my own name. I would ask a man one day what was the first letter of my name and he would draw it for me in the sand. That night I would draw it over and over again in the sand.

"I would practice it for days and then I would find out about the second letter the same way, until finally I was able to write my full name on the walls of caves up in the mountains where I was forced to live when the soldiers hunted me.

"I know I am not educated, but education is not everything. Education and civilization takes away from men a few things which books and learning fail to put into them. I don't think that it is a little education that is bad, but rather it is too much education that is of harm.

No Fight with Americans.

"The Americans have no fight with the Mexican people. We are all human beings just trying to live. It is the interests of capital that are here in Mexico that are trying to stir up the trouble between two people who have nothing against one another.

"I have done all that I could for the Americans in Mexico. I have given them special trains and guards and free use of the telegraph and all the accommodations in my power during times when they felt they were in danger. I will continue to do so. All that is asked of the foreigners in Mexico is that they obey the laws and don't try to take everything out of the country without leaving something behind.

"About peace, I can say only that I hope it will be soon. I prefer not to say what I will do and let what I do speak for itself."

Mexico to Be Dry with Peace?

I accepted the opportunity to ask permission to accompany him in the campaign and observe his deeds. He granted it. I asked for his views on the liquor traffic. I had noticed that all saloons in the town had been closed since the arrival of his troops and that not a drunken soldier—or civilian—was to be seen on the streets.

"Mexico will be without liquor when peace comes, if it is in my power," said Villa. The subject was of evident interest to him because he emphasized the remark by closing and opening his right hand and narrowing his round eyes to slits.

"Mexico is suffering from it now," he continued. "It is not only the effect of the stuff upon those who drink it but the effect upon those who are to come. Most of the epilepsy is caused by drunkenness. The children are the sufferers and, as usual, the poor suffer the most from it.

"The president of a people might not be a drinker himself, but so long as he permits his people to play with poison he is showing himself a weakling. I will not permit it among my officers. It makes them less efficient.

Puts Lid on Towns He Enters.

"When our troops reach a town I order all of the saloons closed. Some of my men have been shot for drunkenness and some saloon keepers have been executed for selling it to the soldiers. Now the penalty is a heavy fine."

Then suddenly, as though he felt that he might have let a pet hobby get away with him, he ceased talking abruptly. He extended his hand to me, with a "Buenos dias" (good day), and terminated the interview. We withdrew.

No Money for Fence, Children Build It.

An apparent deficit of $1,250,000 in the board of education funds for 1915 did not cause the children of the Oakland school, 750 East Fortieth street, to despair of getting a fence built around their garden plot at Bowen and Cottage Grove avenues. Yesterday the children of the manual training classes of the school started to build a fence around the land, under the direction of their manual training instructor, Mrs. Stella M. Sanborn. Among those who took part in the work are Alice O'Leary, Pearl Goldy, Mildred Frantz, Elsie Borcharding, Richard Ellel, Helen O'Connell, Henry Perlman, Mildred Reich, and Hazel Richardson. The children spent nearly all the school day working on the fence. They will continue the work tomorrow.

Company Will Operate "Yellow Cab" Service as Result of Council Action.

Chicago is to have "European" taxicab service which will carry passengers for approximately half the present rates.

Plans for its organization were announced by the principal owners of the Walden W. Shaw company yesterday on the heels of the city council's reduction of the existing schedule. These men have launched what is known as the Yellow Cab company. Incorporation papers were applied for Jan. 5 and the capital stock, originally $25,000, has now been made $100,000.

"We are willing to invest this much," said John Herts, general manager of the Shaw company, "to find out whether Chicago wants an inexpensive service like those which prevail in many of the European capitals.

100 Light Cars for Loop.

"One hundred small, light cabs, painted a distinctive yellow, will be put in commission at once at the twenty-six public stands in the loop district and will be operated strictly on a cash basis.

"The rate for shopping and calling in the yellow cabs will be $2 an hour and the taximeter rate will be correspondingly low. The present rate by the hour is $4 for a five passenger vehicle, and the council's new schedule will reduce this to $3.50.

"We've got to try these light cabs in comparison with our seven passenger limousines. We know from sad experience that the large cars cannot operate at a profit at lower rates than we are charging now.

Cut Would Mean Loss.

"We make little profit as it is, and a lower rate will mean a definite loss. Naturally no one is insane enough to expect us to remain in business under such conditions.

"So we are making this experiment. In a word, we will compete with ourselves, for the Yellow Cab company will be a separate concern. The cabs will be good looking and comfortable, but they must be summoned from the street and they will not operate on the charge account basis. Such conveniences as calling a cab at a hotel, café, or club and simply signing a ticket are not possible at the rate we propose to charge.

"The experiment will be surrounded by the fairest possible conditions and the public will have to be the referee. Personally I believe that mighty few people who use taxicabs steadily will sacrifice convenience and luxury to save a few cents a mile. But we shall see."

GIFT TO CHURCH BENEFITS CO-EDS

Presbyterian Synod to Spend $50,000 at University of Illinois.

BY THE REV. W. B. NORTON.

The Rev. Martin E. Anderson, pastor of the Rogers Park Presbyterian church, Chicago, sent word yesterday from Champaign, Ill., that the errand for which he had gone to Champaign was successful and the Illinois synod of the Presbyterian church will be richer by $50,000.

The money will be devoted to building a home for women students at the University of Illinois. It will be open for students without denominational distinction, but the property will be managed by the Presbyterian church.

Total of $175,000.

The Rev. Mr. Anderson was the Presbyterian student pastor at the University of Illinois for five and a half years. This latest gift makes a total of $175,000 invested for the benefit of the students' community during that time. The McKinley Memorial church, $35,000; the endowment fund, $60,000; a residence hall for young women, $15,000; a manse and ground frontage, $15,000, are the items in the total.

The $50,000 is a legacy from donors whose names the Rev. Mr. Anderson said he would rather not disclose for the present. It is in Champaign county farm property.

May Erect Buildings Soon.

"It is possible," the Rev. Mr. Anderson said, "that the farm may be sold and the building erected in the near future, the Illinois synod granting an annuity to the heirs."

The Rev. Mr. Anderson formerly was an assistant pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, Chicago.

CITES GALLIC VIEWS.

New York, March 30.—[Special.]—Hugues le Roux, editor of Le Matin, that important Paris newspaper, author of some forty books, and officer of the Legion of Honor, has just arrived for the second time in this country. He brings with him his American wife, who was Mrs. John Van Vorst, the novelist.

At the home of his wife's sister, Mrs. Albert Herter, the French philosopher spoke seriously of the menace of the feminist movement in America, the evil results of higher education for women, and the harm that comes from women teaching the youth of the land.

Few College Women Wed.

"Your American colleges turn out a third sex," he said. "When I was here several years ago I lectured at many of the women's universities, and I made a study of the students. I found there the tendency to produce sterile hybrids—in short, a third sex. I found that your college women rarely married after they had achieved a higher education, and that the percentage of children born to the few who married was the smallest of any class of women.

"In France we recognise but one vocation for a woman—marriage; and we do not have the third sex. French society does not admit the existence of the unmarried woman, and we have no name for her in our language.

"In French society one meets only wives who are attended by their husbands, or young daughters accompanied by their parents. The divorcée, the widow, the young unmarried woman, one never meets. But here, ah! it is different.

Education to Blame.

"You see, the trouble lies in the education of your women. Most of them receive higher educations than men and are regarded by men as superior beings.

"That is not right. Women were not meant by nature for such education. They were meant to bear children, to put into new bodies the strength they put into study. When the brain is used after one has dined it takes the blood from the stomach and the digestion is impaired. So, when women use their brains for higher studies they are taking away what nature gave them to make into tiny bones and bodies.

"The business woman is also a member of the hybrid third sex. The economic independence of women is synonymous with physical sterility, moral disturbance, and social anarchy. The femmes savantes [learned women] belong in the same category."

SURVEY RIDDLES SYSTEM USED AT 'U' OF WISCONSIN

Dr. William H. Allen Urges Drilling Stop; Charges Gross Extravagance.

Madison, Wis., March 30.—[Special.]—The report of the state university survey, compiled by Dr. William H. Allen of New York, was filed with the state board of public affairs today.

It advocates the abolition of military drill and charges gross extravagance. It is sharp in its tone toward university expenditures and "the manner in which the regents are unable to learn from the faculty the real needs of the institution."

Because of compulsory military drill, the report asserts, the efficiency of the department of physical training is reduced three-fifths. The same amount of time in teaching the arts of peace and methods of efficient citizenship would do more to advance the interests of the state, it is claimed.

Extracts from Report.

The following are extracts from the report, citing alleged unnecessary expenses:

"Lack of an accounting system to show unit cost for kinds of work, including lack of adequate time records for the noninstructional force.

"According to the only official record, $42 per week of salary—the entire time of one instructor—was spent upon one student in one class (second semester, 1913-'14), or $1,512 per year.

"Construction or renting of additional space when existing space could be utilized.

Points Out Way to Save.

"Purchase of land at private sale when the alternative of condemnation might both reduce cost, establish a lower level for real estate in Madison, and help check the increase in cost of living for students.

"Losing $6,000 (during 1913-'14) on commons in spite of the large volume of practically certain business, or $15,000 if depreciation and interest be charged.

"Lack of information regarding graduate and research work.

"Lack of definition as to what quantity and quality of contact with students is expected to be given by instructors—whether fifteen hours or eight or forty per week.

Charges Biased Attitude.

"Failure of directors, deans and president to know university work from the side of classrooms.

"Usurious interest paid on summer session salaries in leaves of absence when not paid in cash.

"Absence of information in the hands of regents which would enable them to exercise independent determinative judgment and inability to obtain information when they ask for it."

STERN ACTION IF MEXICANS FIRE ACROSS U. S. BORDER.

Garrison Hints at New Policy—Laredo Now Faces Same Problem as Brownsville.

Washington, D. C., March 30.—[Special.]—There were intimations in official quarters today that the United States government may not be as tolerant of shooting across the border at Brownsville, Tex., as it was at Naco, Ariz., where more than fifty casualties occurred on the American side during a three months' siege of the Mexican town opposite.

While Secretary Garrison declined to state precisely what instructions had been given to Maj. Gen. Funston, commanding the American forces at Brownsville during the attack on Matamoros, across the river, he indicated that it would be unwise to presume too much on the precedent set at Naco.

The belief persists, however, that even if the attacking Villistas let shells directed at Matamoros fall into Brownsville the administration will be slow to authorize Maj. Gen. Funston to return the fire.

The Matamoros-Brownsville situation is about to be duplicated at Laredo, Tex., the state department is advised. A Villa force is advancing rapidly to attack the Mexican town of Nuevo Laredo, now controlled by the Carranzistas.

Carranza troops are already destroying the railroad south of Nuevo Laredo as they retreat northward to the border town. It is thought likely that a preliminary battle will be fought at Lampazos, south of Nuevo Laredo.

WIFE SUES HOMER K. GALPIN

Names Hilda L. Jensen as Reason for Break in Family.

Homer K. Galpin, former clerk of the Municipal court, was sued for divorce yesterday in the Superior court by Mrs. Jessie T. Galpin, who charges desertion.

Mrs. Galpin also alleges her husband showed "undue attention" to Hilda L. Jensen, also known under the names of Berger and Held, with whom Galpin is said to have lived for five months. Oct. 20, 1913, is specified as one date of Mr. Galpin's misconduct.

SUBMARINE WILL BE RAISED TO LEARN CAUSE OF WRECK.

Secretary Daniels Says F-4 Must Be Salvaged to Guard Against Similar Disasters in Future.

Washington, D. C., March 30.—Secretary Daniels said tonight that the navy department would raise the F-4 at any cost, to determine the cause of the accident in order to guard against similar disasters in the future. He emphatically denied reports of dissatisfaction over the work being done by the naval authorities at Honolulu.

May Examine Wreck Today.

HONOLULU, T. H., March 30.—Work on a diving tube, with which it is hoped to locate the submarine F-4, lost with its crew of twenty-one men outside the harbor here since last Thursday, progressed so rapidly today that it was believed it will be ready for use tomorrow.

HE WILL TAKE NO CHANCES.

Evanston Man, Wise to Chicago Ways, Stays Away and Gets a Police Guard.

A policeman began tramping up and down yesterday in front of the home of H. M. Wheeler at 834 Madison street, Evanston.

On March 20 Mr. Wheeler ran into a boy at Twenty-first and Halsted streets, bruising him slightly. He put the child in his machine, took him home, paid the doctor's bill, and left $25.

Two days later he received a post card from the boy's father, Louis Schroede, asking him to come to Chicago in the evening and "talk about the accident." Mr. Wheeler didn't go.

Thursday night a stone was thrown through a window of the Wheeler home. Saturday night two shots were fired in the back yard. Two men have been seen lurking about every evening since then. Finally Mr. Wheeler decided to notify the police.

"I've been reading about the way they do things down in Chicago," he said.

Sullivan Leader Charges Thompson Manager with Slander and Asks for $150,000 Damages.

John F. O'Malley, Sullivan leader in the Twenty-first ward, yesterday filed suit against James A. Pugh, one of the managers of the William Hale Thompson campaign, asking $150,000 for alleged libelous and slanderous statements issued by Pugh during the campaign. Mr. Pugh's statement said something about the "unscrupulous, unspeakable, and evil designing gang" that surrounded Mr. Sweitzer. Mr. O'Malley's name led all the rest in this classification. Commodore Pugh, when informed of the suit, said that his statement "must have touched a tender spot."

RUMOR GARRISON WILL QUIT BRINGS WHITE HOUSE NOTE.

Statement Makes Veiled Denial and Garrison Same—Bench Job Said to Be at His Disposal.

Washington, D. C., March 30.—Notice was taken at the White House tonight for the first time of persistent rumors that Secretary of War Garrison is contemplating resigning from the cabinet to become chief justice of the New Jersey Supreme court. Secretary Tumulty made the following statement:

"I presume that if Gov. Fielder intended offering this post to the secretary of war he would as a matter of courtesy consult the president before doing so. He has not done so. As for the president, he has no desire to lose the cooperation of so fine and invaluable a public servant as Secretary Garrison."

Mr. Garrison, when asked about the rumors today, laughed and said: "Well, you see I'm still in the cabinet."

Assurance Given That All Foreigners, as Well as Native Christians, Will Be Guarded.

Washington, D. C., March 30.—Assurances that protection will be given to the entire population of Urumiah, Persia, where attacks on Americans and other foreigners and on native Christians have been reported, has been given Ambassador Morgenthau at Constantinople by the Turkish government.

OSCAR HAMMERSTEIN IN THE HANDS OF A RECEIVER.

Suit Brought in $6,000 Case to Protect Interests of Sick Impresario—His Assets $700,000.

New York, March 30.—[Special.]—Judge Hough in the United States District court today appointed Irving M. Ditttenhoefer receiver in bankruptcy for Oscar Hammerstein after the American Seating company had filed a friendly equity suit, nominally based on a claim of $6,000.

This step was taken to protect the impresario's property during his illness, which has become more serious since the inflammation from an infected toe spread up Mr. Hammerstein's left leg. Physicians believe now the leg may have to be amputated.

Samuel J. Goldsmith of Meyers & Goldsmith, attorneys for the American Seating company, said Hammerstein had assets of $700,000.

RED CROSS WORK ROOMS MUST HAVE CASH OR QUIT.

Women Appeal for More Contributions to Keep Needy Employed Making War Country Supplies.

Unless contributions are forthcoming in amounts sufficient to keep them going the Red Cross workrooms maintained by the Chicago Woman's club and Eli Bates house soon will be forced to shut down. To keep the shops open until July $6,000 more is needed, and Mrs. Russell Tyson and Mrs. Benjamin Carpenter, in behalf of the sponsoring bodies, have issued a public appeal for funds.

Returns from five groups of women workers were received yesterday in THE TRIBUNE'S non-partisan straw vote on the mayoralty election. The women voters boosted the percentage lead of William Hale Thompson from 300 to 2,515, a gain of 2,125.

The five groups ranged from public school teachers to waitresses and housemaids. Five hundred ballots were received, comprising 100 votes from each group. The day's voting yielded a total percentage of 20,800, of which Thompson got 11,162, Robert M. Sweitzer, Democrat, 9,067, Stedman 216, and the Prohibition candidate and scattering 385.

Thompson increased his previous straw vote lead of 479 to 538, a gain of 59 for the day. The women gave 8 votes to the Prohibition candidate and 8 to the Socialist.

Figures to Date.

With 10,600 test ballots previously reported, the day's returns brought the grand total up to 11,100. Of this total 10,100 are men's votes and 1,000 women's. The straw vote figures to date are:

SUSPECT NOTICES STIR UP PARTISAN FEELING.

Thompson Men Accuse Employes of Election Commissioners of Playing Politics.

Partisan feeling ran high at the session of the election commissioners yesterday in which suspect notices were issued against voters whose right to vote had been questioned. Charles A. Williams, representing the interests of William Hale Thompson, charged that employés of the commissioners were being used to aid workers for Robert M. Sweitzer in making the affidavits required before suspect notices are issued.

Approximately 2,000 suspect notices for persons whose names appear on the registers of the Second ward were issued.

The Thompson people have applied for many suspect notices for the names of voters appearing on registry books of the First ward. It is charged that the addresses given are those of vacant and deserted buildings which were formerly disorderly houses.

RIVALS FOR THE MAYORALTY TELL 'THE TRIBUNE' HOW TO CONTROL PUBLIC UTILITIES.

THIS morning "The Tribune" prints in parallel columns the fourth of a series of statements by the two leading candidates for mayor of Chicago. Each morning Robert M. Sweitzer and William Hale Thompson will tell the voters of Chicago, under their own signatures, their views on one of the vital issues of the campaign. By reading first one and then the other statement, and by comparing them, the voter may make up his mind which of the two men seems best fitted to give Chicago a good administration.

More than two weeks ago "The Tribune" delivered to each of the candidates a list of the more important issues involved in the campaign and asked that he prepare a statement covering his views. Plenty of time and care has been taken in their preparation, and they may be considered authoritative and final.

BY WILLIAM HALE THOMPSON.

With some exceptions the public utilities of the city of Chicago are under control or supervision of a state board appointed by the governor, consisting of five members, only two of whom reside in Chicago and have anything like an intimate knowledge of our utilities problem. At present the city is questioning the constitutionality of the law creating the board.

I am a firm believer in the policy of home rule, and if elected mayor will use my influence towards having the public utilities in which the citizens of Chicago are exclusively interested under the direction and control of the city government and our own people. In this particular I favor the bill of the charter commission on home rule, and if I am elected mayor will use my influence to obtain its enactment into law by the general assembly.

Takes up Specific Questions.

Believing as I do, it is but proper that I should make specific declarations concerning my attitude with reference to gas, electricity, telephones, all of which vitally concern the people.

During the ensuing four years the question of fixing the rate to be charged for gas will come up, as will also the fixing of telephone and electric light rates. In all these matters I stand for an equitable arrangement between the city and the companies, to the end that the very lowest rates may be obtained for the city, while at the same time permitting the companies to earn a fair return on their investments. But when I refer to the companies' investments I wish to be understood as demanding that they be properly appraised and the rates fixed at such a figure as will give them a return on actual investment and not on watered stock. In other words, the primary care must be to guard the people and not the stockholders.

Points to Rate Agency.

A study of this subject makes it apparent that the public service department can and should be made an effective agent in the regulation of rates and service.

With reference to the specific case of the Automatic Telephone company and its proposed sale to the Chicago Telephone company, or the alternative of the city taking possession of its plant and equipment, I favor the latter course, if it can be accomplished, and such use of the system as the city may determine.

In my statement to the voters I have said: "Let us make our city government the faithful and dependable servant of all the people all the time in getting from both publicly and privately owned utilities the service the people are entitled to, without special favor on the one hand or nagging on the other."

I have reason to believe that the ordinances under which the various public utility companies furnish service of one kind or another to the people of Chicago contain ample provisions for requiring them to give service that will be entirely satisfactory to the public. The trouble is that these provisions in the ordinances are not enforced by the men whose duty it is to see to their enforcement, and an automatically self-enforcing ordinance has not yet been invented. We cannot get what the people are entitled to from these companies until we put men in office who will make it their business to see that these companies discharge their lawful obligations.

Do What They are Compelled.

The men who control and direct the operations of these companies are human beings just like the rest of us. When they are not required or even asked to fulfill their contractual obligations they are apt to forget and neglect them. On the other hand, when they encounter city officials who, for the purpose of appearing favorably in the newspaper headlines or for any other reason, make extraordinary and unreasonable demands upon them, their tendency is to sag back in the harness and do only what they can be compelled to do.

There is an immense amount of insincerity used up on these public service and public utilities questions. This seems to serve sometimes to keep a certain kind of politicians in the public eye and even to boost them into public office, but I have yet to see it get any tangible good results for the people.

Demagogic Demands Futile.

That public official is not only failing to do something for the public good, but is actually doing something against the public interest, who fathers and fosters demands upon the public service companies which are unreasonable and, therefore, unenforceable, because he uses up time and energy which, if properly applied, undoubtedly could produce some good result.

Therefore, I repeat, demagogic promises, when these promises are unsupported by any information whatsoever to indicate whether or not the demands made are reasonable and enforceable, is a fraud on the public, a bunko game, as harmful in effects as it is insincere in purpose.

It appears now that we do not even know whether we have the power locally to regulate our Chicago public service companies, or whether that is a function of the state public utilities board.

For Home Rule for Chicago.

I am for home rule in Chicago. Let us find out first of all, and as soon as we can, where this power to regulate our local public utilities lies, whether in the state board or in the city government. If this power is still the city's let us, by scientific inquiry instead of by rule of thumb, determine what should be done. Then let us act.

Let us substitute action based upon accurate information for action based upon guesswork, and we shall have better service and more satisfaction all around.

As I have said in the discussion of street car service, we always have in our hands, under the city's police powers, means entirely adequate for compelling good service. I shall never hesitate, as mayor, to employ this power to exact from public utility companies the full measure of service to which the people are entitled.

LAKE FOREST'S MUNICIPAL RACE BEGINS TO WARM UP.

William Mather Lewis Heads Ticket Opposed by Faction Urging "Business Administration."

William Mather Lewis, formerly head master of Lake Forest academy, and secretary of the Navy league, is a candidate for mayor of Lake Forest on the Municipal ticket. His opponent is Charles E. Russell, Lake county surveyor. Mr. Lewis will head a ticket supported, according to the opposition, by the "sane silk stockings of the gold coast," while Mr. Russell represents a faction desiring a "business administration."

Mr. Lewis was nominated at a caucus held at the home of Mayor Leverett Thompson some time ago along with a complete ticket, but announcement was kept back until a "sentiment of feeling" could be learned as to the several members of the slate. Mr. Russell was chosen at a public meeting. The two tickets follow:

Municipal—Mayor, William Mather Lewis; treasurer, Thomas Horan; supervisor, Gordon Kelley; marshal, L. H. W. Spiedel; police magistrate, Henry Vickerman; aldermen, Robert Dawson, Keene H. Addington, Thomas Douglas.

Public meeting ticket—Mayor, Charles E. Russell; treasurer, William Dickenson; supervisor, John Redmond; marshal, Robert Vipond; police magistrate, Samuel Monahan; aldermen, Thomas Appleton, William Heine, and E. J. Monahan.

HARMONY GRIPS PARTY FACTIONS IN MAYOR'S RACE

worship God according to the dictates of their own conscience.

Then he named the men who signed the bill of rights. George Washington, the Episcopalian, got warm applause. The Methodist and Presbyterian and Baptist signers were applauded, but when Senator Lewis named the last signer, "John Carroll, the splendid Catholic of Maryland," the great assemblage cheered for several minutes.

Both Gov. Dunne and Senator Lewis, who came late, differed with several of the early speakers, who painted William Hale Thompson as a "no good," a weakling, and a man without character or standing in the community.

Gov. Dunne said he had known Thompson for many years and knew him to be a man of "clean personal character."

Senator Lewis, before he got warmed up, said:

"I join with Gov. Dunne in declaring that both Mr. Sweitzer and Mr. Thompson are men of clean lives and honest characters."

Dunne Now with Majority.

In his indorsement of Mr. Sweitzer Gov. Dunne said:

"So far as my influence goes the votes of all my friends will be cast on April 6 for Robert M. Sweitzer. I was for Mr. Harrison in the primary, but the people of Chicago said they wanted Robert Sweitzer. I believe the great majority of the people of Chicago want Robert Sweitzer as mayor, and I now agree with the majority, and gladly."

"William Hale Thompson has conducted himself as a true gentleman, but he has not had the experience that fits him for this big position."

OLSON FOR WHOLE TICKET.

"You asked me to come here to put myself on record for party regularity. Why don't you get regular by standing behind the Republican nominee for alderman, Robert M. Buck? You asked me to come before you to pledge my support to the Republican ticket. Why don't you support the Republican ticket?"

That was the parting shot taken last night by Judge Harry Olson at the Dovre club, which had arranged a huge meeting for him in the Logan Square auditorium in the Thirty-ninth ward. It was an almost sensational climax to an address, expected to be an unqualified indorsement of William Hale Thompson for mayor, but which proved to be at best only lukewarm.

Judge Olson is a friend of Mr. Buck, who was nominated for alderman at the primaries. He failed to find Mr. Buck's name on the club's program.

Olson Reads His Speech.

Much of what Judge Olson had to say for the city ticket was read from typewritten manuscript. There was one sentence which was significant. He said he had no complaint, because he had been saved from the burdens of the mayor's office. Then he paused for a moment in the reading. When there was silence and men and women were waiting for what was to follow, the judge, in tones which could be heard by everybody, said:

"I have complaint about the atrocities which were committed against me during the primaries."

Judge Olson made his speech in the club's main hall first, then repeated it in part at an overflow meeting. He said:

"The Republican party was divided in 1912, and in numerous elections since that time, owing to a division in its ranks, by the withdrawal of the group of voters that joined and continued in the Progressive party. A faction of the Republicans and certain leaders of the Progressives supported me for mayor for the time being, compromising their differences.

"Another group in the Republican party supported the present nominee, Mr. Thompson. The result is at last a single candidate representing the three local divisions in the Republican party. If these three divisions can hang together now, as they are doing, we all feel assured they will hold together hereafter in the big battle of 1916."

On Aldermanic Candidates.

A condensation of the pre-election report of the Municipal Voters' league on the aldermanic candidates is published on page 8 of this paper.

DENEEN MAKES PLEA FOR THOMPSON.

Ex-Gov. Deneen for the third time appeared on the platform last night and urged Republicans regardless of factions to give their support to William Hale Thompson, the Republican nominee for mayor. Mr. Deneen spoke at a meeting of the party workers of the Third, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, and Ninth wards held in Calumet hall at Sixty-third street and the Illinois Central tracks.

"The contest for mayor at this election is between William Hale Thompson, Republican, and Robert M. Sweitzer, Democrat," said the former governor. "Mr. Thompson is entitled to the support of his party. His credentials are unquestioned. His primary contest lasted eighteen months and each voter had an equal opportunity to assert an equal power in the selection of a candidate for mayor. The judgment of the majority of the voters at the Republican primaries should be respected and regarded as final.

Unites Old Element.

"The Republican ticket represents all the old time Republican element. Mr. Thompson is a Republican, Mr. Sergel and Mr. Siman are Progressives, Judge Wells is Republican. In this ward, the Seventh, Charles E. Merriam is running for alderman on the Republican ticket. We should therefore forget our minor differences and personal feelings and preferences and get together. We must return to the old American policy of 'majority rules' if our party is to be restored to power and kept in power."

WILSON SILENT ON ATTACKS.

Says in Regard to Remarks by Taft and Roosevelt He Thinks It Improper to Answer.

Washington, D. C., March 30.—[Special.]—President Wilson would make no comment today upon the criticisms which have been directed against the administration recently by ex-Presidents Taft and Roosevelt, but he said he believed some code of etiquette ought to be formulated whereby a president would be restrained from making answer to charges launched by his predecessors.

"LET'S ARBITRATE," PLEA OF THOMPSON TO RIVAL.

G. O. P. Candidate Suggests a Committee Decide on the Merits of Charges Hurled in Campaign.

William Hale Thompson has proposed to his opponent, Robert M. Sweitzer, that they agree on State's Attorney Maclay Hoyne, United States Attorney Charles F. Clyne, and a third person whom these two are to select, as a committee to consider and pass on the charges one candidate has made against the other and to make a report to the public without delay.

Mr. Thompson enumerates among his charges against Mr. Sweitzer the following:

That Mr. Sweitzer is using the employés of the office of county clerk to further his candidacy.

That Roger C. Sullivan is coercing employés in all county offices which he controls to work for Mr. Sweitzer during hours they ought to be working for the county.

That Mr. Sweitzer's nomination was obtained by use of lavish sums of money.

Mr. Thompson also lists the charges which he says Mr. Sweitzer has made against him.

After suggesting the personnel of the committee, Mr. Thompson outlines his plan as follows:

"That we submit to this committee our check books, vouchers, and all data covering the period of this campaign, including the primary campaign, together with all the check books, vouchers, records, and written documents of all persons connected with the respective campaigns, and all other evidence referring to said charges, and that this committee consider and report their findings."

ANIMOSITY BETWEEN RACES MEANING OF EAST FRONT WAR.

ETHNOLOGICALLY the conflict between the Russians and the Germans has back of it the resentment of the Slavs against what they believe to be the assumed superiority of the Teutons. The same feeling gave impetus before the war to the pan-Slavic movement in Russia, which was aimed primarily at Germanic influence at St. Petersburg. Evidence of this underlying feeling is found in the changing of the name of the capital to Petrograd as soon as the declaration of war did away with any consideration for the finer points of international intercourse.

Nowhere has the spreading of Germanic "kultur" been so resented as in Russia. "Russia for the Russians" has been the rallying cry that has brought about the tremendous show of strength along the great battle lines stretching from the Baltic to the Carpathians. Nor has the contemptuous point of view of the Germans for the so-called "barbarous and oriental" characteristics of the Russians helped to assuage the racial antagonism existing between the nations.

The steady advance of the Russian bear to the east and south since the thirteenth century, until the Russian domain included the greater part of Europe and a large share of Asia, has only been kept in check in the west by the barrier states of Germany and Austria. As a menace to German nationality Russia by far outranks all the rest of Europe.

Vast as is the territory of Russia, because of its geographical location the nation has been and is even now in a sense isolated from western Europe. Russia's struggles to get to the sea first turned to the north; but the White sea and the Baltic are open only for a part of the year. The Turks have hemmed it in on the south with the frowning batteries of the Dardanelles. To the east Russia went across the dreary wastes of Siberia to get an open port; but this took it away from the great markets of the world on the Atlantic.

The Baltic is now sealed to its commerce by the German fleet, and its great store of wheat is tied up in the Black sea.

To the south Russia has extended its sphere of influence half way through Persia to the head of the Persian gulf. England, however, bars its way to even this long and roundabout route to the Mediterranean and to western Europe. That it will demand the Dardanelles as its share of the fruits of victory should the allies dictate the terms of peace will be only the natural expectation.

The early history of Russia is shrouded in much doubt, but from the beginning of the movement towards a nation among the conglomerate independent principalities that existed on this great plain the Slavs have taken the lead. At Kieff, Moscow, Novgorod, Vladimir, Tver, and Ryazan and other districts rival princes contended for leadership during the eleventh and twelfth and thirteenth centuries, until the invasion of the Mongols, or Tartars, brought the country under subjection and kept it there for over two centuries. The Golden Horde, as the invaders were called, left its impress on Russia that nearly five centuries has not eradicated.

The beginning of the Russian empire as it is today was the result of this emancipation from the Tartars in 1380, and in the next 122 years the power of Moscow and the creation of the tsardom of Muscovy under Ivan II. and his grandson, Ivan the Terrible, was extended to the north, south, and east. This is the darkest chapter of Russia's bloodstained history, in which the rival princes, the contending clergy, the neighboring Poles, Lithuanians, Germans, the Swedes, Danes, and Tartars, all took part. Out of this turmoil was evolved the Russia of the latter part of the seventeenth and the beginning of the eighteenth centuries under Peter the Great.

Under Peter the Great Russia began to take its place among the nations of Europe and reap the results of the union that had been hammered into shape first by Mongol invasions and later by its rivals to the west and north, the Polish and Bohemian Slavs.

Peter came to the throne in 1689. Up to this time the Russian Slavs had struggled and fought and evolved a nation in almost oriental seclusion. He knew the destiny of his empire demanded that Russia establish itself as one of the powers of Europe and that it must look to the west for development. From the first he concentrated his attention on foreign affairs. He traveled extensively abroad, studying and learning the mechanical trades. He worked as an artisan, and even today there is preserved in the marine museum at Petrograd a model of a ship made by the great czar himself. He established himself firmly upon the Baltic. His ambitions led him against the Turks on the Black sea and he secured the port of Avoz from the sultan.

Though he fought many exhausting wars he never lost sight of the internal improvement of his country. He brought his army to a state of efficiency where it was able to cope on an equality with his western neighbors. In manners and dress he borrowed from the Germans, Dutch, English, Swedes, or French. He shaved off his beard, which almost brought on a revolution. Like the Japanese, he took his innovations from every source without sentimental preference.

In 1703 he founded the new capital of St. Petersburg (now Petrograd), at the mouth of the Neva river, which was to serve as "a window through which his people might look into Europe."

The beginning of the German influence at the court of St. Petersburg dates from the reign of Anne, 1730-1740. Her favorite, Biren, and other Germans were the dominating officials of the government during her reign and through their influence she chose as her successor the son of her niece, the Duchess of Brunswick. As Ivan VI. he occupied the throne a little more than a year and was followed by Elizabeth, daughter of Peter the Great and Catherine I. She relegated the German element to the background in the government and further showed her hatred of the Germans by her constant struggle with Frederick the Great of Prussia, which cost Russia not less than 300,000 men and many million rubles.

In spite of her anti-Germanism her selection of a successor fell to her nephew, Charles Peter Ulrich, Duke of Holstein-Gottorp, the son of her oldest sister, Anna. He was in fact a thorough German, despite his Russian mother, and again the Slavonic hatred of the German disposed of this unwelcome monarch, Peter III., after a few months' reign, during which time he had shown the most supine deference to Frederick the Great.

Catherine the Great, his wife, succeeded him. Despite her German origin she managed to make herself popular with the upper ranks of Russian society, and her power and influence as sovereign gave Russia an impetus toward progress only second to that during the time of Peter the Great.

Her unhappy married life, the assassination of her husband, Peter III., and the many scandals attaching to the name of Catherine have not detracted from her greatness as a monarch. Under her sway the German influence at St. Petersburg became firmly intrenched, but it was directed for the advancement of Russia and not in the supine manner in which her consort had attempted to use it.

To the Slavs, however, Catherine the Great is no cherished memory, and the heritage of German influence at the Kremlin left by this great sovereign has been a thorn in the side of the Russians ever since. Many of the German names of influence in Russia today date from this period. As the power of the czars has been extended in modern times the influence of the Slavs has become more dominant and the present conflict was welcomed as a chosen opportunity for eliminating the last vestige of Germanism in Russia.

FOR WOMAN AND THE CHILD.

There are two bills in the legislature which are based on the most conservative principle that can govern the policy of an enlightened state.

The principle is the conservation of woman and the child.

Yet by a paradox of political shortsightedness this profoundly conservative principle has been called radical in the false sense of destructive.

Happily that error is passing away rapidly in the United States and we are realizing that any nation, any commonwealth, which neglects wise legislation protective of womanhood and childhood is neglecting its most vital interest. To let the prospective mother and the future citizen be exploited and weakened in body and constitution is state suicide. No other interest is before this.

The two bills now under consideration at Springfield, one for the reduction of the permissible hours of labor for women, the other for the increase in the school years for children, with some other desirable checks on child labor, hitherto described, are conservation measures which deserve the hearty support of all classes of citizens. They are not social justice measures merely. They are social common sense measures. They may not be perfect in every detail, but they should be enacted without substantial amendment—that is, in a form which shall make as certain as possible that their essential purposes will be given full effect.

It is to be hoped that reports of organized opposition to these measures have been exaggerated and distorted and that associated business men appearing at Springfield will show enlightened social sense rather than a narrow and in the long run fallacious self-interest. The benefit of organization to protect and support legitimate business activity and those rights and interests of employers which are compatible with the public welfare is everywhere recognized. It is recognized in spite of the fact that such organization has sometimes been found opposing just legislation and useful social reforms. But if associations of employers wish to advance their own just interests and retain their influence they will not blindly oppose measures of social economy and efficiency but on the contrary they will generously support and help to perfect them.

The trouble with organizations of all sorts frequently is that they fall into the hands of extremists. Officials paid to do something earn their salaries by thrusting their organizations militantly into positions the rank and file would not upon consideration approve. Two or three men are permitted to think and speak for many who let things take their course to the injury of their class and to the discredit of themselves as citizens.

Just now there is a tendency to react against further regulation and surveillance of business activities. There is warning against the dangers of bureaucracy. But this by no means indicates a reaction against real conservation of life, real social economy, real industrial efficiency. Our standards in this respect have changed permanently and there is no chance of our returning to a period of wasteful laissez faire, a period of selfish individual profit at the cost of the nation present and future.

Associations of business men should support as vigorously as any reform organization the farsighted economies of true social legislation. They should see to it that their representatives are not misrepresenting them, that they are not to be found in committee rooms and at public hearings, always obstructing, always angrily opposing, always blindly and selfishly fighting legislation wisely conceived to raise the lot of the common man and to make this nation now and always sound and strong from foundation to capstone.

LIQUOR IN ENGLAND.

Lloyd-George gets more in earnest in his opposition to liquor. The government finds itself seriously embarrassed by the effects of alcohol upon workmen at a time when efficiency is necessary to the accomplishment of national purposes.

The chancellor at least is awake to the fact that the morale of the English has been impaired by drink. There is greater incentive to drink in such times as these and Lloyd-George does not like the picture which the English portion of the United Kingdom presents. The pot house and rum hole are making rotten spots in English manhood. The lack of decent restraint is apparent.

Irresponsibility, indifference, and sodden, egotistic, inefficient individualism break down the community organization when it is needed at its best. Then it is found at its worst. Alcoholism not only presents England with a decadent element in its citizenship but it puts a drag on the work of its self-respecting, self-sacrificing men.

The chancellor has seen battleships come in from action needing repairs and fail to get them in proper time because workmen who share none of the physical dangers of the empire's exigency and who are asked merely to do their civilian work at the top of their ability are drunk or recovering from the effects of drink.

Kitchener complains that lack of munitions of war interferes with the operations of troops and the men in the factories upon which the men at the front depend lose half a week because they get full of liquor at every opportunity.

In circumstances such as these the chancellor says without exaggeration that the empire is fighting Germans, Austrians, and liquor and that the most dangerous is liquor.

It is hard in an individualistic nation to put the clamps down on self-indulgence which is protected by notions of personal liberty, but, radical as a prohibitory measure would be in England, one will be adopted, we believe, if the evil continues to threaten the country.

Liquor interests are fortified in the high political and social circles of England. They are strong in the strongholds of toryism against which Lloyd-George has fought all his fights for better economic conditions.

He, of course, recognizes that the evil of alcoholism does not stand wholly on its own supports but rests partly upon other ills. English toryism has been indifferent to manifest evidences of a decadence which wise legislation could have checked. It has permitted hundreds of thousands of its citizens to go to the devil as they pleased or as they were compelled. It has permitted injustice and neglect to make slums and fill them. It has raised a large body of sullen men who think that all they can get out of life is what they force the top dogs to grant them.

The pot house has been a friendlier place to them than any they ever found with a flag over it and Lloyd-George knows that he has more than a question of liquor on his hands.

MAY THE STATE SPEAK?

The house of representatives today is due, by program, to vote upon the question of submitting a resolution for a constitutional convention to the people of the state. It cannot be repeated too many times that this is the only question. The legislature is not asked to say whether there should be a new constitution or what kind of a new constitution there should be.

It is asked merely to let the people say whether there has come a time needing a changed and better organic law. The house of representatives may deny the people the right to speak for themselves. It cannot grant a constitution. It merely can stand in the way of one being obtained.

The legislature can keep the state tongue tied. It is asked merely to allow it to articulate. What does the state want? That is the only question the assembly is asked to determine, and that only by asking it.

A FRIEND OF MAN.

Floyd Gibbons' story in THE TRIBUNE yesterday morning revealed our interesting friend, Pancho Villa, in the act of being a broth of a boy. Villa's morals are fast and loose and he'll never acquire credit where orderly folk consider and highly regard the proprieties. That Mr. Bryan should have a sneaking liking for this mixture of feline cruelties, canine lusts, and aboriginal virtues is a confusing matter to the just who ordinarily like to follow Mr. Bryan.

That President Wilson should have an academic fondness for him comes within the understanding inasmuch as the president frequently is a professor, and under the student lamp Villa is more interesting than possibly he might be in the saddle.

Mr. Wilson and Mr. Bryan, who might have spilled ink, but not blood, in the French revolution, have a passion for mankind which leads them into studio admirations for one who, laboring for the under dog, goes directly, by loot, sword, and fire, to his object. The fact that Villa and his family take a little bit off the top for themselves does not wholly congeal the warm impulses of the American president and secretary of state. They wish he would be more circumspect, but nevertheless, crude as his methods may be and reproachable as are his habits, his also represents a passion for mankind.

When Pancho assessed a 1,000,000 peso tax upon the merchants of Monterey to console the poor who had fallen victims to the gainful impulses of the rich, Mr. Bryan, formal as his instincts are, may have felt that there, in less conventional times, was the true soul of William Jennings, a champion of the downtrodden.

MIGRATORY BIRDS AND STATE RIGHTS.

Considerable irritation and disgust are manifested among bird lovers and newspaper correspondents over the recent decision of Federal Judge Pollock at Topeka holding the national law for the protection of migratory birds null and void because of its alleged invasion of the sphere of state regulation. The pleas and arguments that were made in congress are being marshaled once more to demonstrate the lack of substance and logic in the judge's opinion.

Is not all this a waste of energy and space? The measure was so contentious technically that a congressional majority was mustered only after the greatest difficulties. Some of the old fashioned state rightists were prevailed upon to vote for national protection of birds in order that the highest court might have the opportunity to determine the question. Is it surprising that among so many federal judges one or two should be found who adhere to the notion that the regulation and protection of game belongs to the "sovereign" states?

Bird lovers expected some conflict and some setbacks "below," but they pin their faith to the Supreme court. They hope and trust that that tribunal will apply the rule of reason to our lovely winged migrants as it has applied it to more or less fixed combinations. Let the friends of the birds secure the ablest legal advisers and furnish these with all the ammunition that has been stored up. Facts, facts, and more facts are what the court will call for.

Editorial of the Day.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

[From the New World.]

It may be a matter of reasonable doubt to say that the death penalty does not stay the slayer because in states where capital punishment exists he has almost 98 chances out of 100 to escape. It would make a far more telling argument to the opposite opinion to say: "Give capital punishment a trial first before you attempt to abolish it." New York and Chicago together have a population about equal to London. In 1913 these two cities had a total of 417 murders; just twenty times as many as London, which, out of its twenty murderers, had hanged fifteen. May it not be possible that the slackness of the law, the misuse of its criminal proceedings, vastly more than the law itself must be blamed? Society owes to itself adequate protection. What guarantee has society against the murderer who, escaping the noose, goes to jail in the confidence that sooner or later he will be turned back on it? There are many awful features to capital punishment that are shocking and abhorrent, but we prefer these rather than a mawkish sentimentality that might leave us a prey to weak doctrinaires. Should capital punishment be abolished in this state, one safeguard should be given—the power of pardoning should be taken from the governor.

"THERE'S NO TELLING."

"I have wrote a poem of 200 stanzas on the war," says the Sweet Singer of the Whitsett Courier, "but I doubt if it'll stop it. But if they'd take a recess and read every line of it there's no telling what might happen!"—Atlanta Constitution.

A LINE-O'-TYPE OR TWO.

JINGLES FROM MYTHLAND.

NARCISSUS.

NARCISSUS was a simple lad,
But who was simple 'Cissie's dad
Mythology has failed to tell;
Some god, no doubt, that we know well.

Although he scrubbed and kept it clean,
His own fair face he'd never seen.
One day, while drinking from a spring,
He lamped his map, the lovely thing!

He took it for a water nymph,
And fell in love, the simple lymph!
In love Narciss was unadvised,
And, seeking it, he was baptized.

The wood nymphs said he was a fool
To rubber in each forest pool,
And lave his arms and face, and try
To kiss a maiden soft and shy.

Yet still his foolish head he soaked,
And spoke as if a frog had croaked;
His eyes took on a watery stare,
And water trickled from his hair.

He grew morose and lank and lean
From grabbing at his water queen;
And all his efforts being vain,
He died of water on the brain.

AL.

THUS far the revealment of the respective views of Messrs. Sweitzer and Thompson have been to the last degree absorbing, and only a week remains for recording their attitudes toward prohibition in Bulgaria, the jitney bus in Jerusalem, the pronunciation of Przemysl, and other equally fascinating controversies.

MR. BRADY advertised for stage-aspirants to participate in his great production of "Life" (which opens next Saturday evening in the Auditorium; tickets on application at the box office). One of the lady aspirants who applied for a job was asked, "As what?" "Oh," said she, "something dressy and refined." "What experience?" "I'm a lion-tamer with Ringling, but I'm going to jump the show."

A GOOD VERB FOR A NAT GOODWIN WEDDING.

[From the Buckeye Valley, Ariz., News.]

The pretty wedding of Miss Vera McVea and Mr. Clifford Maddox was solomonized Wednesday afternoon.

THE Johannes Brahms Trio is to give a concert on the evening of April 7 in the Fine Arts theater for the benefit of the Archer Road Day Nursery, our favorite charity. The C-major trio of Brahms has not been played publicly in Chicago, to our knowledge, and one of the five songs by John Alden Carpenter which Mrs. Hanna Butler is to sing, "Le Ciel," will be heard for the first time. Mr. Carpenter will attend to the accompaniments, which will add to the enjoyment of the evening.

I'll tell thee everything I can;
There's little to relate.
I saw an aged aged man
A-sitting on a gate.
I said, "Who are you, aged man,
Who seem as old as Zeus?"
Said he, "I am that hoary thing,
An aged ag'd recluse."

FRED DONAGHEY is desolated because the poetic ad—

"Go and see it—in the Princess;

appeared in the W. G. N. with "at" inserted before "eight-fifteen." We deeply sympathize. Some thoughtful person on the Metropolitan Magazine added a word to one of our verses, and it was weeks before we could refer to the magazine without a qualifying curse.

Commercialism.

[Francis Hackett in the New Republic.]

WE do not despise a man who finds in practicing medicine the means of his livelihood. We look with respect on the specialist who makes, financially speaking, a big killing. But, if we employ strenuous terms, we denounce the doctor who does business on a wholesale, slapdash, commercial scale, as a quack and a faker and an enemy of society. We look down on him for regarding his patients as raw material. We say he is commercialized. The same term we apply to any free man who arranges his opinions with too loud a view to profit. We do not say the grocer is "commercialized" because what he sells is material, not spiritual. He deals in raw product. We do not despise the lawyer for arranging his opinions. His purpose in arranging them is supposed to procure justice as well as the major portion of his client's assets. But we do despise the revivalist who salts away a fortune, the politician who profits by politics even in power, the press agent of the big corporations, the mercenary newspaper man, the subsidized mining expert, the woman who simulates love for the sake of money, or any one else who puts forth as genuine and disinterested any spiritual expression which is really spurious, and arranged with a view to trading on the public and making money rather than manifesting a sincere personality.

IT takes all kinds of people to populate Vanity Fair, including women who have things sent home on approval from the department stores, wear them a few days, and then return them.

FATS AS FOOD.

FATS are not acted upon by the saliva. When they reach the stomach digestion of them proceeds, if they are emulsified. If they are not emulsified they do not begin to digest until they reach the small intestine. For instance, when sweet milk containing 4 per cent butter fat is taken into the stomach, the butter fat commences to digest at once. If the butter fat, however, is taken as buttered bread, but very little of the butter digests before the small intestine is reached.

As soon as the small intestine is reached the stomach acid is neutralized and the bile and pancreatic juices begin their work of emulsifying, digesting, and dissolving the fats. The special work of the pancreatic juice is the digesting of the fat. The special work of the bile is first in emulsifying and then in dissolving it.

In the process of digestion fats are converted into glycerol and fatty acid. The first of these fatty substances is soluble in water; the second in bile. The solution of fat is absorbed from the intestines into a by-pass, through which channel the greater portion of it passes into the bloodstream without going through the liver. The fat circulates for a while in the blood and then passes through the blood vessel walls, and in the tissues is changed back into the form that we know as fat, much the same form as it was in when digestion began.

The process described is a storage process. The result of this process rounds out the features and makes plumpness and comeliness, but, from the standpoint of production of force, it is no more than a savings bank deposit.

Fat is burned to make heat and energy. Some of it is carried to the liver and there turned into sugar (glucose), which is burned into carbonic acid, liberating heat and energy. Some of the soluble fat poured into the blood after digestion is burned directly as fuel for the production of heat and energy and some of it is stored as fat under the skin and in the tissues generally as already indicated.

When the tissues need to call upon the stored fat, it is possible, though not proved, that they can burn some of the fat directly into carbonic acid, making heat and energy.

The more important method of using the stored fat is for the digestive and dissolving agents to convert it from insoluble stored fat into soluble fat, whereupon it reenters the circulation and is carried to the liver. In the liver it is converted into sugar, whereupon it is burned.

In the production of energy a pound of fat will produce 95.5 per cent as much energy as a pound of carbohydrate (starch or sugar). While fat fed as food is an important source of stored fat in the body, it is far from being the only source. When starches and sugars are fed in excess some of the carbohydrate is converted into fat and is then deposited as insoluble fat under the skin and elsewhere throughout the body.

Fat can be converted into sugar and sugar can be converted into fat in the human body, and fat and sugar can be used by the body more or less interchangeably as a source of heat and energy. There is the best of evidence that a man can store up fat by eating abundantly of lean meat. Protein can be converted into fat. There is no direct evidence that fat can be converted into protein or, in other words, muscle.

Babies do not grow when they are not fed enough butter fat. They do grow when given plenty of butter fat, but that is explained in another way.

ASPIRIN HABIT HARMFUL.

W. A. E. writes: "Are there any injurious effects from the use of aspirin? Are there any injurious effects from the use of bromo seltzer? Are there any ingredients in either that would be likely to create a habit?"

REPLY.

Yes, to each question. Potter gives bromo-seltzer as containing a small dose of bromide, a moderate dose of acetanalid, and a large dose of caffein. Caffein is a habit forming drug. Acetanalid, a coal tar derivative, relieves neuralgic pains, but at the same time it degenerates the blood so as to bring about a headache habit. Aspirin is now made from coal tar. A single dose will relieve pain of a certain kind, but the habit of taking aspirin daily, or frequently, or on slight provocation, is very harmful.

RAYNAUD'S DISEASE.

G. M. C. writes: "Does Raynaud's disease usually result in gangrene of the extremities? Is there a chance of keeping it off if the general health is good? Two nails on one foot have been loose for months. Should they be removed or kept dressed? Is there no cure for the disease? Where can I secure the latest reading matter?"

REPLY.

1 and 4. No.
2. Yes.
3. Dressed.
5. Crerar library.

REPLY TO B. R. T.

The calf of the leg is formed by the muscles which bend the foot at the ankle. To develop these muscles go through the exercises which bend the ankle. Toe dancing is best of all. Ordinary dancing is good. Running is excellent. Walking is good.

Recommended bathroom exercises: Remove the shoes, stand erect, rise on the tips of the toes with all muscles of the lower leg held rigid. Holding the muscles rigid, lower the heels until they touch the floor. Bend the front of the foot upward as far as possible with the calf muscles held rigid. Go through this exercise for fifteen minutes twice a day.

The object of this exercise is to increase the size of the calf of the leg by developing the muscles. It will be of no service in causing an increased deposit of fat.

LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY.

[Copyright: 1915: By the Brentwood Co.]

ADALBERT DE TALLEYRAND-PERIGORD incurred so much hostility and contempt on the part of the old French aristocracy by his acceptance of the historic and illustrious title of Duke of Montmorency at the hands of Napoleon III. that it is doubtful whether his only son, Louis, a widowed and childless staff officer of 50, now serving at the front in France against the Germans, will be willing to assume it.

Allied to the Rohans by marriage (his wife was a daughter of the present Duc de Rohan), it is probable that he will prefer to continue to be known by the title of Comte de Perigord, which he has borne until now.

If he dispenses with the dukedom he will be able to claim that he has inherited absolutely nothing from his father, who died on Friday last at the age of 76. The late duke left only debts, which are said to mount into the neighborhood of $2,000,000.

During the greater part of his life, in fact, ever since the downfall of the empire in 1870, he was in financial difficulties and in the hands of money lenders, while the unending series of lawsuits against him by usurers and tradespeople were some of them of an exceedingly scandalous character.

The late duke repeatedly endeavored to secure the hand and incidentally the fortune of rich American widows, and among those whom he sought to marry was Mrs. William T. Moore.

If his courtships were invariably unsuccessful it was because the American women concerned realized that marriage to him would harm, instead of further their social ambitions, and would have the effect of involving them in the ostracism with which he was treated by that noble faubourg in Paris to which so many foreigners seek admission, and yet into which so few have succeeded in penetrating.

The old ducal house of Montmorency became extinct in the male line with the death of Raoul, the last Duc de Montmorency, in 1862. Napoleon III. thereupon proceeded to offer to Stanislas de la Rochefoucauld, Duc de Doudeauville, to revive the dukedom of Montmorency in his favor, on the ground that his mother had been a De Montmorency.

Napoleon made this offer in the hope of conciliating the De la Rochefoucaulds and of attracting them to his court of the Tuileries, from which they and most of the old aristocracy had held rigorously aloof.

The Duc de Doudeauville, however, indignanty spurned the advance of the emperor, declaring that a mere Bonaparte, an upstart adventurer, whose sovereignty at the best was of the mushroom order, had no right whatsoever to offer to any one so ancient and so historic a title as that of Duc de Montmorency.

He added that assuredly no one of the old nobles would dream for one moment of considering such an offer, and that, if there was any one who had the right to assume it, it would be Edouard de Montmorency, Duc de Beaumont and Prince de Luxembourg, representing a younger branch of the Montmorency family.

The Duc de Beaumont, by the by, survived until 1878, when his line became extinct. But he always declined to take up the title of Duc de Montmorency, preferring his own dignities of Duc de Beaumont and Prince de Luxembourg.

In nowise discouraged, Napoleon thereupon tendered the dukedom of Montmorency to Adalbert de Talleyrand-Perigord, the effeminate and impecunious younger brother of the then Prince de Sagan, at the same time undertaking to find him a rich wife.

Adalbert de Talleyrand-Perigord accepted the offer, on the plea that his mother had belonged to the Montmorency family and, as soon as the official decree bestowing the title upon him was promulgated, was called upon to fight a whole series of duels, among the cartels which he received being challenges from Stanislas de la Rochefoucauld, Duc de Doudeauville, and from Edouard de Montmorency, Duc de Beaumont, on the ground that it was an insult to the house of Montmorency and to the entire old French aristocracy to accept as a purely modern honor from the hands of a Napoleon a dignity which belonged to the most glorious pages of the old time history of France.

The new Duc de Montmorency became an object of ridicule in all the newspapers save those of the Bonapartist following, and so strong was the feeling against him that he found the doors of all the best and smartest clubs in France closed against him.

In fact, the only club into which he eventually found his way was one which was virtually run by members of the Napoleon court, and which, falling into evil days after the downfall of the empire, was merged into what is now known as that omnium gatherum, the Union Artistique.

Emperor Napoleon kept his promise about securing a rich wife for his new Duc de Montmorency and married him off to Carmen Aguado, daughter of the well known Franco-Spanish banker, the Marquis de Las Marismas del Guadalquivir.

The Aguados were of Cuban origin and, having made a fortune at Havana, established themselves at Madrid in the reign of old King Ferdinad, father of Isabella II., securing the marquisate of De Las Marismas from him in recognition of financial services.

They were intimate with the old Countess de Montijo and her two daughters when the girls were maids of honor of Queen Isabella, and Señora de Montijo was one of the dames du palais at the court of Spain.

When Eugénie became empress of the French, the Aguados followed her to Paris and became the principal bankers of the court, especially of the empress.

Indeed, the Marquis de Las Marismas, who had never been admitted into the Spanish great world at Madrid, despite his title, cast off his Spanish allegiance and secured naturalization as a Frenchman.

The Marquise de Las Marismas became one of the principal ladies of the Empress Eugénie and, a beautiful woman, figures conspicuously in that celebrated picture by Winterhalter portraying the empress surrounded by the fairest of her ladies.

She was not a Spaniard but a Scotchwoman, one of the MacDonnells of Aberchalder, daughter of Hugh MacDonnell, who was British consul general at Algiers.

The prosperity of the Aguados did not survive the fall of the empire, and as the new Duke and Duchess de Montmorency always lived up to their at one time large means, they found themselves up to the neck in financial difficulties before the present republic was many years old.

The duchess, née Carmen Aguado, was associated with her husband in many of the suits against him. She died in 1880, and from that time forth her husband lived a sort of hand to mouth and rather discredited existence until his death last week in Paris.

APPEAR BEFORE CIRCUIT COURT.

Chicago, March 26.—[To the Friend of the People.]—I wish to secure my naturalization papers, having lived in New York for two years and in Chicago for three years. None of my witnesses know me longer than three years, although it is necessary by law that I be known by them for five years. Kindly advise me in this matter and oblige, I. BROOKER, 1430 Edgemont avenue.

The writer of this inquiry should present himself at the office of the clerk of either the Circuit or Superior court for Cook county, or the United States District court, in the federal building, with two witnesses, citizens of the United States, who have known him since he has resided in the state of Illinois, and file his petition for naturalization. The balance of the five years necessary to be established may be proved by the depositions of two witnesses, and this feature of the matter will be explained more fully at the time he appears to file his petition. If the alien arrived in the United States subsequent to June 29, 1906, it will be necessary for him to obtain a certificate of arrival, and a blank form of application may be obtained from the clerk of either of the above named courts.

MERTON A. STURGES,
Chief Naturalization Examiner.

MUST FURNISH HALL LIGHTS.

Chicago, March 25.—[To the Friend of the People.]—Kindly see what can be done towards having the owner of the flat building at 1558 South Sawyer avenue keep the lights burning in the hallways of the building during the entire night.
FRED M. KRAMER.

Notice has been served on the owner to discontinue shutting off lights in halls at 10 p. m. and keep lights burning from sundown to sunrise each night. J. C. M. DONNELL,
Chief Bureau of Fire Prevention and Public Safety.

STOP CONSIDERED NECESSARY.

Chicago, March 27.—[To the Friend of the People.]—Kindly advise why it is necessary for Evanston trains, which are almost invariably full to overflowing before leaving the Argyle station, to stop at Wilson avenue, Sheridan road, Belmont, and Fullerton avenues for passengers in the morning, while the same trains in the evening do not stop between Kinzie and Argyle. My observations have extended over the entire period that the Northwestern Elevated railroad has given service as far as Evanston, and it is a very rare case during the morning rush hour that a passenger boarding an Evanston train south of Argyle secures a seat, whereas the trains leaving Wilson avenue are usually not nearly as crowded as are the Evanston trains. W. E. BROWN, 6327 Lakewood avenue.

Evanston trains are stopped at Wilson avenue, Sheridan road, Belmont and Fullerton avenues during the morning rush for the purpose of allowing passengers who are on their way to business to leave trains. In the evening the North Water street-Evanston trains make these stops.

NOTIFIED TO REMOVE REFUSE.

Chicago, March 27.—[To the Friend of the People.]—The rear of the lots of several stores near the southeast corner of Laramie and Chicago avenues has been in a very unsightly and insanitary condition for the last two years, due to dumping of refuse and papers by the property owners.
P. M. THOMPSON,
748 North Laramie avenue.

An investigation shows some accumulation of objectionable material which has formed the subject of a notice upon the various tenants for its removal. G. B. YOUNG,

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

PAN-AMERICA AND MEXICO.

Chicago, March 29.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—There seems to be little chance for the United States to shirk its responsibility in Mexico. The much feared "intervention" seems inevitable. How to help our unwilling neighbors to the south without serious bloodshed and without incurring the displeasure and distrust of the other Latin-American countries is a truly ticklish problem.

A combination of the United States with the Latin-American countries to bring about Mexican peace would seem most desirable.

Could not a joint intervention be arranged? Let the South and Central American republics send only a small force of men merely to lend their moral sanction to the movement. It seems that this would undoubtedly disarm Latin-American suspicion, and while the Mexican might not hesitate to fight the hated "Gringo" to the last ditch, the moral effect of this all American movement should bring about early and lasting peace with a minimum of carnage.

What a wonderful effect such an action would have in stabilizing the governments of the Central and South American republics and preventing the further outbreak of their ceaseless revolutions.

What a powerful aid would be given our Monoe doctrine by such an action, proving conclusively the ability of the Americas to sensibly adjust their own affairs!

And, lastly, what more conclusive argument could be furnished the European combatants of the wisdom and beneficence of an international court of law and an international police force to enforce its decrees than the success of such a movement? FELIX FANTUS.

MURDERING BY AUTO.

De Kalb, Ill., March 28.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—While the family of the late Chapin F. Phillips does not feel like prosecuting any one for the death of their loved one, considering as they do that the fault lies more in the lack of regulation than in the man, yet something should be done betimes to render the words "safety first" something more than a hollow mockery.

When a man, living blamelessly and harmlessly, giving his life minute by minute for his family, his friends, his community, and his God, has that life ruthlessly stamped out without a moment's warning nor a chance to bid those to whom he was unspeakably precious a word of farewell, the time has come to do something to regulate the use of automobiles on city streets.

As an auto user with comparatively extended knowledge of my machine, I would not, with all my experience, consider myself safe from an accident without continual vigilance while in the city. What can be a greater menace to life and limb than a car handled by a beginner on a crowded Chicago street?

Could not a colossal daily such as THE TRIBUNE use its mighty influence to ameliorate this condition, and thus safeguard other families from the bereavement and desolation such as has been brought on us? FRED W. PHILLIPS, 820 North Second street.

TUBERCULIN TEST FOR COWS.

Genoa, Ill., March 29.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—In your editorial you do us dairymen a great injustice. While it is true Mr. Fellows sometimes goes to extremes, what would be the results if this bill were repealed? It would cost us farmers $1,000,000 yearly, and the consumer would be getting the same milk as he is today. The average veterinary is honest; he has given his time and money to get an honest diploma, and has had years of practice. But the so-called trust cares nothing for the consumer or producer. The inspectors could come on our farms, kill the healthiest cows in our herd, and charge from $50 to $300 yearly. The healthiest cow in the world, if excited or heavy in calf, will react under the tuberculin test; it has been proven time and time again. I am willing to have my local veterinary examine my herd twice yearly.

The board of health can examine each cow's milk, and if she has tuberculosis her milk will show it. The Chicago press, by misstatements, has hurt the sale of milk and induced consumers to pay 12 to 15 cents per quart for the same quality of milk they can buy for 8 cents. No intelligent farmer will keep a cow with tuberculosis. She will not pay for half the feed she eats. At the first symptoms of the disease she is sold for slaughter. Chicago babies are getting the best and richest milk they ever got, and we are losing good money by producing it.

The Chicago dealers have promised us producers 2½ cents per quart for the next six months, but they won't get mine. Tuberculin made by the government, inspected by the government experts, under proper conditions, is O. K. But it would require from four to six weeks at each farm every six months. There are cheaper ways. What would Chicago think of us farmers if we should pass a law requiring her inspectors to boil their clothes, sterilize their hands, and disinfect their feet before we let them on our farms? We want to supply Chicago babies with clean, healthful milk. Some political fads go too far. C. J. COOPER.

WET AND DRY CAMPAIGN.

Chicago, March 27.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—Heretofore it would appear, to this association, that the sentiment of your paper has been largely for the dry side of the argument and has not taken into consideration the fact that 1,900 of Chicago's leading business men, employing upwards of 100,000 men, many of whom are large advertisers in your paper, realize the fact that "a dry town is a dead town" and are distinctly opposed to the program of the drys and are further opposed to the free publicity given the dry propaganda. As the campaign progresses, the fallacy of prohibition and its dire results will be clearly set forth. R. E. BRUNS,
President Manufacturers and Dealers' Association.

COMMERCE IN ARMS.

Fort Atkinson, Wis., March 28.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—The editorial, "The Commerce in Arms," is good enough to read twice. I shall file it away. I look back fifty-four years and see the people of the United States as divided in sentiment and supposed interest as they are today over the war in Europe. How clouded our visions sometimes are.
M. SHERMAN.

ACT FOR PASSAGE OF LOCAL BILLS IN LEGISLATURE

Chicago Lobbies Incorporate School and Debt Measures Into One.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Springfield, Ill., March 30.—[Special.]—Lobbies representing Chicago and its board of education got together today and agreed upon a plan of action which may save one or both of their bills.

The board of education [illegible]s its maximum educational tax rate raised from $1.05 to $1.20. The city wants to get an extension of elimination of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness from the Juul law scaling process continued indefinitely.

By a coincidence, explained as quite natural today, the city was cared for in both bills. As matters stand the school board's bill will become an amendment to the city of Chicago's bill. This procedure is said to have been suggested by the corporation counsel's office.

Busy Day in Committees.

Both houses worked on high speed today in committee. Senator Curtis, chairman of the senate appropriations committee, as was forecast last night, served notice upon the state board of administration that $8,000,000 will have to be lopped off the required appropriations and that the state board would be asked to contribute at least a million of the cut. Chairman Smejkal of the house committee took the same stand.

Both committees started on the omnibus appropriation bill for the charitable institutions. Progress was sufficiently rapid to warrant the prediction from Speaker Shanahan that the session would be ended before June 1.

Representative Provine introduced a resolution providing that all deficiency appropriation requests from the departments must be put in at once and all shall go into one bill. Representative McCormick, speaking for the resolution, said that two years ago there were [illegible] deficiency bills, requiring that many separate roll calls. This time the requested amounts for deficiencies in the departments and boards totals nearly $150,000.

Capital Punishment Bill Loses.

Gov. Dunne's capital punishment bill met trouble in the senate judiciary committee, where it was killed outright. It is to be considered in the house committee of the whole next week.

The two committees on waterways will make the trip down the Illinois and Michigan canal and thence through the [illegible]nois river to Peoria on Friday and Saturday of next week instead of this week as had been arranged. The postponement came because of Holy week and the approaching municipal elections.

All of the pending election contests in the house were postponed for two weeks.

A "Merry Whirl" Dancer.

MISS BARBARA ANDREWS of 5700 Winthrop avenue is the axle of one of the wheels which will turn in the Junior league's skit, "The Merry Whirl," at Orchestra hall, April 6 and 7. She and half a hundred other society debutantes are rehearsing their parts at the Blackstone hotel every afternoon.

The proceeds of the entertainment will be used for a rest room at 35 South Dearborn street and for the support of two visiting nurses. Seats are on sale at Orchestra hall.

WILL PASS BILL FOR CONVENTION ON CONSTITUTION

All Signs at Springfield Point to House O. K. Today on Curtis Resolution.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Springfield, Ill., March 30.—[Special.]—The constitutional convention resolution looks like a winner tomorrow. It will be called up for a final vote in the house at 11 o'clock by virtue of a unanimous report from the committee on rules.

Members of the house, most of whom have not been pledged for submission of the convention proposition to the people, had no hesitancy in saying they expect to vote for the Curtis resolution which has been adopted by the senate.

Before departing for Chicago this afternoon Gov. Dunne let it be known to his friends in the house that it would be wise for them to support the resolution. A poll of the recognized administration men indicated they are not only prepared to vote for the resolution but are doing some effective campaigning in its behalf.

Democrats in "Yea" Column.

Representative Santry, Representative Bruce, and others on the Democratic side, who have been classed as noncommittal, came to the front with the declaration that they will vote for the measure.

Representative Purdunn and a squad of downstate Democrats are believed to be ready to vote in the affirmative.

Friends of the resolution, while optimistic because of the proffers of support, fear a concentrated attack may be made at the last minute by the organized "wet" interests.

This fear is not voiced in quarters where arguments which might be advanced by the "wets" would have some effect. It is expected Representative Browne of La Salle will use his influence in an effort to withhold votes from the "yea" column.

Feared House May Balk.

Experienced legislators, friendly to the adoption of the Curtis resolution, are frank in their declaration that its defeat would not be greatly surprising, notwithstanding the fair weather signs. They point out that the house is in a nervous state of mind, due to the oncoming Chicago elections, to the ill feeling which has been aroused over house organization, and to the ever-present wet and dry issue.

"The resolution may be adopted by the house and I hope that it will," former Speaker Shurtleff said, "but if it does it will be upon the merits of the resolution alone."

Without the recruits who came forward today, there are enough pledged members to furnish the required 102 votes.

Bills in the House.

Among the bills introduced in the house today were the following:

By De Young—Provides for the election of supervisors in Cook county on the first Tuesday in April, 1916, and biennially thereafter.

By Weber—An act establishing a system of vocational education and to provide for maintenance. Creates state board of vocational education of nine members, eight to be named by the governor, and the superintendent of public instruction to be ex-officio member. Two to be employers of labor, two to be skilled employés; two to be farmers, and two to be educators. Three to serve two years; three to serve four years, and two for six years, and thereafter all for six years, all without compensation. Any city in state may adopt by referendum on petition of 5 per cent of qualified voters.

Will Play at Good Friday Concert.

MISS HELEN MAYER

A choral society of forty voices will give a performance of Stainer's "Crucifixion" on Good Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church, Grand boulevard and Forty-first street. Miss Helen Mayer is to be the violinist, W. V. Downer solo tenor, Arthur C. Mera basso, and Edgar A. Nelson organist. The performance is under the direction of Francis S. Moore. The public is invited.

TO USE PARKS FOR GARDENS

Lots to Be Set Aside for Raising of Vegetables in Humboldt, Garfield, and Douglas.

Humboldt, Garfield, and Douglas parks are to have farms this summer, according to President William F. Grower of the West park board. He said lots 100 feet square will be set aside for raising vegetables. Gardeners at the different parks will have supervision of the farms. It is an experiment to show the public what can be raised.

COUNTIES TO HAVE CONTROL OVER STATE ROAD BUILDING.

House Committee Bill Gives Local Boards Right to Designate Improvements—Amends Tice Law.

Springfield, Ill., March 30.—[Special.]—"Home rule" and "county option" on the hard roads question became the legislative policy of the house roads committee today when it adopted vital amendments to the present Tice good roads act.

Acting under the chairmanship of Representative Tice, the committee killed the bill introduced originally by Mr. Tice and reported out a committee bill which authorizes boards of supervisors and county boards in each county to determine and stipulate the character of road which shall be built with state aid funds. The roads shall then be contracted under the supervision of the state highway department and in accordance with the state specifications.

The committee also reported favorably the Purdunn bill for compulsory dragging of roads and killed the "narrow width" bill.

HERE'S some furniture you should see, and own, if you have a place for it; the effectiveness of the Black Lacquer with high lights in the subdued yellow of old gold is most artistic. Unless you have seen this combination, its beauty will surprise you.

This furniture of the Queen Anne period, "with Chinese influence," seems to combine perfectly the features of usefulness which marked the furniture of the preceding periods, the life and elegance of the times of Queen Anne, the enduring beauty of Chinese art, the oldest in the world.

If for no other reasons, you should see this furniture for its educational value. We are very proud to show it.

DR. ECKMAN BACK IN PULPIT.

Resigns as Editor of Christian Advocate, to Which Post He Was Elected in 1912.

The Rev. Dr. George P. Eckman, editor of the Christian Advocate, New York, the leading periodical of the Methodist Episcopal denomination, has resigned from the editorship of the paper and will reënter the pastorate.

Dr. Eckman was elected editor at the general conference in Minneapolis in May, 1912, as the successor of the Rev. James M. Buckley, who had been editor of the Advocate for thirty-two years.

Dr. Eckman has accepted a call to a pulpit in Scranton, Pa.

Leahy, general passenger agent of the Rock Island, were elected first, second, and third vice presidents, respectively.

Star Lioness Misses Performance When Mother Instinct Calls Her After Jungle Stork Arrives.

Lulu Temple, star lioness with Pete Taylor's "King of Beasts" company, was indisposed and did not appear at the second performance in the Great Northern Hippodrome last night. She lay in her cage, cuddling two small new whining, blinking sons, leonine thespians of the future.

With true jungle fortitude Lulu had gone through her paces in the early show, as undisturbed as if she were not on the eve of the great happening. Even after the cubs had arrived she was loath to be left behind when the orchestra swung into the air she recognized as that introducing her appearance behing the footlights. She struggled to her feet, ready to respond.

Pete Taylor says it means a year's good luck.

Slugged by Sweitzer Man, He Says.

William B. Freeman, a speaker for William Hale Thompson, complained to the police yesterday that he had been slugged by a Sweitzer supporter in front of the Princess theater. He said he asked policemen to arrest the man and they refused.

Coverts Are Here

Here you'll find the new Balmacaan effects and countless modifications of these swagger garments. Also double-breasted models like illustration.

There is an abundance of snap in the form-fitting models, as well as in the loose and roomy coats with set-in sleeves that appeal so strongly to the young chaps. The new shades are Sand, Putty, Olive, Sage Green, Brown, Tan and Gray. Each garment is one-half or one-quarter silk lined, and many are shower-proofed. Fourth Floor.

SAXON "SIX"

$785 F. O. B. Detroit

The Best Touring Car Value in the World

Here is positively the most compelling touring car value ever offered. That is our claim. We make it unreservedly. And we back it up with these reasons:

The Saxon "Six" is the first five-passenger six-cylinder car at a price as low as $785. It has a small bore high speed motor of wonderful flexibility, smoothness and power.

The Saxon "Six" is in no sense a small car. It is big and roomy, remarkable in its riding ease and steadiness. It has a long wheelbase—112 inches; plenty of leg room; plenty of width; seating comfort for five adults. In size—in all-around specifications—it compares with cars selling around $1250.

Nor is this car just another automobile.

It is a Saxon—stylish, individual. In its distinction of appearance, construction and performance it has been a surprise to every person who has seen it.

Remember too, the Saxon "Six" is a fully equipped car. There is no extra charge for electric starter and lights, or speedometer, or any one of a number of other desirable conveniences. All these are a part of the car—at the price of $785. And all are of uniformly high grade.

SAXON

If you want a car for the whole family, you owe it to yourself to investigate this handsome "Six" before placing your order.

COUNCIL MAKEUP VITAL PROBLEM, M. V. L. WARNING

Report Says Nonpartisan Voting Is of More Moment than Mayoralty.

Declaring that the election of an honest and efficient city council is more important to Chicago at this time than the election of a mayor, the Municipal Voters' league yesterday issued its twentieth annual report.

The league asks the voters of Chicago to disregard party lines in voting for aldermen next Tuesday. It especially urges the women voters to cast their ballots for the men they believe to be best qualified, and to entirely disregard every other consideration, even their choice for mayor.

"Unless voters," says the report, "disregard party lines there are situations where excellent candidates will be beaten and where undesirable candidates will be elected.

Independent of Mayor.

"It is vital to the welfare of the city to have a council that will not be subordinate to the mayor, whoever he may be; to have men of strength, force, and independence in the city's great legislative assembly; to have men who will be governed by their own judgment, rather than men who will be under the control and domination of the mayor.

"To the women voters of Chicago a special appeal is made. They should not forget that last year, but for their votes, six good aldermen would have been defeated."

The electorate especially is urged to purge the council of the little band of "gray wolves" that remains, including Ald. Kenna of the First ward, Charles Martin of the Fifth ward, John Powers of the Nineteenth, and Edward Cullerton of the Eleventh. Barney Grogan, who is trying to break in from the Eighteenth ward, is condemned.

The league indorses for the thirty-eight vacancies twenty-six Republicans, eight Democrats, three Socialists, and one Progressive.

In the League's Platform.

Among the points contained in the league's platform submitted to all the candidates are:

Service without reference to party affiliation.

No alderman should be engaged in any business which will interfere with the disinterested discharge of his duties.

No special permit or privilege should be asked.

Public health in no instance should be sacrificed to special interests.

All city departments should have a businesslike system of accounting, with periodic examinations. Improved methods should be introduced.

Strict enforcement of civil service law.

Grants to public utilities should be for short terms. Long grants contingent on referendum.

No grant without reserving to city specific control of streets or other public places, including power or reasonable regulation of charges, service, and equipment.

Excess of fair return to public service corporations should be conserved to people through reduced rates or percentage of receipts as direct compensation.

Report on Candidates.

The league's report on candidates, condensed, follows:

First Ward—Vote for Phillips as a Protest.

LESTER PHILLIPS [Soc.]—Good reputation.

W. A. R. MITCHELL [Prog.]—Admits that at times he has voted for Kenna.

WINFIELD S. TROUPE [Rep.]—Admits that both four years ago and this year he was induced to run by Francis P. Brady, Kenna's Republican satellite.

ALD. MICHAEL KENNA ("Hinky Dink") [Dem.]—Utterly unfit. This typical gray wolf, after eighteen notorious years in the city council, now has no real opposition in the richest ward in the city.

Second Ward—Vote for Gary.

SIMON P. GARY [Prog.]—Has reputation as an honest, reliable, and efficient man.

OSCAR DE PRIEST [Rep.]—A colored politician who for years has been used by white politicians to line up colored votes; has considerable force and ability, but is thoroughly self-seeking.

ALPHONSO RUSSELL [Dem.]—His saloon at Thirty-fifth and State streets is patronized by men and women, both white and colored; utterly unfit for alderman.

Third Ward—Vote for Werner.

LONG TERM.

EDWARD J. WERNER [Rep.]—Capable man of good personal and business reputation.

ALD. THOMAS D. NASH [Dem.]—Finishing first council term with only fair record.

Third Ward—Vote for Stern.

SHORT TERM.

NATHANIEL A. STERN [Rep.]—Energetic and capable; well recommended.

Fourth Ward—Hickey Preferred.

DAVID R. HICKEY [Dem.]—Bears good reputation.

Fifth Ward—Vote for Kramp.

CHARLES MARTIN [Dem.]—Defeated for nomination in 1914 after many years in council with bad record; old time gray wolf who is seeking to break back into council. Rebuke should be repeated.

CHARLES B. LANTRY [Ind.]—Good reputation.

Sixth Ward—Vote for McCormick.

ALEXANDER A. McCORMICK [Rep.]—His experience and record in public office have been such that he should be sent to the council to render the city and the ward the service for which he is admirably equipped.

CHARLES M. HANLY [Dem.]—Without experience.

Seventh Ward—Vote for Merriam.

ALD. CHARLES E. MERRIAM [Rep.]—Now finishing second council term with exceptional constructive record. In his efforts for general improvement of the city he has constantly kept in mind the welfare of his ward; vigilant guardian of the public interest; man of unquestionable integrity and untiring industry.

WILLIAM J. LINDSAY [Dem.]—Good personal and professional reputation; his qualifications cannot be compared with those of Ald. Merriam.

Eighth Ward—Vote for Tyden.

JOHN E. TYDEN [Rep.]—Successful business man with good personal reputation.

ALD. JOHN R. EMERSON [Dem.]—Finishing third council term with weak record; in finance committee when he was present he was valueless; he contributes little to the work of the council.

Ninth Ward—Vote for Vanderbilt.

ALD. HIRAM VANDERBILT [Rep.]—Finishing first council term with good record; honest and industrious and promises to be increasingly useful.

SAMUEL E. COOK [Dem.]—Cook's qualifications are not to be compared with those of Vanderbilt.

Tenth Ward—Klaus Preferred.

ALD. FRANK KLAUS [Dem.]—Now finishing second council term with poor voting record; his friends say he will do better.

Eleventh Ward—Vote for Lohmann

GERHARD H. LOHMANN [Rep.]—Goor personal and business reputation. Voters should support Lohmann and relegate Cullerton.

ALD. EDWARD F. CULLERTON [Dem.]—Alderman almost continuously since 1871; old time gray wolf.

Twelfth Ward—Vote for Kerner.

ALD. OTTO KERNER [Dem.]—Finishing first council term with good record; man of independence, honesty, and intelligence.

CHARLES FINK [Rep.]—Well spoken of; man of extremely narrow partisan views.

Twelfth ward voters many times have shown political independence of a high order. This year they should give the able and independent Kerner the hearty indorsement he deserves.

Thirteenth Ward—Vote for Anderson.

ALD. THOMAS J. AHERN [Dem.]—Now finishing second council term with record somewhat improved, but his blind partisanship makes it difficult for him to deal fairly and intelligently with council questions.

Fourteenth Ward—Vote for Lawley

ALD. JAMES H. LAWLEY [Rep.]—Now finishing fourth council term with good record. Has rendered eight years of intelligent and capable service, and richly deserves reelection.

WILLIAM KELLS [Dem.]—Unfit for the office of alderman.

Voters without regard to political differences should vote for Lawley and also work to elect him.

Fifteenth Ward—Vote for Keane.

LONG TERM.

THOMAS P. KEANE [Dem.]—Good reputation in tanning trade.

ALD. HENRY UTPATEL [Rep.]—Finishing third council term with unsatisfactory record. His usefulness in the council seems to be declining.

ALFRED B. BACKER [Prog.]—Good reputation.

Fifteenth Ward—Vote for Rodriguez.

SHORT TERM.

PETER A. ANDERSON [Rep.]—Filed voluntary petition in bankruptcy 1905; liabilities $939, assets $129.

EDWARD J. KAINDL [Dem.]—Saloonkeeper for five years past.

Sixteenth Ward—Vote for Zwiefka.

HENRY SCHULENBURG [Rep.]—Signed league platform; lives 1501 Milwaukee avenue; has had no occupation for last two years. Has been one of the bipartisan politicians whose activities have resulted in giving the ward miserable council representation for many years.

Seventeenth Ward—Vote for Sitts.

LEWIS D. SITTS [Rep.]—Now finishing sixth council term with good record. Ald. Sitts has been a useful and valuable alderman for twelve years and has reflected much credit on his ward.

STANLEY KIELCZYNSKI [Dem.]—Is ward committeeman; has been active in signing bail bonds.

All voters who have at heart the best interests of the city and the ward will work for and vote for Ald. Sitts.

Eighteenth Ward—Vote for Murray

CARL T. MURRAY [Rep.]—When he retired from council in 1912 the league said, "Finishing first term with good record." With his experience may be expected to render valuable service.

BERNARD J. ["BARNEY"] GROGAN [Dem.]—Recent police report stated his saloon was a "hangout for safeblowers, pickpockets, gunmen, prostitutes, and gamblers." Grogan is a disgrace to the city and the Eighteenth ward.

Nineteenth Ward—Vote for Levinson.

MILTON L. LEVINSON [Rep.]—Capable man of good reputation.

ALD. JOHN POWERS [Dem.]—Now finishing thirteenth council term; old time gray wolf. Leader of the worst element in the city council.

Twentieth Ward—Miller Preferred.

ALD. MATT FRANK [Dem.]—Has been in council one year, with unsatisfactory voting record.

Twenty-first Ward—Vote for Geiger

ALD. ELLIS GEIGER [Dem.]—Now finishing second council term with generally good record. Man of intelligence and energy.

Twenty-second Ward—Ellison Preferred.

WILLIAM P. ELLISON [Dem.]—Signed league platform; lives 760 West North avenue. For five years treasurer North Avenue Business Men's association. Good reputation.

JOSEPH J. DOCHTERMANN [Rep.]—Well spoken of.

Twenty-third Ward—Vote for Wallace.

THOMAS O. WALLACE [Rep.]—Credited with ability and force. Good personal and business reputation.

FRANK J. HARRINGTON [Dem.]—Industrious, reliable, and straightforward, but not so well qualified as Wallace.

Twenty-fourth Ward—Vote for Gnadt.

HERMAN E. GNADT [Rep.]—Substantial business man, with excellent personal reputation.

FULL TERM.

ALD. HENRY D. CAPITAIN [Rep.]—Now finishing second council term with good record. Reliable and industrious alderman. Entitled to reelection on his record and experience.

F. TOBIAS KUHN [Dem.]—Young man, competent in business and of good reputation.

Twenty-fifth Ward—Vote for Link.

SHORT TERM.

FRANK J. LINK [Rep.]—Director North Shore Business Men's association. Long active in ward politics. Good reputation.

Twenty-sixth Ward—Vote for Lipps

ALD. WILLIAM F. LIPPS [Rep.]—Now finishing fifth council term with good record; his service has been intelligent and his value is steadily increasing.

JOHN OBERG [Dem.]—Good reputation.

On council service and experience, as well as by reason of his superior qualifications, Ald. Lipps clearly deserves reelection.

Twenty-seventh Ward—Kennedy and Bioch, Two Good Candidates—Unite on Kennedy to Defeat McGrane.

JOHN C. KENNEDY [Soc.]—Man of character and ability, well informed on social and economic questions and an effective public speaker; has unusual qualifications for council service.

Twenty-eighth Ward—Vote for Littler.

ALD. HARRY E. LITTLER [Rep.]—Now finishing third term in council with good record; reliable and courageous alderman whose service should be given generous recognition on election day.

BEN M. SHARVY [Dem.]—Not well qualified for alderman.

Twenty-ninth Ward—Vote for Hrubec to Defeat Kilens.

JOHN HRUBEC [Rep.]—Member Forty-seventh general assembly; has reputation for honesty.

HUBERT KILENS [Dem.]—Now member general assembly, serving third term; last year Legislative Voters' league said of him: "Ending his second term; made a poor record." Low grade politician of some ability, but no ideals in public matters.

MARCUS H. TAFT [Soc.]—Qualifications superior to those of the other two candidates, but he has no chance of election.

Thirtieth Ward—Buse Preferred.

WILLIAM J. LYNCH [Dem.]—Reputation for sobriety and energy.

Thirty-first Ward—Vote for Kearns

JAMES A. KEARNS [Rep.]—Now finishing third council term with good record. Honest and capable alderman and merits the hearty support of his constituents.

FRANK J. CORR [Dem.]—Corr has ability but is not nearly as well qualified as Ald. Kearns.

Thirty-second Ward—Vote for Fisher.

ALBERT J. FISHER [Rep.]—Now finishing ninth year in council with good record. Has shown a capacity and willingness for service which deserve hearty recognition from the voters.

Thirty-third Ward—Vote for Buck.

ROBERT M. BUCK [Rep.]—Public spirited man of honesty and force, unusually well informed on public matters.

SIM J. STEVENSON [Dem.]—Good reputation for honesty and industry.

ALD. IRWIN R. HAZEN [Ind.]—Now finishing second council term with record only fair. His two terms have been disappointing.

Thirty-fourth Ward—Blaha Preferred.

ALD. WINFIELD J. HELD [Dem.]—Now finishing first council term with bad voting record.

Thirty-fifth Ward—Vote for Clark.

By order of the executive committee.
F. B. JOHNSTONE, President.
PRESTON KUMLER, Secretary.

The Panama-Pacific International Exposition Is Open to the Public in San Francisco.

More money has been spent upon the buildings and grounds of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition in San Francisco than was spent upon all previous expositions that have been held in the United States together. The architectural, sculptural, artistic beauty of the exposition surpasses any previous one. A color scheme has been worked out for the whole exposition by the artist Jules Guerin whereby, with the exception of white clothes worn by visitors, there is not a speck of whiteness to be seen from a bird's-eye view of the exposition. From the blueness of the bay, shading into the green of the grass and shrubbery along the water's edge, to the vari-colored floral designs, to the brown, yellow, and ochre of the buildings and the green, purple, and orange of their roofs, the exposition presents one elaborate color scheme which, unlike previous expositions, will not, in the bright sunlight, cause eye fatigue and strain.

"The Pastel City," as the Panama-Pacific exposition has been called, presents a wonderful spectacle as it sits in all its exquisite loveliness between the hills of San Francisco and the margin of the Golden Gate. Rising abruptly from the center of the vast grounds is the masterpiece of achievement, "The Tower of Jewels." On every side stretch the other externals of the great fair with their structures of that Travertine stone which was the building stuff of ancient Rome. Pinkish gray, like rare old ivory, are the walls, soft pink and airy green the arches and domes and spires and colonnades.

Lavishly beautiful, under the bright glare of the California sun, it is a place of enchantment at night when flooded with the magic of electric illumination. All lights are hooded in a novel fashion, making all the buildings and statues glow with an apparent radiance of their own, while the great aurora borealis which is projected from a powerful battery on the bay front flings its streamers all the way across the Berkeley shore and is one of the marvels of the exposition.

The exposition is built on the court plan, and everywhere are delightful pieces of sculpture which add their charm to the beauty of the whole. The star maidens, with searchlights in their hair who encircle in an enchanted web of light the colossal statuary in the Court of the Universe, are splendid examples of modern sculpture, while the huge pillared colonnade with its circular pavilion patterned after the villa of the Emperor Hadrian is a height reached in classic dignity and beauty.

A gorgeous creation in eighteenth century French Renaissance architecture and the largest building of its kind ever devised is the Palace of Horticulture. Its great glass dome, in Saracenic style, is a copy of the dome on the mosque of the Sultan Ahmed I. at Constantinople, and at night floats like a gigantic bubble in the purview of the grounds, with its twelve electric reflectors of many million candlepower, each pouring their flood of light through the thick translucent glass.

The Amusement Zone, the "Midway" of the exposition, is the most amusing as well as the most instructive that any exposition has yet seen. A "forty-nine" camp reproduces for visitors the days and scenes when our country was young, while the gigantic figures in "Toyland" are already fascinating thousands of wonder eyed children.

HUEY TO BATTLE MOORE FOR CUE TITLE TONIGHT.

LOCAL PLAYER DEFEATS DALY IN HARD GAME

BY J. G. DAVIS.

William Huey maintained his rôle of Jack the Giant Killer in the world's three cushion tournament by again defeating John Daly, the New York veteran. Meeting last night in the playoff of the triple tie for the title, the Chicago amateur nosed out the eastern expert, 50 to 46, in ninety-one innings.

This left only George Moore of New York and Huey in the race and tonight they will meet at 8:30 for the Brunswick $1,000 diamond trophy and the $1,000 cash prize. The loser will get $700. Daly's defeat relegated him to third position, the prize for which is $500.

Battle of Wits and Muscle.

No better climax to a tournament replete with sensational performances could be staged than the meeting between the men who have carried the banners of New York and Chicago to the top. Huey and Daly matched their wits and muscle last night in a tense struggle which lasted close to three hours. Every seat in the hall was taken and every shot was closely watched.

Nearing the end the strain was intense on the players, but perhaps not more for them than on the young daughters of the principals. When Huey made his winning count his 15 year old daughter, Dorothy, ran into the enclosure and hugged her father.

Great Attention to Defense.

Early in the duel it was evident that each player was giving great attention to defense. Daly won the bank and counted two, taking a small lead at the end of the fifth inning. Huey in the eighth inning scored a double and after a cipher ran 2, 3, and 2. He was going so well that a short game seemed possible, but Daly tightened up and it became a battle for singles rather than doubles.

Huey was in the van 18 to 13 at the end of the thirtieth inning, but for the next nine innings he scored blanks. Daly picked off three in the thirty-third inning and in the thirty-ninth inning ran three more, all the last three being naturals. This put him in the lead 20 to 19. Again in the forty-first inning the ivories broke well for Daly, for, after picking up a count across the table, he scored two more on naturals.

Huey Wins Applause.

At the fiftieth inning Daly led, 26 to 24, but Huey brought a round of applause by running two in the fifty-first and following with a trio in the fifty-fifth inning, bringing the score to a tie at 30.

Runs of four and three put the Chicago man in front, but the eastern veteran with smaller counts kept close behind. Huey led, 36 to 35, at the sixty-fifth inning, and began to draw away, but Daly with a one cushion bank in the corner in the seventy-fourth inning got an opening which netted four. Huey picked up some singles and a double in the eighty-fourth inning, leaving him only two to go. He was then nine points in front, but the game Irishman ran four in the eighty-fifth and then missed by a hair. Nothing daunted, he added three more on his next trial and needed only four more.

Daly Misses by Narrow Margin.

Twice during the remaining innings Daly missed by the smallest kind of margins. Huey in the eighty-eighth inning scored one, and although he missed his next shot he left the balls hard. Daly got a kiss in the eighty-ninth and then made two ciphers, leaving Huey an opening from which he scored.

Each player had sixteen safety shots. Score:

Capron and Kieckhefer, who tied for fifth and sixth prizes, will divide the money, each getting $150. Morin and Ellis will divide seventh prize, each getting $50. The men will decide their finishing positions by tossing for them.

AT THE BILLIARD ROOMS.

In the three cushion tournament at Mussey's Falk and Jones defeated Wadsworth and Lewis, 48 to 25.

Jack Patterson defeated Malone, 100 to 56, in their pocket billiard match at the Twentieth Century room last night. He will play Egan tonight. Dawe defeated Giroux, 30 to 29, at three cushions.

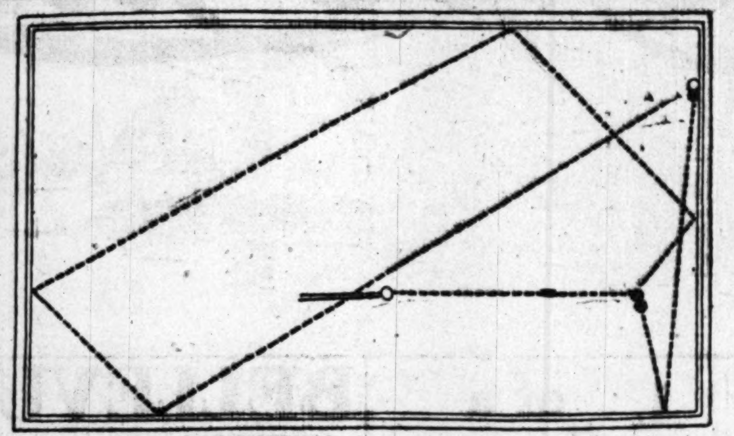

ASSIGNS DATES FOR GOLF PLAY

The Western Golf association has assigned the dates for the two championship events of the Garfield Golf club. The Cook county open event will be staged July 7-8-9 and the Cook County Amateur championship Sept. 9-10-11.

Mrs. Lee W. Mida won the Lewy cup, emblematic of the women's Chicago putting championship, by defeating Mrs. J. B. Young, 1 up, in thirty-six holes at the Golf Shop Indoor school yesterday morning. Mrs. Young was 5 down at one time and later was dormie 3. She took the next two holes, but Mrs. Mida got a half on the last and won, 1 up.

Mrs. R. E. Gurley won the A. G. Spalding & Bros. trophy, defeating Mrs. L. L. Smith of Windsor, 1 up, in the thirty-sixth hole final. This was the last event of the benefit tournament given by the British American Women's club. Mrs. J. Lovrien won the final handicap of the season with a card of 76—6—70. Other leading scores were: Mrs. E. S. Farrand, 74—1—73; Miss E. Packard, 75—1—74; Mrs. L. L. Smith, 83—8—75.

Calculation Shot Made by Moore.

TWO TITLES TAKEN BY LOCAL BOWLERS

Faetz Leads All Events and Barry-Kettelers Win Fives in Peoria Tourney.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Peoria, Ill., March 30.—[Special.]—Chicago won two first places in the fifteenth annual tournament of the American Bowling congress, which came to an end here tonight, Mattie Faetz landing the all events with 1,876 and the Barry-Kettelers taking the fives with 2,907. Raymond and Harold Allen won the doubles with 1,297 for Detroit, while Waldie Pierce of Pueblo landed the singles with 711.

The closing day saw some big totals rolled up, but the leaders hung on and cleaned up. Maloney and Nolte of Elizabethtown, N. Y., shot 1,281 for a tie for second place in the doubles with Eddie Kelly and Al Toemmel, while A. N. Emblen of Wheeling, W. Va., shot 665 for eighth place in the singles.

Low money in the individual event was 565, Ned Nelson, former city champion, having the bottom mark that cashed. The low mark in the doubles was 1,108, which Bob Alfeld and Harry Drew secured in a tie with two others.

Kelly and Toemmel Tie for Second.

In the doubles Ed Kelly and Al Toemmel got second place for the top mark with 1,281, which tied for $258, Felsenthal and Williams being next highest to them with 1,257 in fifth place.

Kelly was the biggest individual winner in the meet, as he had second place in the all events, was second in the doubles, and was a member of the winning five man team. His earnings ran over $450.

The cash prizes in the fives, doubles, and singles totaled $24,000. One hundred and three teams in the fives, 228 teams in the doubles, and 466 names in the singles will divide the purse.

The list of the twenty highest and the cash prizes follow:

LARNEY AND TOM ARE AT IT AGAIN OVER POUNDAGE

BY RAY C. PEARSON.

Larney Lichtenstein, who manages Jimmy Clabby, doesn't agree with Tommy Walsh, manager of Eddie McGoorty, that weight of 158 pounds should be made five hours before ringtime for a battle of the two middleweights. Lichtenstein asserts that this demand is unreasonable and present indications are that a fight is not likely to be arranged in the near future.

Lichtenstein said: "McGoorty made 155¾ pounds when he fought Mike Gibbons, so why should Clabby concede him several pounds in a long fight by agreeing to early weighing-in time. If he makes lower poundage for other opponents why can't he make it for Clabby?"

Would Confer with Walsh.

In conclusion Clabby's manager says he's willing to meet Walsh any time and any place if the latter thinks there is any chance of ending the weight squabble by a conference.

Charley White will be home today after a successful trip to the east, during which he scored two victories and one draw in three battles. Accompanying White is Manager Nate Lewis. Charley will not get much rest in Chicago, for he soon will hurry back east to fight Jimmy Duffy at Buffalo on April 8. The weight for this match is easy, 136 pounds at 6 o'clock.

Two Bouts for Murphy.

"Stockyards" Murphy has been matched to fight Joe Chip, a brother of middleweight George Chip, at Toledo, O., on April 7. On April 18 Murphy is to battle Dan Hayes before a local private club.

JIM COFFEY KNOCKS OUT DAVIS IN THIRD ROUND.

New York, March 30.—[Special.]—Jim Coffey, the Irish champion, moved up a step in his climb to the white hope title by knocking out One Round Davis of Buffalo in the first thirty seconds of the third round of a ten round bout scheduled at the Fairmount A. C. tonight.

Coffey did the trick with a long straight right to the jaw that caused Davis to fall on his face. He was unable to move and had to be carried to his corner.

Coffey weighed 200 pounds and Davis 191¼.

ROLLS 224 2-3 AVERAGE IN K. OF C. PIN LEAGUE.

Fred Kartheiser of the De Soto team in the Knights of Columbus league set the pace for local bowlers last night with an average of 224 2-3. His team whitewashed the St. James, getting an average of 971 1-3, with high count of 1,001. Beck of De Soto marked up 205 2-3.

In another series in the same league Bill Carey anchored 210 2-3 for the Kettelers and they won two from the Santa Marias.

Other good marks of the night were the 203 1-3 by Jack Devine of the Centennials in the Southwest league and Bergman's 209 flat for the Ellis team in the Ellis league.

ALCOTT NEW KANSAS COACH.

Lawrence, Kas., March 30.—Herman Alcott of Yale university was chosen football coach of the University of Kansas for three years by the board of administration today. Alcott, who was chosen from a list of twenty-five candidates, will assume his duties Sept. 1.

Benson Defeats Kieckhefer.

St. Louis, Mo., March 30.—Frank Benson of St. Louis defeated August Kieckhefer of Milwaukee, 50 to 45, in seventy-seven innings in an Interstate league three cushion game tonight.

FIGHTERS REDUCE TRAINING WORK AT HAVANA CAMP

Willard Takes Only Road Work, While Negro Does Regular Stunts.

HAVANA, March 30.—This was a quiet day in the training camps of Jack Johnson and Jess Willard, heavyweight pugilists, who are to fight at the race course at Marianao on April 5 for the championship of the world.

Willard did no work aside from an early morning run on the road. He spent the afternoon, first in taking a swim and then visiting the race track, where he was followed about and cheered by a big crowd. Willard, in his training, makes it a practice to lay off one day for a rest during the week. Tomorrow he will go through a hard course, but thereafter will do just enough work to hold him to his present form.

Johnson's Birthday Today.

Johnson also is letting down gradually in his work. At 7 o'clock this morning he took a fifty minute run. Later, after punching the bag and tossing the medicine ball, he boxed six rounds with his sparring partners, Bell and Scott. His other two boxers, Armstrong and Mills, were too badly battered up to put on the gloves today with the big black. Tomorrow is Johnson's birthday, and he is not expected to do much more work than he did today.

There has been no change in the betting on the outcome of the fight, Johnson remaining favorite at about 3 to 1.

Willard Must Use Head.

While the question of condition is all important with the black, the question with Willard is whether he is "strong above the shoulders," as the pugilistic expression goes. Granted that he is fit and in splendid condition as he appears to be, he must possess a good fighting head to cope with the crafty negro unless the latter has gone back farther than seems possible from his appearance.

There is no way to gauge Willard's fighting tactics before next Monday. The fact that he outboxes his sparring partners and man handles them means nothing in itself. None of his retinue possesses real class.

Willard, of course, does not compare with Johnson in experience. He looks faster and has better footwork than formerly, but the training camp opposition cannot be compared with Johnson's wares when the latter was in his prime. Willard is supremely confident. That is one point in his favor at any rate.

Protest by Ministers.

A group of Cuban ministers, representing various evangelical missions centered in Havana, has filed a protest with government officials against the fight, and some American ministers living here have addressed an open letter to American tourists as fellow countrymen protesting against their support of the bout.

No particular attention is being paid to these protests by the Cuban officials or the fight promoters.

Welch Reaches New Orleans.

New Orleans, La., March 30.—Jack Welch of San Francisco, who will referee the Willard-Johnson fight in Havana on April 5, arrived here tonight to sail for Cuba tomorrow. "I shall not award the fight on a technical foul," Welch said. "Only a deliberate foul which disables one of the fighters will cause me to render a decision either way."

DELAY BOXING BILL REPORT.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Springfield, Ill., March 30.—[Special.]—The subcommittee on the boxing bill will not make a report to the house license committee tomorrow because of the enforced absence of Representative James H. Vickers, subcommittee chairman.

PUGILISTIC POINTERS.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 30.—[Special.]—Leo Houck of Lancaster easily defeated Al Graeber of Pittsburgh in six rounds at the Fairmount A. C. tonight.

St. Louis, Mo., March 30.—[Special.]—Benny McGovern, operated on three months ago for appendicitis, was saved from further punishment tonight when the bout between him and Johnny Solsberg was stopped in the fifth round after McGovern had been knocked down a half dozen times. McGovern began weakening early in the second round.

PRIZE CONTEST WINNER.

THE winner of the prize contest run in this department two weeks ago is Mr. Tark of Chicago. He was the first to guess correctly the names of the two Cub pitchers whom Mr. Bresnahan did not care, but was forced, to keep. The Wake's trusty correspondent at the front has sent in the names and they correspond with those picked by Mr. Tark. It may be said that about forty others guessed right also, but Mr. Tark was first. The prize was a pass to a Cub ball game.

So let me know one day ahead
Of when you want to go, O Tark,
And I'll supply, just as I said,
Admission to the West Side park.

Sometimes you have to look here for news. King Cole, tackle on what we would call the greatest football team Michigan ever had if we weren't averse to engaging in argument, stopped off in Chicago on Monday on his way from wherever he had been to Bloomington, Ill., to work for the Bloomington Motor company, which sells a certain make of automobiles. We could horn into the Line with this item if it were a —— or a —— that King Cole is going to help sell. But it's a ——. We don't dare print the name because of an office rule against using the news columns for advertising, but you'd know it in a minute if you heard it, because so many humorous stories have been told about it.

Come on, you Cubs! You have lots of vim,
With third base guarded by Heine Zim;
You have good pitchers; they are not gone:
Cheney, Lavender, Humphries, Pierce, Zabel, Standridge, Adams, and Vaughn;*
You have a good outfield, as good as could be,
With Good, Williams, and Frank Schulte;
Our second baseman plays like a fairy,
And his name is Polly McLarry;
And that is First Baseman Vic Saier,
And he and the rest work like one great player.

Now mark my word and never fear:

EDDIE WALLACE GIVES KILBANE REAL ARGUMENT

New York, March 30.—[Special.]—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion, ran against a snag in the bristling person of Eddie Wallace at the Broadway Sporting club tonight. Kilbane just did get under the wire first in ten rounds.

Wallace surprised the champion with his speed. He used a left hand jab that had Kilbane ducking and blocking most of the time. Johnny tried hard to nail Wallace with a right hander, but the Brooklyn boy was as clever at getting away as the champion himself.

Kilbane the Harder Hitter.

Kilbane won because of his harder hitting. When he did land he shook up Wallace. Eddie fought splendidly in the fourth, sixth, and seventh, and fairly outpointed the kingpin in these rounds. He shot his left to Kilbane's face with the accuracy of a sharpshooter.

From the seventh on Kilbane put on a double hold of steam. When the bell rang at the end Kilbane walked over and put his arms around Wallace and congratulated him in a fatherly sort of way. Kilbane weighed 130¼ pounds and Wallace 126.

Dundee Shades Callahan.

Frankie Callahan got another ten round chance to land his Joe Rivers knockout punch on Johnny Dundee in the final bout, but Francis failed to connect. It was a better fight than their first ten round thriller of a few weeks ago. Dundee won again.

Johnny slugged with the hard hitter fearlessly, and Callahan seemed to enjoy the battering. He opened Johnny's cauliflower ear in the fourth and Johnny repaid him in his corner at the end of the ninth with a gory face. There was a continual cry from Callahan's corner to "keep punching," "keep trying," but Dundee wasn't to be caught napping. Dundee weighed 128¾ pounds and Callahan 132¾.

Dvorak Park, senior champions of the West Park league, defeated the Training A. C. indoor nine, 5 to 4, at Eckhardt Park in the A. A. F. tournament Saturday.

Sixteen wrestlers, headed by Joe Stecher, Frank Goth's find, have enrolled for the athletic and vaudeville carnival booked for Saturday night at the International amphitheater given by the Sweitzer Athletic club.

Entries will close tonight for the ten mile road race to be promoted by the Riverview Cycling club Sunday afternoon. No entry fee will be charged, but all riders must be registered with the National Cycling association. Entries should be sent to the secretary, Roscoe boulevard and Western avenue.

PURPLE TO GET PREP "PHENOM"

Athletic Director Omer announced yesterday that the Rock Island, Ill., track and field team would enter Northwestern next fall. This track team, in the person of Sol Butler, won the interscholastic indoor meet at Patten gymnasium Saturday night.

Butler will be graduated from Rock Island next June. In September he will enter Northwestern university. Under the conference rules he will not be eligible to represent the school in athletics until his sophomore year.

In his high school career Butler also has been as proficient in football, baseball, and basketball.

MAROON MEN OUTDOORS.

Coach Stagg led his University of Chicago track athletes in their first outdoor work on Stagg field yesterday. The Maroon runners had been prevented from venturing on the outdoor course ever since the conference indoor track meet on account of cold weather, but the coach decided they should brave the chilly winds yesterday. Several new recruits for the weights and runs reported.

Empire Reds Lift That High-Cost-of-Mileage Curse

Motorists have been given a good deal of food for thought this spring about tire costs. The price you pay is important, but only in proportion to what you get for it.

In Empire RED Tires cost and quality are properly related. You pay a little more in initial cost of the case—you get a good deal more in actual service.

Empire Tires RED WEAR LONGEST

You know RED RUBBER has more life than gray. You have experienced it with red rubber bands, red water bottles, red garden hose. We applied it first in our famous Peerless tube that all motorists know. The natural step was to make casings of the same material.

It's their habit not to give out and they only wear out after giving you 100 cents on the dollar. If you should fail to get 100% service from an Empire RED, you're not out of pocket one cent. Just bring it back and we will satisfy you fully. They don't come any fairer than that, do they?

REGULARS WIN AND TAKE DOWN GOOFS' MONEY

Grab Purse of $5 by 8-6 Victory; Each Player Puts Up 50 Cents.

BY I. E. SANBORN.

Tampa, Fla., March 30.—[Special.]—In a battle for blood and dollars the Cub Regulars trimmed the Goofs again today and copped the side bet of $5 by a score of 8 to 6. It was a fierce combat in every way, but oftenest in the wrong way.

In order to ginger up the affair each player bet 50 cents on the result with his respective opponent. The result was much wrangling with Umpire Larry Chesney and with each other, and some good baseball interspersed with the rotten spots.

Great Zim Another Job.

The regulars had Frank Schulte back in the ranks and had to do without the great Zim at third. Heine was out of commission with a boil on his neck which had to be lanced a couple or three times. Corriden filled in at third for the regulars, leaving a vacancy at short in the Goof lineup. Manager Bresnahan filled that rôle himself with more or less éclat—usually less—but from that vantage point he was able to call down his men for their mistakes at shorter range than from behind the bat or on the bench.

Besides Bresnahan the Goofs had Vaughn on first, Phelan at second, Archer at third, and Knisely, Standridge, and Kluth in the outfield. Vaughn looked the part of a first baseman in size and reach, but his performances made everybody admit he is some pitcher.

Regulars Pound Pierce.

With McConnell on the slab for the regulars and Pierce for the Goofs the first five innings were fairly clean except the fourth, when the southpaw was banged for five solid drives, including a triple by McLarry. That bombardment netted only three runs and made the count 4 to 1 when pitchers were changed.

In the remaining innings Adams and Abel gave wretched exhibitions of wild pitching and were accorded some rank support. With the count 8 to 2 when the ninth started the Goofs hammered Adams so hard they nearly tied up the game.

Roger Bars Emery Ball.

Bresnahan issued orders to cut out the emery ball and all its relatives. He warned the slabmen that if he found a roughened ball in play he would punish the offender.

"You can't get away with that stuff when the big show starts, so what's the use of monkeying with it now?" That was Rofler's reason for banishing the forbidden style of delivery from practice games.

In the first inning the hidden ball trick was worked by both teams. Knisely fell for it in the Goof half after making a pretty slide into second base on a hit which Good fumbled. In the other half of the same round Good led with a single and was caught off first by the same old army game pulled by Bresnahan.

Three Rookies Leave Squad.

Kluth, Gibson, and Murphy left for the north tonight, thereby reducing the roster to twenty-six athletes, not counting the absent Hageman. Tomorrow will wind up the stay at Tampa, and Bresnahan has ordered only a morning workout. The rest of the day will be given up to breaking camp for the beginning of the hike home.

The weather apparently has turned warm for keeps and the players have profited by it physically in the last two days.

SOX II. TAKE GAME AT MILFORD, 13-0

Milford, Utah, March 30.—[Special.]—The Sox II. blanked the Milford regulars today, 13 to 0. Lefty Scroggins pitched the whole game and fanned twelve men. He has been released to Los Angeles and left for the coast on a late train tonight.

The Hose got twenty-one hits. Chappelle led with four, one a triple. Demmitt had two doubles and a single, and Baker got the same. Bromwich, Fournier, Lathrop, and Scroggins tied with two apiece. The Sox stole six bases, Baker pilfering two. Barton, the Milford shortstop, starred for the locals.

Scroggins fanned five of the first six batters who faced him. Most of Milford's business houses closed for the afternoon and crowds came from near by cities. The day was perfect for a game, while in Salt Lake City, 200 miles to the north, the Coast league opening was postponed on account of cold.

BILL SWEENEY RELEASED BY BOSTON AMERICANS.

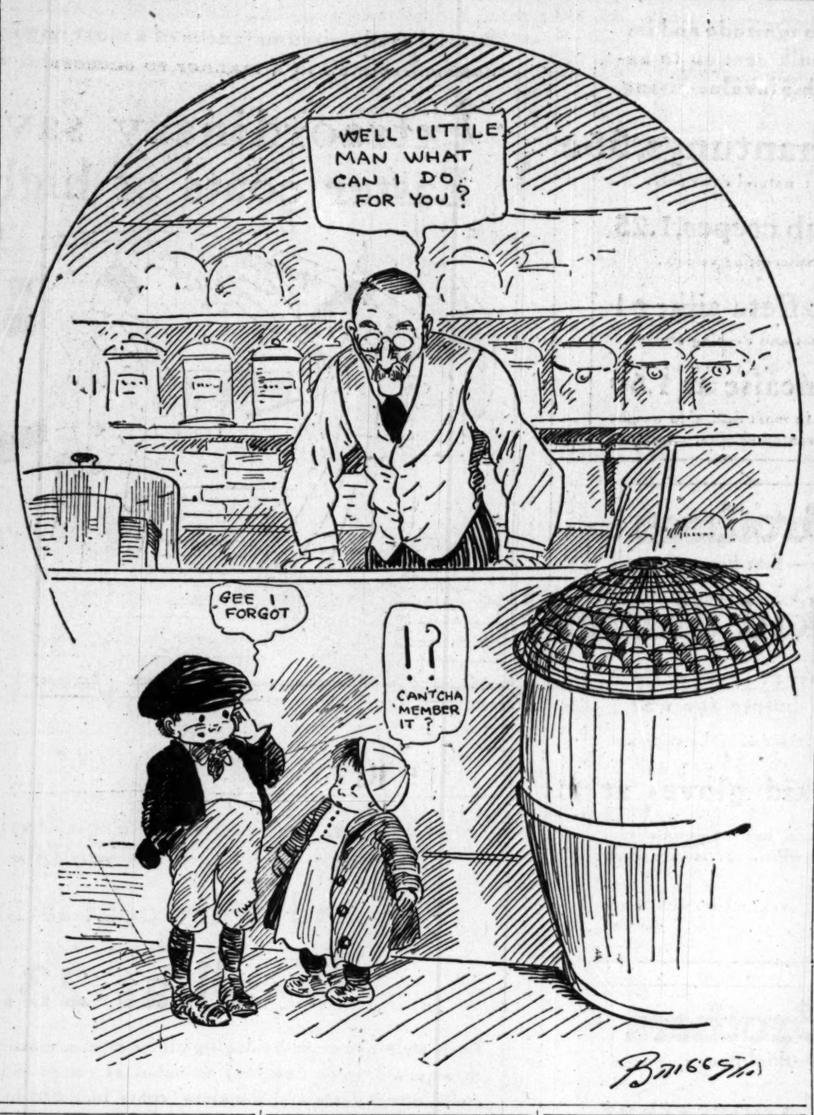

Boston, Mass., March 30.—Bill Sweeney, formerly second baseman for the Boston and Chicago National league teams, was unconditionally released by the Boston Americans tonight, according to dispatches from the Red Sox training camp at Hot Springs, Ark.

CLEVELAND SALE IN DOUBT.

Cleveland, O., March 30.—Vice President Barnard of the Cleveland Spiders declared this afternoon that all arrangements for the American association meeting here had been made and that there was little chance of a sale to Toledo, at least until after May 1. The transfer may not be made at all.

"We are willing to sell whenever the Toledo people raise the money, but it doesn't seem they'll do it for a while," said Barnard.

RAIN AT CAMP HALTS TRAINING OF WHALES

Tinkers Get One Short Practice Drill; May Land Southpaw in Trade.

BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

Shreveport, La., March 30.—[Special.]—Much of the practice of the Whales today consisted of playing checkers. A heavy morning rain spoiled the diamond for baseball and the athletes have grown weary of playing indoor ball in the coliseum. Consequently the manager took them out for only one session of work and permitted them to play checkers the rest of the time.

The work did nothing more than keep the boys limbered up, for they couldn't get on the diamond and had to toss the ball around on the dry spots at the side. The outfielders worked up a perspiration chasing fly balls and the pitchers labored industriously with curves, fast ones, and spitters.

Team Play Is Lacking.

The thing needed most of all was a game of ball, but it was out of the question. Unless good weather prevails for the balance of the stay here and on the journey home, the Whales are likely to be lacking in team work during the first few games of the season, for they haven't had a chance all spring to develop in that line.

Only three days remain for drill in the camp and if possible a nine inning game of ball will be played each day, so the manager can test his pitchers over the route and also give the fellows an opportunity to practice signs for their offensive play.

Play Kawfeds Saturday.

On the way home four games are to be played, one on Saturday at Marshall against the Kansas City team. This contest should give Manager Tinker a line on the men, but the other three exhibitions are against little independent teams which are not likely to put up any battle against the Chicagoans.

There was talk today of a trade which may bring a star southpaw hurler to the Chicago team in exchange for an outfielder and a couple of minor slabmen. Manager Tinker admitted negotiations were on with another club in the Federal league, but he wouldn't make public the names of any of the players involved for fear of spoiling the deal.

Tinker did declare that the southpaw he wanted was one of the best in the country, so good that he would be willing to give up a star outfielder and a couple of his lesser pitchers to add the lefthander to the pitching staff.

Hendrix Has Lame Shoulder.

The condition of Claude Hendrix has caused a bit of worry to Manager Tinker. The big spit ball hurler hasn't rounded into shape as he was expected to do and today in attempting to cut loose with all his speed, he complained of a sore shoulder.

Trainer Brady has been giving expert service on the big slab star every day, but at the present time it looks as if it would not be Hendrix on the mound for the opening game a week from Saturday.

CULLOP IS SOUTHPAW SOUGHT

Nick Cullop of the Kansas City Feds is the southpaw hurler whom Tinker hopes to land in trade. President Weeghman of the Whales last night refused to name the players who have been offered Kansas City in exchange for the southpaw.

Ball Season Really Open; Coast League Plays Game

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 30.—[Special.]—Portland and Los Angeles battled today in the game that marked the real opening of the 1915 baseball campaign. Portland started the Pacific Coast league race with a 3 to 1 victory over the locals, and landed the first league game of the year in this country. Orval Overall and Frank Chance, two former heroes with the Chicago Cubs, and Ed Walsh of the White Sox helped in the opening ceremonies. Overall pitched the first ball, Chance caught it, and Walsh from the umpire's position ruled the heave was a "ball." Rain prevented the league opening at San Francisco, and snow forced a postponement at Salt Lake City. Score:

THREE EYES MEN FRAME CIRCUIT

Davenport, Ia., March 30.—After learning that Rockford was in Bi-State league territory, the Three Eyes league completed an eight club circuit today by voting in Rock Island and Dubuque.

A telegram from Secretary Farrell of the National association informed the Three Eyes magnates that Rockford was in the territory of the Bi-State league and therefore not eligible for the Three Eyes circuit.

Dubuque was then voted in at the request of representatives from that town. Rock Island, also was made a part of the league, although not represented at the meeting. If Rock Island declines to enter Dubuque will be excluded and a six club circuit formed.

It was decided to adopt a split schedule of 140 games, opening April 29 and closing Sept. 12. The pennant winner of the first half of the season will play the pennant winner of the second half for the championship unless the same team wins in both divisions of the schedule.

JUNIOR NINES BOOK GAMES.

Anchor A. C. vs. M. G. Athletics at Grant park.
All games begin at 2:30 o'clock.

A. A. TEAMS TO PLAY 154 GAME SCHEDULE

Season Opens April 15 at Columbus, Cleveland, and Kansas City.

BY HANDY ANDY.

After weeks of effort, the schedule committee of the American association yesterday filed with President Chivington a copy of the chart adopted for the 1915 campaign. As was expected, there will be only 154 games this season instead of the customary 168.

Opening games are set for April 15, and the season will close on Sept. 19, an unusually early date for the finish. Columbus, Cleveland, Milwaukee, and Kansas City are favored with the inaugural dates. Louisville will appear at Columbus, Indianapolis at Cleveland, Minneapolis at Milwaukee, and St. Paul at Kansas City.

Release Schedule Next Week.

Only the opening games and the holiday arrangements were announced by President Chivington. The schedule will be released early next week. The chart represents the joint labor of Mike Cantillon of Minneapolis, A. F. Timme of Milwaukee, and George Tebeau of Kansas City. Tebeau objected strenuously to the reduction from 168 games and forced the drawing up of a new chart after the other two members of the committee had framed a schedule satisfactory to them.

Distribution of Holiday Dates.

Decoration day—St. Paul in Minneapolis, morning; Minneapolis in St. Paul, afternoon; Milwaukee in Kansas City; Louisville in Columbus; Indianapolis in Cleveland.

July 5—Minneapolis in St. Paul, morning; St. Paul in Minneapolis, afternoon; Kansas City in Milwaukee; Indianapolis in Louisville; Columbus in Cleveland.

Labor day—Minneapolis in St. Paul, morning; St. Paul in Minneapolis, afternoon; Kansas City in Milwaukee; Cleveland in Columbus; Louisville in Indianapolis.

YANKS BEAT DODGERS AGAIN.

Daytona, Fla., March 30.—The Yankees made it four straight in their series with the Brooklyn Dodgers today by taking the last game, 12 to 5. The game was played early to allow the Yankees to catch a train for Savannah, which is their last stop en route to New York. Ragan, Cadore, and Coombs pitched for the Brooklynites and Keating and Fisher for Donovan's team.

WHITE SOX LEND GALA THRILLS TO YUMA FESTIVAL

Arizona Fans See 21-0 Game, Enjoy Fire, and Entertain Vice President Marshall.

BY SAM WELLER.

Yuma, Ariz., March 30.—[Special.]—This was a day of real thrills for this town, which is said to be the hottest spot in these United States. Rowland's White Sox stopped off and piled up a 21 to 0 score against an alleged ball team, a spectacular blaze destroyed the home of one of the oldest inhabitants, and Vice President Thomas Marshall and Secretary of the Interior Franklin K. Lane delighted the village with their presence for a short time.

To the baseball hungry natives the White Sox exhibition probably stood out as the real feature of the red letter day. At any rate, they saw one performance that is never staged in the big leagus, for Ellis Johnson and Tommy Daly went through part of the game as battery for both sides.

Yuma Hurlers Helpless.

After the Sox had piled up eighteen runs off two helpless Yuma hurlers, Manager Rowland ordered his point workers to operate both ways merely to hurry the game. But the fielding of the locals was so amateurish that even the reinforcements failed to stop the scoring bee of the Hose. Quits were called after seven and one-half innings and nobody complained.

Yuma got the last chance at bat, and after three were out Johnson remained on the slab expecting to hurl another frame for the locals. He shot one ball at the plate and a local batsman sent it far into deep center for a home run. He was sorely disappointed when he learned the game had ended before his mighty drive was registered.

Sox Pile Up Hits.

Merely as a matter of form it might be mentioned that the Sox compiled something like nineteen safe hits of various length. They might have made a lot more, but it was too hot to extend one's self to the limit.

One Pasquale Termosillo, a Mexican who hurled part of the game, had control that reminded the natives of the sharpshooting by the combatants in Mexico's latest revolution. He was so wild the Sox devoted most of their time to dodging wild pitches, otherwise there would have been more hits.

Collins a Wise Collegian.

Eddie Collins showed the advantage of a university training by fortifying himself with rubber soled shoes for the game. Tonight every player but the Columbia graduate is nursing blisters on his pedal extremities as a result of three hours of sprinting in the hot sand.

The fire started just before game time and the players watched the volunteer department fight the blaze. Secretary Lane was at the ball game and took a great deal of interest in the performance of the major leaguers. Vice President Marshall stopped over a few minutes tonight on his way east from the coast fair.

Schalk and Benz Practice.

Ray Schalk and Joe Benz, the two cripples, worked out in uniform and seemed much improved by the exercise. Schalk may be able to get back behind the bat within a few days.

Karl Adams, Pitcher for Cubs, Once Wanted to Be a Backstop.

BY I. E. SANBORN.

TAMPA, Fla., March 30.—[Special.]—Karl T. Adams, who has won a lower berth with the Cubs, is one of the few successful pitchers who started out to do something else. Karl aspired to be a catcher, but only in his kid days, for he discarded the big mitt and mask even before he became prominent as an amateur in his home town, Montgomery, Ala.

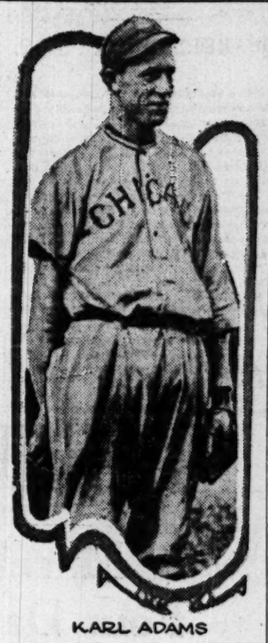

Adams grew up into a tall and rangy youth and found out how to use his long arms to put speed and stuff on the ball, consequently took to slabbing. Selma, in his native state, was the scene of Adams' professional debut. That was in 1911, making this his fifth season before the limelight.

Adams continued to pitch for the Selma team in the South Atlantic league into the season of 1912, but went higher up before the campaign ended, being purchased by the Montgomery club of the Southern league. The following season Adams started with Montgomery, but was sent back to Savannah, which was then in the South Atlantic circuit.

Cincinnati picked Adams out of Savannah and gave him a tryout last spring Manager Herzog used him in only eight games before letting him out to the Indianapolis club of the American association, from which the Cubs drafted him.

While a Hoosier, Adams worked under Jack Hendricks, the best minor league manager in the country, who could have had a major league berth long ago but for his promise to Owner McGill. Hendricks taught Adams a lot of baseball and he proved easily the best of the youngsters obtained this year for the Cub slab staff. Whether the goods shown in spring training will prove to be "fast color" under the acid test of a major league campaign cannot be foretold, but his only fault has been lack of control, which is the one thing a pitcher always can overcome with practice.

Adams is 23 years old, born on Aug. 11, 1891, and there is a lot of him for his age. He stands 6 feet 1¾ inches in his uniform without spikes and tips the scales at 175. He is of slender, wiry build and, being southern born, is a hot weather pitcher. Consequently he has had no chance to show himself at his best this year.

O'CONNELL TEAM BEATS LEO, 7 TO 2

North Siders Cling to Title Chance in K. C. League by Winning.

O'Connell council clung to its fighting chance in the championship series of the Knights of Columbus Indoor league by trouncing Leo at Entertainers' hall last night, 7 to 2.

It was a nip and tuck fight up to the seventh rounds then the north siders broke loose and pounded in four runs with five hits. Groenwald and Kavanagh singled, Henry doubled, and E. Shields and Gill completed the rout with two more one sack blows.

Gleason fanned seventeen of the south division champions, while J. Shields whiffed thirteen Leo batsmen. Gill led the assault for the winners with four hits, two of them doubles. One defeat for the leading Barry nine will now put O'Connell in a tie for first place in the title series.

TWO MORE CARS FOR AUTO GRIND AT LOCAL TRACK

Ed O'Donnell and Tom Alley May Pilot Duesenbergs in 500 Mile Race.

BY REED L. PARKER.

The entry list for the 500 mile race scheduled to be run over the local speedway, providing the track is completed by June 19, was swelled yesterday by the nomination of two Duesenbergs by F. Duesenberg, the designer.

F. E. Edwards, director of contests at the speedway, received the entries. Both cars will be new and will comply with the regulations as to piston displacement. No drivers were named, but it is presumed that Ed O'Donnell and Tom Alley, who have been associated with the Duesenberg team for a year, will have the mounts.

Axle Rule Is Changed.

Following a suggestion made by several entrants, of whom the Peugeot company, Ray Harroun of Maxwell, and F. S. Duesenberg were most insistent, the rules regulating the changing of front axle parts a day prior to the race was changed so that the condition of the axle will be up to the technical committee of the speedway. Should an argument arise over its decision the entrant may appeal to a committee composed of competent automobile engineers.

Local motorists interested in racing were inclined to view the retirement of the Fair associations from the American Automobile association as a joke. It generally is considered that the reputable drivers will not desert the ranks of the A. A. A., while the inferior pilots who might be attracted would be a good riddance.

BANKERS ELECT OFFICERS.

At a meeting of the Bankers' Baseball league yesterday at the Harris Trust and Savings bank, Wilbur of the Harris Trust and Savings bank was elected president, Greene of the First National bank was chosen vice president, and Heinz of the Ft. Dearborn National bank was elected secretary and treasurer. The next meeting will be held on April 8, when a schedule will be drafted. Six teams comprise the league. Games will be played at the public playgrounds.

EDISONS ELECT OFFICERS.

W. Mullin of the meter department was elected president of the Interdepartment Baseball league of the Commonwealth Edison company at a meeting yesterday. W. Schaefer, assistant cashier, was chosen vice president, and R. Stevens of the statistical department was elected secretary and treasurer. Six teams comprise the league. The first games will be played about the middle of May.

IF YOU haven't made an intimate acquaintance with this store, you don't yet realize what really fine suits and overcoats we show here. With all the talk about low-priced clothes, you may have an idea that ready clothes are all low priced; made for men who can't afford very fine goods.

One look at the very choice things here at $35, $40, $45, $50 will change your opinion; suits and overcoats of the richest fabrics made. Your most exclusive tailor doesn't show anything better; you escape here the many try-ons, the week or two waiting, the uncertainty of a correctly fitting garment; and you make a saving of $15 to $25.

There's really no excuse for made-to-measure delays and cost with such clothes ready.

Don't be stubborn about it; there's profit for you in open-mindedness on this subject.

Here are the finest clothes made; at $35, $40, $45 and $50.

WE want to mention very particularly the special suits and overcoats from Hart Schaffner & Marx, richly silk lined, which we sell at $25. They deserve to be mentioned in connection with the higher priced goods, because they're really better than $25 values; we should say, by comparison, that the average $30 or $35 suits you see are not better than these at $25.

EXPERTS ATTACK RAILROAD PLANS FOR RATE BOOST

Sixteen State Commissioners and Credit Students Appear Before Board.

The sixteen state commissioners, representing 300,000 western grain dealers, manufacturers, and stockmen, had their first day of affirmative testimony yesterday in their fight before the interstate commerce commission against the freight increases proposed by the railroads.

Clifford Thorne, chairman of the railroad commission of Iowa, in his opening statement denied his committee planned a general onslaught on the credit of the western railroads, asserting they would rather help establish the soundness and strength of their credit.

Companies Earning Money.

"We will show," he told Commissioner Daniels, "that three-fourths of the traffic in this territory is being handled by companies that are earning above all operating expenses and all interest on bonds and debt from 6 to 16 per cent on all their capital stock outstanding in the hands of the public.

"The present move for increases in freight and passenger rates involves several times the $23,600,000 Gould 'printing press' scandal.

"The impression has been given that the railroads have not been able to maintain their properties during the last few years, but we will prove to you that these western carriers expended $2,800 a mile of line in 1914 in maintaining their property, which was greater than in any other year in their history.

"During 1914 there was a widespread depression in all fields, including the railroads. But during the last five years the average net revenues were $400,000,000 per year. This was greater than during any five year period prior to 1913 in their whole history."

Says Roads Expect Too Much.

J. Pease Norton, a bond expert of New York and formerly of the economics department of Yale university, testified for the shippers.

"The true criterion of what is a reasonable rate of return on capital is the yield the public is willing to accept on its investment. The railroads appear to think that it is 7 per cent.

"But this is not the case. The present statistician of the interstate commerce commission, after an exhaustive investigation, concluded that in reasonably well established railway companies the public was willing to accept from 4½ per cent to 5 per cent. The correct basis of computation of the average rate of return is not on the return paid on the par value of the security but the yield on the amount actually invested."

Henry C. Wallace, editor of Wallace's Farmer of Des Moines, Ia., said the great body of investors, including over $40,000,000 of farm property, expects a return of only 3 to 5 per cent, while the railroads are attempting to establish for themselves a basis that will yield from 7 to 9 per cent, the great burden of which falls upon the farmer.

Colorado Commission on Unemployment Assured Foundation Will Contribute Money for Relief.

New York, March 30.—John D. Rockefeller Jr., in a telegram to the Colorado state committee on unemployment and relief, announced that the Rockefeller Foundation stood ready to contribute $100,000 to relieve distress among the workers in Colorado, particularly in the mining districts.

The offer was made in response to the view expressed by the committee that if the necessaries of life can be provided during the next three months, at the end of that time it should be possible for employment to be secured on farms, in the mines, or elsewhere, but that in the meantime the funds from individuals, county and state resources will prove insufficient to meet the need, and that unless further immediate aid is otherwise provided widespread suffering and want will ensue.

On request, charge purchases here today will be posted to April accounts.

CLIENT STABS HIS ATTORNEY

P. D. McBride Wounds David D. Einstein While in Loop Building Corridor.

QUARRELED OVER SUIT.

Office employés in the Continental and Commercial bank building yesterday were startled by cries for help coming from the ninth floor corridor. Then there was a clatter of racing feet. Downstairs ran a hatless man, clutching a knife and pursued by a special policeman.

The "special" won the race and led his prisoner back to the ninth floor. In the corridor, bleeding from several stab wounds, lay David D. Einstein of the law firm of O'Keeffe & Einstein.

"Yes, that's the man," said Einstein. Then he fainted.

Einstein was taken to St. Luke's hospital. His wounds are not likely to prove serious, it was said.

The lawyer's assailant is Presley D. McBride of 4805 Sheridan road, an agent for the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York.

The police were told that McBride, a disgruntled client of Einstein's, had entered the office and demanded the return of papers pertaining to litigation which he wanted to take to another attorney. Einstein refused until the matter of his fee had been adjusted.

ART LIGHTING DESIGNER GOES INTO BANKRUPTCY.

Willy H. Lau Finds Competition in Commercial Field Disastrous to Established Trade.

Willy H. Lau, artistic lighting fixture designer, is bankrupt. Ventures into the manufacturing field of the lighting fixture trade is given by his attorneys as the reason for his failure.

Four years ago he moved his offices from the Pullman building, where he had a designing studio, to 54 East Lake street, where he combined art with manufacturing, and catered more especially to the commercial trade. He has been known for many years as the designer of permannent decorations in the most expensive and luxurious houses of the city.

Mr. Lau's failure is said to be due chiefly to the small amount of large building that is being done this season.

Druggist and Girl Fined.

Eli Lipsiets, proprietor of a drug store at 617 West Madison street, was fined $100 and Lucille Callahan $25 by Judge Hopkins yesterday on serious charges preferred by Lipsiets's brothers-in-law.

EMPLOYERS AVER LAW REFORMERS KILL BUSINESS

CLOSED SHOPS THEIR FEAR.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

Springfield, Ill., March 30.—[Special.]—Two hundred business men came to Springfield today to meet the lawmakers of the state. They opened the session at the Y. M. C. A. hall in the morning by making an outright attack on certain measures dealing with labor now before the general assembly.

The gathering of these business representatives to confer with legislators was unusual, but their public announcement in regard to their affairs was more unusual in view of the secrecy which has been maintained in recent years concerning business.

Speakers mounted the rostrum in the Y. M. C. A. building and declared that laws like the eight hour day for women bill, minimum wage bill, and rigid factory requirements would drive them out of the state because they could not meet the competition of other states that are not hobbled by stringent legislation.

Business Men to Show Hand.

He told of the new attitude adopted by the business men of Illinois—an above board policy of coöperation with lawmakers and the public.

"We want to coöperate with the legislature," Mr. Piez said. "It is our purpose here to point out to the lawmakers our limitations, what certain legislation will do to our business, and how by coöperation these conditions may be improved to bring prosperity to Illinois.

"We ask for an investigation of the conditions of business and we are willing to put all the cards on the table so every one can see them, look into the innermost recesses of business, and then let legislation be enacted."

At the conclusion of his speech Mr. Piez, holding a copy of THE TRIBUNE of Tuesday in his hand, said: "Here's is a cartoon which John M. Glenn suggested should be changed to show THE TRIBUNE owner turning the crank and grinding little newsboys into dollars."

Employers State Cases.

Several other business men, representing large interests, stated their cases. They are presented here in tabloid form:

C. P. Gardner, Illinois Manufacturers' association and former state senator—Business men should pay more attention to politics, get into the campaigns, support the good candidates, and let the officials know what your feelings are in regard to laws.

Dudley Taylor, counsel for Associated Employers of Illinois, Chicago—There is little merit to any of these bills against business. The whole manner of Medill McCormick, author of the eight hour day for women bill, is to force the bill down the throats of the business men. If the bill would be made to apply to those industries which evidence will show that eight hours is all the women can stand, then there will be no fight against it.

E. C. Westman, chairman legislative committee, Illinois Manufacturers' association, Chicago—Our plan is to work for conservative legislation which will get at the roots of the evils which are presented here.

"Let Business Alone," Cry.

Following the expressions of the various business men a memorial to the legislature was adopted unanimously. The keynote of the memorial was "let business alone for a few years until it recovers from the onslaughts of legislation.

The memorial in part follows:

"Never has business been subjected to severer stress than during the last year; never has the present record of unemployment been surpassed; never has the charitable organizations been so burdened with cases of real want. Industry is working at half time or less; wages are reduced or cut off entirely, and the most stringent economy is being practiced in countless homes.

"Everywhere the effect of lack of business manifests itself. This is essentially a time when every possible encouragement should be given to revive business; where no extra burden should be placed on it; when every possible restriction that would hamper its growth should be removed.

Call Bills Menace to Business.

"There are before the legislature at this time several hundred bills that have some direct or indirect bearing on business. Among them are bills like the woman's eight hour bill and the minimum wage bill, which are of the most far-reaching importance.

"Both of them will, if enacted, mean heavy wage increases; for even the eight hour bill has underlying it the thought that it will carry with it nine or ten hour wages for eight hour work.

"Has any investigation been made as to how these measures will affect the industries and the commercial activities of the state? Is any suggestion offered by the proponents of these measures as to how industry and commerce can adjust themselves to these burdens at such a time as this?

Reform Hurting Business.

"Let us squarely face the fact that business today is suffering not so much from the war as it is from its enforced readjustment to serious federal legislative changes. We submit that under such conditions radical experiments should not be indulged in by the state to further distress and strangle such activity as today exists.

"If any real need for such legislation is shown for any industry or class of business, let that industry or class of business be singled out for special remedial legislation.

We are opposed, with business in its present condition, to all new legislation. We ask for a period of rest from further restriction so that business may be brought back to full health and strength."

Will Disarrange Business.

At the night meeting representatives of manufacturers appeared before the committee on industrial affairs. They opposed the eight hour day for women bill on the grounds that it would disarrange their program of business, require more help, and bring bankruptcy to country stores that compete with mail order houses.

R. G. Chappell, department store owner of Galesburg, argued that in the smaller cities it was necessary to keep stores open longer than in cities like Chicago. He saw many bankrupt department stores if the eight hour bill is passed.

Heavy Loss to Bell Company.

A. R. Bone of the Chicago Telephone company said it would cost his company many thousands of dollars in the employment of clerical help if such a law were in effect.

"It is," Mr. Bone answered.

"How is it possible for this company to operate in five states where there are eight hour days?"

Representative McCormick, who introduced the eight hour bill, cross examined the witnesses.

"Isn't it a fact that California and Washington operate their hotels on an eight hour basis?" he asked A. E. Whitney of the Illinois Hotel Men's association.

"We cannot operate the hotels of Illinois under such a law," the witness replied.

Women Support Measure.

Mrs. Medill McCormick, Agnes Nestor, president of the Women's Trade Union League of Chicago, and others appeared before the committee a few days ago in support of the measure.

Mrs. McCormick stated that considerable confusion had arisen connecting the attitude of Cyrus H. McCormick, president of the International Harvester company, toward the eight hour day for women bill. Mrs. McCormick stated that she had said Mr. McCormick was in favor of a child labor law and this statement had been construed to mean the eight hour day for women bill.

Hawkshaws After Fish Men.

Fish peddlers in Evanston are wearing gum shoes nowadays. The health department has issued orders that they are to be watched, and if there are any complaints of poor fish there will be an investigation.

Here's What You May See on Michigan Avenue on Easter Morn.

Chicago's annual Easter parade—the brilliant occasion when the world and his wife don fine raiment and take to the sidewalk for the good of their souls—will tell a notable story of unquenchable courage this year. Despite the war, buyers and designers said yesterday Chicago still turns to Paris for the "last word" on the proper thing to wear. Of the six costumes for women pictured above, five are of French design and one American. At the left is a glimpse of the proper thing for a man on Easter morning—one button cutaway coat, black and white striped trousers, and top hat. Then comes a woman's Pierre Bulloz model, an afternoon costume of blue chiffon and taffeta, elaborately brocaded in silver and gold. The third figure shows a reproduction of a Premet model—a black silk faille coat, lined with black printed crêpe Georgette, and edged with ostrich ruchings. The next is an original Callot sœurs (afternoon) wrap of changeable taffeta, trimmed with rows of small shirrings. The lining is of iridescent chiffon. Next in order is a suit of pussy willow taffeta, a New York design. The skirt is thrown into bold relief by heavy black and white stripes, and the coat is of white taffeta, bound in black satin. To the right of this is shown a gown of French blue silk faille from the Premet atelier in Paris. The trimmings are of gold braid, jet embroidery, and old gold taffeta. The last is a green coat for motor or street wear, designed by Mme. Cheruit. This is of "peau de gazelle," lined with novelty chiffon.

WOMEN LEAVE TO FIGHT FOR CHILD LABOR BILL.

Miss Jane Addams Heads Delegation Which Departs for Springfield Hearing Set for Tonight.

A delegation representing most of the large women's organizations of Chicago left last night for Springfield, Ill., to attend the hearing tonight on the Shurtleff child labor bill. The members of the delegation will meet other supporters in Springfield who will take part in the hearing.

Among the members of the delegation are Miss Jane Addams, Mrs. Gertrude Howe Britton of the board of education, Mrs. David Parr of Decatur, representative of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. Leonora Z. Meder, Miss Ann Davis, Sherman Kingsley, Mrs. George Elwood McGrew, president of the League of Cook County Clubs; Oscar Nelson, Dr. Mary O'Brien Porter, Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, Miss Margaret Haley, and Miss Elsa Wertheim.

Mrs. Medill McCormick, Miss Agnes Nestor, and Victor Olander, who are working for the bill, are now in Springfield. Mrs. Ella Flagg Young said she would try to go down this morning.

The child labor bill was approved by a meeting held in the office of W. L. Bodine, superintendent of compulsory education, yesterday.

'TRIBUNE' WANT AD BRINGS 2,700 TO THEATER FOR JOBS

A TRIBUNE want ad in the Sunday and Monday editions, duplicated under the Help Wanted Male and Help Wanted Female classifications, told that there was employment at 9 a. m. for 450 men and women as supernumeraries and "extras" in "Life," the melodrama which William A. Brady is making ready for Saturday evening performance in the Auditorium.

At the stage door of the Auditorium at 7 a. m. more than a hundred had gathered. The crowd swelled to at least a thousand by 8 o'clock, and by 8:30 the policeman on the beat telephoned for aid in keeping the applicants in line. At 9 o'clock there were between 2,700 and 3,000 men and women in line, the men predominating three to one.

Mr. Brady favored the stage hands and the chorus girls in the line because, as he explained, they "could do more with less rehearsing."

BY MARGARET THORPE EVANS.

A GREAT variety of Easter flowers and a large supply are available this year. While in the past the Easter demand was confined to green and white, today's taste is more catholic, and the growers vie with each other in the production of all varieties of flowering plants.

In my opinion no plant can surpass the lily as an Easter flower, notwithstanding the fact their production constantly decreases. This is owing to the many beautiful flowering plants that have come into prominence within recent years. A most beautiful effect in a potted Easter lily is obtained and is much in evidence with florists.

Rambler roses have taken a great stride and today are declared to be the most popular blooming plant handled at Easter. There are many varieties to choose from, and the growers this year have surpassed their skill of previous seasons in the production of so many different effects on trellis, baskets, ships, chairs, fans, umbrellas, vases, and the like.

Still a favorite is the beautiful azaleas, of many colors, ever popular owing to the profusion of blooms and its lasting qualities. Among the other favorites of this year are the pink and white spireas, genistas with their graceful drooping flowers and dainty leaves, the hydrangea with massive heads of blooms in varied shades, and the many varieties of ericas or heather. The begonias, primulas, chorizema, genistas, and marguerites also are popular.

Easter being early, there is an abundance of bulbous stock. There never was a more brilliant or better display of hyacinths, tulips, jonquils, narcissus, and lily of valley.

The cut flower array never was more varied. Sweet peas, in white, pink, red, lavender, and deep purple, are especially attractive. Roses lead as usual, and to attempt to select the most favored would be a guess at personalities. Beauties, Killarneys, Richmonds, Mrs. Charles Russells, Mrs. George Shawyers, and a dozen other varieties are offered. Carnations are also abundant. Lilies, Spanish iris, pansies, sweet alyssium, snap dragons, and many other flowers are shown.

The new flower of this season is in the pink and lavender shades of freesias that are greatly admired. The long stemmed tulips are being used extensively. There is a shortage of orchids.

Baskets as Easter gifts are as important a features of the day as ever. It is useless to try and describe the multitude of combinations of flowers used to make the different styles of baskets, but several came to my notice that are worthy of mention. A large, round wicker basket, high handled, was filled with ericas, genista, primula, rambler rose, lily, and nephrolepis. A large bow of embossed gold chiffon ribbon graced the handle. Another matting basket, low handles, was filled with Spanish iris, pansies, marguerites, jonquils, candytuft, sweet peas, and asparagus plumosus, tied with lavender ribbon.

Entirely new this Easter and which is predicted to meet with great favor is a box with lattice at back, giving trellis effect. The boxes are made up of reed and enameled in different tints and when filled with various plants and flowers are suitable for sun parlors.

Other novelties are miniature hat boxes in beautiful coloring and elaborate with ribbons, used for delivering milady's Easter corsage bouquet. Another innovation that attracted me was a small lace and gauze fan with a spray bouquet of Cecil rosebuds, lily of the valley, and adiantum.

SPURN EMMA GOLDMAN; CANCEL BID BY STUDENTS.

Officials of New York Theological Seminary Act to Disappointment of School Body.

New York, March 30.—[Special.]—Much to the gratification of the faculty and officials and to the disappointment of the students Emma Goldman did not appear at the Union Theological seminary tonight to deliver her lecture on "The Message of Anarchism."

Miss Goldman says her lecture has simply been postponed. Treasurer Clinton Price, representing the faculty, insists that it has been canceled and that "she never will enter our doors."

"We have never had such a woman lecture in this place," Mr. Price said "and, what is more, we never shall. I am surprised that the students extended such an invitation."

CLAIMS SUNDAY ACCOUNT HAS SHORTAGE OF $20,000.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 30.—[Special.]—Francis Porter, a former press agent for Billy Sunday, tonight sent to the newspapers a statement in which he demands an accounting of the $60,000 contributed by Philadelphians to the support of the evangelist's campaign here. Porter declares there is a shortage of more than $20,000, and says:

"The real truth of the situation is that you (Sunday) are commercializing the name of Jesus Christ, boldly using his sacred name to advertise a money-making business.

"A decided disposition," his statement continues, "has been shown (by the campaign committee) to avoid supplying the contributors to this fund with detailed information regarding its disbursement.

ALTGELD WIDOW DEAD IN HOME

Nervous Breakdown When Husband Was Attacked 16 Years Ago Cause.

Mrs. Emma Ford Altgeld, widow of former Gov. John P. Altgeld, died Monday night in her residence at 4630 Malden avenue. The cause of death was given as pneumonia. Mrs. Altgeld had been an invalid since her husband left the governor's chair at Springfield sixteen years ago. Ten days ago she fell down a flight of stairs at her home, fracturing a hip bone. While confined with this injury Mrs. Altgeld developed pneumonia.

The attacks made upon Gov. Altgeld while he was state executive brought on a nervous breakdown, friends say, from which she never entirely recovered. When he took the stump for reëlection against John R. Tanner, Mrs. Altgeld worried greatly over the bitterness of the campaign.

Vote Shock to Her.

When the election returns showed that Tanner had been elected governor and her husband's career at the State house stopped, Mrs. Altgeld broke down and became afflicted with a nervous malady.

After the former governor's death in 1902 it was learned his estate was little more than the home in which he had lived with his wife since his return from Springfield. Friends in Chicago and throughout the state took up subscriptions totaling $10,000, to provide for Mrs. Altgeld's relief.

Born in Ohio.

Mrs. Altgeld was born near Mansfield, O., in 1849. She was educated at Oberlin college, where she developed considerable ability as a musician. As the wife of the state executive during the Chicago world's fair Mrs. Altgeld was prominent socially. She lived a retired life after her husband's death.

Mrs. Altgeld assisted in the selection of a design for a monument to be erected by a state appropriation in honor of her husband. The statue will be erected in the north end of Lincoln park.

Mrs. Altgeld is survived by a brother, Prof. J. H. Ford of Demorest, Ga. The funeral will be held from the Altgeld residence tomorrow afternoon. Burial at Graceland.

AURORA SUSPECT CLEARS HIMSELF AFTER GRILLING.

Burrell W. Billig, a hoisting engineer from Madison, Wis., who was arrested after a barroom boast that he might be able to tell something about the murder of Emma Peterson in Aurora on Feb. 25, was cleared of suspicion yesterday. Frank Michels, Aurora chief of police, came to Chicago and questioned Billig for nearly two hours.

CLEAN CHICAGO FEDERATION ADOPTS PURITY PLATFORM.

Banish Smoke, Dirt, Vice in Dance Halls, Crime in Saloons, and Politics in Schools, Is Cry.

The first business meeting of the Clean Chicago federation was held at the City club last night. A movement was started to get 200,000 members of the federation as an influence for good city government.

Clean the saloons from law breaking and crime.

"A candidate will listen to the United Societies," said Mrs. A. H. Schweizer, "because they have the votes behind them. I can see no reason why we should not secure 200,000 members to the Clean Chicago Federation. If we can show a candidate that many votes behind our demands for a clean and honest city government he is going to be willing to stand for decency."

Among the persons who attended the meetings were Miss Harriet Vittum, temporary chairman; Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Engelke, the Rev. M. P. Boynton, Mrs. R. T. Richardson, Charles Coleman, Mrs. T. W. Allinson, Mrs. W. B. Owen, W. W. Hallam, Samuel P. Thrasher, Mrs. G. M. Mathes, Mrs. Robert McCall, Wiley Mills, and Mrs. Judith Loewenthal.

Seattle, Wash., March 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Prosch, Miss Margaret Lenora Denny, and Mrs. Harriet Foster Beaclear, an artist, members of prominent Seattle families, were drowned in the Duwamish river today when an automobile belonging to Mrs. Morgan J. Carkeek ran off a bridge at Allentown, ten miles south of Seattle. All in the car except Mrs. Carkeek and her Japanese chauffeur, Paul Kania, lost their lives. The party, a delegation from the Seattle Historical society, was going to Tacoma to inspect the exhibit of the state historical society there.

Retire? Hardly, Says Max.

Lieut. Max Heidelmeier, who is recuperating at St. Joseph's hospital, after an illness of several weeks, declared yesterday that he will not retire on a pension. He said he expected to leave the hospital before the end of the week and resume his duties as commanding officer at the Hudson avenue station.

TRADER ACCUSED OF $150,000 PLOT, WRECKING BANK

J. A. Edwards & Co. Named as Walter Sperling's Aids at Adair, Ill.

USED THE NAME OF 'R. SMITH.'

Sixteen years ago Walter Sperling was a prominent citizen of Adair, Ill., a prosperous little village nestling in the midst of a rich farming community over in McDonough county.

Sperling and a few friends decided they would go into the private banking business. They purchased the private bank of Adair, then supposed to be in a flourishing condition. The magnanimous state of Illinois then as now allowed private banking free rein—without regulation.

Sixteen years later—last July—the bank closed its doors. The stockholders got at the books—and the vaults. Instead of a paper surplus of $58,000 they found a deficit of $92,000—a total loss of some $150,000.

The stockholders dug down in their pockets, mortgaged their farms, and sold their fat stock—even Sperling's wife chipped in. They raised enough money to pay off the depositors and some of the original investment of the stockholders.

Tried to Beat Wheat.

Yesterday a bill in chancery was filed in the Superior court of Cook county asking for an accounting and charging a conspiracy by which the little private bank was looted—and the whole story came out.

Sperling tried to beat the Chicago wheat pit. His bank was not under supervision, either state or federal. He had to account to no one—except with his ledger balances. The stockholders were honorable townspeople, and they never counted the money in the bank. They supposed it was all there.

Sperling used a fictitious name. He was no piker. He bought wheat 100,000 bushels at a crack. On margins, of course. But in all the sixteen years, the investigators now allege, he was never on the right side of the market more than half a dozen times.

He kept on plunging, under the name of "R. Smith."

How He Covered.

He dealt with J. A. Edwards & Co., a reputable board of trade firm of Chicago, and also with C. H. Thayer & Co.

He would guess the market wrong. His Chicago brokers would send for more margins. He would make out a check signed "R. Smith." The Chicago brokers, or Edwards & Co., as it is set forth in the bill, would deposit this paper with the Corn Exchange National bank or the Illinois Trust & Savings bank. Eventually the paper would find its way back to the bank in Adair. In this way the dealings extending over many years were covered under the fictitious name, and all the time the money of the bank was being depleted to pay margins.

Indicted as Forger.

After the bank closed and the stockholders had assessed themselves to pay off the depositors, they discovered, or so alleged, that Sperling had forged notes, using the names of people in his community, by which he had raised money for his Chicago speculations. He was indicted by the McDonough county grand jury on charges of forgery and is now out on bail.

The bill of complaint, alleging conspiracy and asking for an accounting, was filed by Foreman, Levin & Robertson. They allege Edwards & Co. knew Sperling was using the fictitious name.

Robert J. Frank, attorney for Edwards & Co., entered his appearance for the brokerage firm. He admitted for the firm that they knew Sperling "adopted unusual methods" in hiding his dealings on the Chicago board, but insisted nothing in the transactions warrants the "sensational allegations" set up in the bill.

Here Are Complainants.

The complainants named in the bill are Luella Woods, Guy Woods, Dovie Rexroat, Frank Seaburn, and E. J. Seaburn of Adair, and C. E. Sperry of New Philadelphia, McDonough county.

The defendants' names in the bill are J. A. Edwards, J. A. Edwards & Co., Walter Sperling, Kenneth P. Edwards, James M. Hunter, Jessie M. Sperling, the Corn Exchange National bank

CHARLEMAGNE TOWER JR. IS SUED FOR DIVORCE.

Proceedings in Philadelphia Follow Charge Father-in-Law Alienated Husband's Affections.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 30.—Mrs. Georgeanna B. Tower, wife of Charlemagne Tower Jr., today instituted divorce proceedings against her husband. Her present suit is the culmination of a previous suit against her father-in-law, Charlemagne Tower, former United States ambassador to Germany. She charged the ex-ambassador with alienating her husband's affections. Some time ago young Tower denied the woman was his wife.

FLICKERINGS from FILM LAND

by Kitty Kelly

When M. Lion Plays the Leading Role.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 30.—When we look at animal pictures, the kind in which ferocious beasts leap at beautiful heroines and carry off helpless babies, and the like, we are rather prone to say, "But the animals never come near the people," and to suggest that therein the company is a faker.

But I have seen them make such a picture, and if such a wild ripping lion as is essential to the distillation of proper thrills were allowed to come near said movie actor, the life insurance companies would immediately and instantly and without stopping make it very clear that the cinemistrionic profession was an impossible risk.

This particular lion which has been occupying my brain cells was a Universal lion of the common garden variety of fierceness.

"We have to have them wild," explained Henry McRae, director, "in order to get real thrill into a picture. A tamed animal doesn't play with any punch," which obviates the necessity for the establishment of a motion picture training school for jungle beasts and takes one more worry off the map.

This picture they were working on was something about a lion in darknest Africa chasing an honest hunting man.

There was no reading of the scenario to monsieur lion; there was no confabulation between jungle star and director. In fact, none of the intimacies of professional life were observed.

Instead, there was a big wire inclosure, stout wire and put on double, called the arena. It was decked with tropically draped vines and planted with the required scenery. At one end was a wire vestibule containing a couple of doors, a ladder to get upon in emergency, a camera on a tripod, and a little trapdoor about a foot square to accommodate the camera's eye. A few men and a gun finished the setting.

After thorough testing of the doors to see that they were in good holding condition, and of the locks to see that they were in good sliding condition, focusing and general time consuming discussion, the moment arrived for the actual filming.

The doors to the vestibule were shut and locked; the camera man had his hand to the crank, a man stood on the ladder, ready with the trapdoor pulley; Mr. McRae waited, gun in hand.

To put a little pep into his approach, the inhabitants of the vestibule yelled a bit, attracting his eight cylinder animation very emphatically in their—meaning the camera's—direction.

It only lasted a few seconds, that wild rush of tawny fur headed by a frothy pink mouth, and ended by a lashing brown brush when the trapdoor slammed shut spang on monsieur lion's inquisitive nose as he leaped against the wire fence in a spring toward the camera's trapdoor.

A wave of complete and satisfactory relief at the definite sound of that trapdoor falling to, swept the little group of observers clustered safely outside of the stout walls of the vestibule. Nobody felt the slightest skepticism in regard to monsieur lion's attitude toward life or his intention to get there.

"That was a fine rush," congratulated Mr. McRae, leaning his gun for the moment back in the corner. "Some days these fellows sulk and don't want to work and there is no persuading them, but this was all right.

"Now," picking up his gun again, "we'll do a little retake on that," he finished amiably as though a lion were no more difficult to handle than an Irish potato.

The lion played his rôle again, with the camera clicking, surrounded by watchful waiting, ending with similar ferocity at the safe bang of the trapdoor.

It was quite enough jungle experience to last me for the rest of my days—and I shall look at jungle pictures always hereafter with a new respect, for the vision of a raging lion tearing toward one, even if there be a double fence of mighty strength and a sure-fire trapdoor working between it and one, is a memory not to be erased.

Fashions from London

LONDON.—[Special Correspondence.]—The suit which I have sketched today possesses one of the new irregular yoke lines which are meeting with much favor right now. This irregularity is achieved by the extended skirt plaits breaking into the line of the yoke. The same irregular note is often seen about the hem of a skirt or the edge of a jacket, but now it seems to be covering a wider field. The waist line differs greatly in jackets now, but here it is seen in one of its unusual lengths, stopping directly at the normal waistline and caught with a single large celluloid button. Probably the favorite and most popular among the jacket models ends at the hip, with a flat front and back effect and a flaring fullness at the sides. Then there are others which are a trifle longer, ending below the hip line.

With the majority of these suits the skirts are cut on the flaring, circular order. This does not mean that they are extravagantly wide about the bottom. They are not generally over three or three and one-half yards at the most. But the fact that they are circular makes them look wider at the hem. There are other skirt models which are plaited, and many of these plaited ones have the snug fitting yoke outlined with cord or with braid.

Tailored suits in fine wool materials are being considerably played up, especially in the perennially popular gaberdine, gros grain cloth, ripple cloth, and serge. They are all of them in the new and fashionable colors, such as the soldat, the Belgium, the Joffre blue, and the bisque, gray, and taupe shades.

Buttons as trimming are one of the most noticeable features, and particularly in the checked suits one finds buttons to match the plaid in the material.

The combining of the wool material with voile, and even with chiffon, is a pretty idea which is growing in favor. One soldat blue gaberdine I saw recently was finished at the skirt hem by a wide soft band of chiffon of the same shade. It gave a certain dressiness to an otherwise severely tailored model which was decidedly attractive.

MARION HARLAND'S HELPING-HAND

By MARION HARLAND

Wants Church Solos.

"Is there some one of our great family who has a few church solos he or she would give away? I am the mother of three small children, and feel that I must earn the many things they need. I am not able to buy them and I must use my one talent, my voice, to the best of my ability. I shall watch the Corner patiently and will pay postage upon parcels that may be sent to me. MRS. E. H. P."

Choir singers and choir leaders will sympathize actively with the brave woman who will not let her talent rust while she can use it for the good of those she loves. Her address is in our books. So many women give up entirely the practice of music and apparently lose all love for it after marriage that her example is refreshing.

Seeds and Patterns.

"If any one has sent to me for turnip or pumpkin seed or for patterns and has not received them please say that I have been busy moving and have not had her letters. If any of the members wish to get these I shall be happy to send any or all of them. The Corner gets better and better, and we all enjoy it. I should like to have a post card party, if friends will be so kind as to send some. Please note change of address. MRS. P. B. B."

Your new address is entered in our books. It will soon be time for planting garden seeds and patterns are in season the year around.

Vibrator or Magnetic Battery.

"Could you assist me in locating a dry cell vibrator or magnetic battery? I am a shut-in and a sufferer from rheumatism. I have a corded ear trumpet I could give in exchange which is in first class shape. "P. C."

We do not negotiate exchanges in the Corner. Nor is it likely that the owner of a vibrator would chance to want an ear trumpet. We are asking now for a vibrator. The ear trumpet would be a most welcome benefaction to more than one correspondent. We are in almost daily receipt of requests for one—sometimes for three or four helps to hearing. Will you hold yours for us?

Poor Poor to Buy Stove.

"Would you be kind enough to insert a request for a second hand cook stove in the Corner? It is for a little Roumanian woman who has been in America only a few months. The husband's earning capacity is so small as to make it impossible to buy a stove even on the installment plan. In fact, we have had to give food to them. The little baby of 5 months is ill now and the rooms in the brick building are damp and cold—so cold that the baby cannot be bathed safely. We shall be glad to furnish the name to any one who might have a stove to give them. "HELEN R. F."

Another tale of distress to which I refrain from adding a word of commendation. It speaks for itself—and eloquently. The writer is an official in a charitable society that is doing splendid work in the battle with conditions we have never seen equaled in horror before this year of disaster.

Appreciates Good Reading.

"I am sending you the name of a dear old lady who is a shut-in. She is a great reader, a woman of birth and culture. She would appreciate good magazines and papers or letters from some of your members. She is lonely. MARION K."

We hold the name of the "dear old lady" and your own address. There should be "lashings" of magazines routed from dark corners as cleaning house time approaches. Don't throw them away, but let them take the cheer into other homes they have shed in yours. Have you ever observed how many "dear old ladies" we have the privilege of ministering to? It is a pleasant sign of the temper of the Corner that they are the special objects of regard.

Wants Some New Music.

"I am a violinist and I am also an invalid. I can't afford to buy orchestra music any more. I would be glad to get some new music. Please let me know if I can get the music and how much it will be for stamps. GEORGE H. D."

We cannot guarantee that your petition will be answered by brother musicians, but in the hope that the future will carry out the promise of the past we insert your piteous little note. Few of our requests for music for those who cannot afford to buy it are without fruit. There would seem to be a blessed quality in the divine art that mellows the heart and quickens the sympathies. Your address will be held as another means of proving this.

For Sore Muscles, Strains, Sprains, Bruises

Rub in a few drops of Absorbine, Jr., and you will be agreeably surprised at the prompt relief. It reduces inflammation and swelling — allays pain and soreness.

Used as a Rub-Down after violent exercise or physical exertion it puts vim and energy into jaded muscles, limbers the joints and gives the body the glow of health. Rub-down made by adding one ounce of Absorbine, Jr., to a quart of water or witch hazel.

Absorbine, Jr., is more than a liniment—it is a positive germicide, and therefore its uses and efficiency are doubled. Applied to cuts, wounds, sores, it kills the germs, makes the part aseptically clean, and promotes rapid healing. Economical, as only a few drops are required at an application.

Made of herbs and safe to use anywhere. At all druggists, $1.00 per bottle, or postpaid. Manufactured only by W. F. Young, P. D. F., 308 Temple Street, Springfield, Mass.

Bleach Substitute for Needle.

Lillian Russell

[Copyright: 1915: By Lillian Russell.]

THE electric needle is recommended for the removal of superfluous hair on the face, but some women object to resorting to it. In such cases bleaching may be tried. This will make the hair less noticeable and discourage growth. However, it will hardly remove the blemish. The application of a weak solution of ammonia has a killing effect. If ammonia and a peroxide bleach are applied together, they tend to make the hair less noticeable and gradually kill it. As there is no possibility of harm resulting from such a treatment, it is one that is worth trying, but it must be patiently followed and the solution should never be stronger than a teaspoonful to a tumbler of water. No sensible woman will begin cutting the hair from her face. Cutting merely cultivates and make the superfluous hair so strong and coarse it is almost impossible to remove it.

Lillian Russell's Answers.

DIMPLES: I am wondering what kind of soap you have been using. I consider the imported castile soap the best for use on the face. Yes, oatmeal and bran are good to use instead of soap. Take equal parts of oatmeal and barn, put in small cheesecloth bags, place in water, and when the water becomes milky, use the bag as you would a wash cloth. This is an excellent cleanser and leaves the face soft and smooth.

MINNIE: I think you will find that the white spots on your nails are caused from lack of care in manicuring. Push back the cuticle with an orangewood stick, and be careful not to raise it from the nail. The air gets under the cuticle and takes away the nutriment. You watch this carefully and see if you will not see an improvement in the condition of your nails.

MRS. L. R. E.: If you are trying to reduce your flesh I should advise you not to use either tea, coffee, or cocoa. If you insist upon drinking tea or coffee, drink them without sugar or cream.

Did you transform yourself from an ugly duckling by a beauty trick? Write and tell me what that beauty trick was. "The Tribune" will pay $1 for every letter published. Address Lillian Russell, Chicago Tribune.

Love Letters

DORIS BLAKE SAYS:
"A rose by any other name would smell as sweet and cost as much."

If you know how to write a love letter or if you have in your possession a letter that has heart interest or comedy or lots of love in it send it to me at once. "The Tribune" will pay $5 for every letter published. Address Doris Blake, "Chicago Tribune."

Ought This Woman Be Content to Wait a Long While?

"Dear: The day is over and I am now alone with my thoughts—and you. I sit here in the quietness of this night hour and you seem near me; close, so close.

"God was good to me, dear girl, when he gave me you, for your love helps me in the day's work, and comforts and rests me in the evening shadows.

"How I want you! The waiting is hard, but when the waiting time is over, perhaps we will both appreciate our happiness the more.

"Girl, I love you; love you passionately, yet tenderly, treasuring you as a precious gift and one to be guarded reverently all my life.

"Hungry I am for you tonight, sweetheart. Where you are I know not. What you are doing I know not, but this I do know, that through the darkness and quietness of this hour you have come to me and I whisper again 'I love you.'

"Dear, whatever the tasks in store for you tomorrow, I pray that God will help you and that in His infinite hour He will draw us into a closer bond of comradeship. And so, little girl, I kiss you goodnight. YOUR BOY."

Girls Charm Girls.

"Dear Miss Blake: Do girls betray any trace of charming among their own sex? What is the social attitude toward a girl who does not charm? BARTHOLOMEW."

Of course, girls are charming to other girls. Sometimes the sort of girl whom girls like isn't particularly attractive to men, but that isn't a sign that she lacks charm. There are thousands of men who have no special personality and men don't look down upon them. Why should girls frown upon girls who aren't charming. We can't all be Cleopatras, you know.

THE GARDENER AT WORK

Gardening Queries Answered.

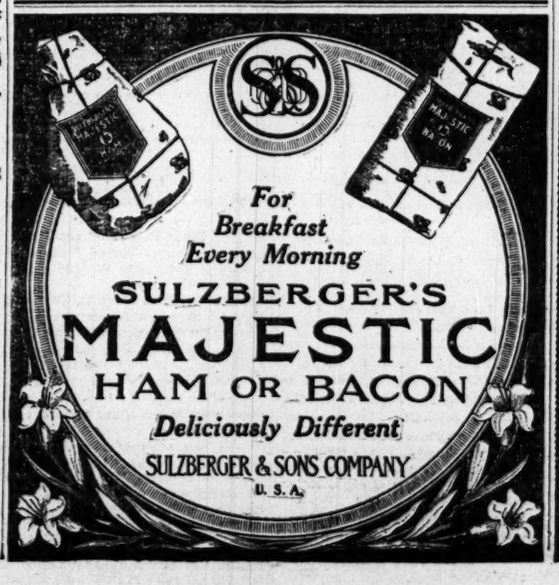

The Garden Editor will give expert advice on planning gardens, organizing garden clubs, and planting flowers, vegetables, or shrubs. The amateur gardener is invited to tell his troubles with soil, pests, or plants. Practical aid will be given in arranging suburban grounds, school, vacant lot, back yards, porch, or window gardens. Ask what and how to plant for fine results. Address The Garden Editor, "The Tribune."

ELLA P. T.: Cultivate the pansy bed, or change its location. The caterpillars may never appear again. When a pest does destroy a bed it is a good idea to start that kind of plant in some other location; that is, change with some other plant which may not take that particular pest. Pansy eaters would not care for zinna leaves.

L. DUFFIN: There are several pear blights, some of which are not troublesome and yield to Bordeaux mixture. If in doubt what is the matter, scrub the tree well now with strong soap suds. Spray the branches and buds with kerosene emulsion before the leaves are out. What is called fire blight is bacterial and can be stopped from spreading, but there is no known remedy for twig blight. Examine the earth around the pear tree.

M. B.: First of all prepare the ground on the north side of the house so it is in good condition. Shaded ground is likely to get soggy and entertain plantain or dandelion. Dig up, fertilize, then try growing plants that like shade. If you want a bed of myrtle or tradescantia with blue flowers it will get a start on the north side.

If trying for flowers, plant tuberous rooted begonias, pansies, violas, or myosotis. Impatiens, the Zanzibar balsam, will blossom in a shaded place. The Sultani is a bright rose color, the Holsti vermilion, and the Sultani Hybrida is variegated. Matricaria or double feverfew will thrive in the shade. Some scarlet geraniums and pelargoniums will adapt themselves. A great deal depends on the character of the soil.

BRIGHT SAYINGS of CHILDREN

"The Tribune" will pay $1 for each childish saying printed. The stories may be sent in either by children or their parents. The only condition is the story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. Address bright sayings to Aunty Lee, "Tribune," Chicago.

Charles was 5 years old. One afternoon his sister, Helen, took him to his aunt's house for a short visit. Charles was quiet for a few moments, but finally said: "Aunt Em, I bet you can't guess what I am going to buy when I get big." His aunt asked him if it was an automobile. "No," replied Charles, "something prettier than that; a hearse, then we won't need to pay anything when any one dies. MRS. H. KLOTH, 3744 Clifton avenue.

I took little Helen to see a bird's nest we had found. The birds were young and sparingly feathered. I held her up, and when she saw the baby birds, she cried, "Oh, Herbert, take me home; I don't want to see them until they're finished." HERBERT STANTON, 1502 North Fairfield avenue.

My little sister was eating a grapefruit one morning when she looked up and remarked: "This is the best grapefruit—it hasn't squirted me yet." NAN M. ROOD, 5449 Indiana avenue.

The TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

EDITED BY JANE EDDINGTON

All recipes have been scientifically tested by Miss Eddington with current market materials and are indorsed by her.

Some Custard Sauces.

CUP custards should be poached. Soft custards or custard sauces must be cooked in a double boiler, which is the same method of cooking, namely, a water bath. If the water bath becomes overheated the custard will be full of holes when it should be like a soft cream. When cooked so that the mixture thickens merely or coagulates it will be like cream. When a sauce is overcooked we say that it curdles.

The soft custard sauce is a great addition, both in food value and in satisfaction of taste, to many sorts of puddings and of fruit mixtures. In some cases the fruit is stirred into it—fruits such as oranges and bananas—and the whole is served as a pudding. Crushed macaroons are stirred in when it is to be used as a sauce or when it is to be frozen. The number of adaptations are many. The finest cup custards and the finest custard sauces are those made with the yolks of eggs only, but this is not always convenient. A layer of preserved fruit, one of soft yolk custard, then a white meringue set in the oven, makes an attractive dessert.

Soft Yolk Custard.

Whisk five egg yolks with a large half cup of sugar, and when the mixture has reached the ribbon stage pour over it two cups of boiled milk, stirring constantly. Put mixture into double boiler and cook until it coats the spoon, being careful not to boil. Flavor with vanilla when taken from stove. Serve over fruit, or eat plain out of a cup, or freeze.

Soft Custard Sauce.

Scald a pint of milk. Beat three eggs with one-half cup of powdered sugar until light and creamy, then stir them into the boiling milk and stir while they cook until the mixture coats the spoon. Take from fire, add flavoring, and cool.

OUCH! LAME BACK RUB LUMBAGO OR BACKACHE AWAY

Kidneys cause Backache? No! They have no nerves, therefore can not cause pain. Listen! Your backache is caused by lumbago, sciatica or a strain, and the quickest relief is soothing, penetrating "St. Jacob's Oil." Rub it right on your painful back, and instantly the soreness, stiffness and lameness disappears. Don't stay crippled! Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacob's Oil" from your druggist and limber up. A moment after it is applied you'll wonder what became of the backache or lumbago pain.

Rub old, honest "St. Jacob's Oil" whenever you have sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism or sprains, as it is absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.—Advertisement.

We mean Universal City, California, where the movies are made. A friend of ours described it as "a gigantic nut college where a thousand bugs and bugesses were all working at once—some riding like devils over the mountains, others weeping in a pathetic drama, still others tearing up the grass, slamming each other with their feet and frantic directors screaming "do that over again you boob."

Come on out to Universal City and see all these maniacs earning their salaries. Universal City is a great open air studio with people and animals gathered from everywhere. Miss Janet Anderson to Be Easter Bride.

ONE of the most prominent brides of Easter week will be Miss Janet Anderson, daughter of Bishop and Mrs. Charles P. Anderson of 1612 Prairie avenue, who will marry Dr. George Boyer of Toronto, Canada, at high noon on Easter Monday, April 5, in the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul.

Miss Anderson will have her three sisters as her only attendants. Miss Gladys Anderson is to be maid of honor and Misses Katherine and Nancy Anderson are to be flower maids. Haven Re Qua is to be best man and the four ushers will be Garth Sibbald of Denver, Louis Gregory, Otis Walters, and C. Patrick Anderson, the bride's brother.

Miss Anderson has accepted no prenuptial entertainments, since her wedding has been set for the first day following Lent, but she will have as her guests for the wedding Mrs. Boyer, mother of the bridegroom; Mrs. Sam Ordway, who was formerly Miss Mildred Wirtele, and a school friend, Miss Vera Culver.

Mrs. Potter Palmer is entertaining a family party for Easter at her home on Sarasota bay, Florida. Her sister, Mrs. Frederick Dent Grant of Washington, is with her, and Mr. and Mrs. Honoré Palmer and their children, who have decided to remain there until after Easter. Mrs. Grant will return to Washington the second week in April.

One of the more elaborate of the groups of dancers at the entertainment to be given by the Junior league on April 6 and 7 at Orchestra hall is the Oriental group, for which Miss Helen Cudahy, president of the organization, is to dance a solo dance.

Her costume came a day or so ago from Baltimore, where it was made. It is made up entirely of strings of iridescent peacock-blue beads on a net foundation and will be a decided feature for the group.

Miss Ruth Davis, who has been informally appointed "property man" for the Oriental set, is spending her time with her electric, collecting tiger skin rugs, oriental lamps, brass umbrella jars, and any number of red cushions for the setting.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ormonde Thompson of Hinsdale will sail for England soon. Mrs. Thompson is giving an exhibition of the paintings of Charles E. Boutwood, that were delayed on the way from Trepied, France, and will remain until April 13. The exhibition is being held at the Artists' guild, Fine Arts building.

Mrs. Edward A. Furst of 1346 Astor street and Miss F. C. Hinkens and Miss Katherin L. Hinkens of 462 Deming place have just returned after spending five weeks at Pinehurst, N. C., and Atlantic City, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. White of 842 South Cuyler avenue, Oak Park, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jennie Rae, to Lawrence Albert Haase, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Haase, also of Oak Park. The wedding will take place in the fall.

The marriage of Miss Amanda Herndon Painter, daughter of Lieut. Gov. and Mrs. William Rock Painter, to Eugene Franklin Salisbury will take place on Wednesday evening, April 7, at Carrollton, Mo. Miss Painter is a niece of Mrs. J. E. Hale of 5215 Dorchester avenue, whose daughter, Marjorie Hale, will be one of the six bridesmaids.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd T. Wilson of 359 East Fifty-third street announce the engagement of their daughter, Loraine Spencer Wilson, to Dr. Henri C. Lockwood of Baltimore, Md. The wedding will take place at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson in Kenilworth early in May.

Mrs. Walter Ferrier and her niece, Miss Leonora Ray, of 587 Hawthorne place will leave next week for California to spend several months.

Favors for each table will be the novelty at the spring card party to be given next Monday afternoon, April 5, by the Junior Auxiliary of the Mothers' Aid of the Chicago Lying-In hospital and dispensaries.

The tables will be in charge of the following young women: Miss Pauline Pick, Miss Florence Cohn, Miss Sadie Gottlieb, Miss Alma Eisendrath, Miss Adele Jacobson, Miss Myrtle Morganroth, Miss Irma Polges, Miss Gerry Ettenson, Miss Melanie Norden, Miss Rosalie Mendal, Miss Helen Simon, Miss Helen Soloman, Miss Celia Wilmersdorf, Miss Jeannette Bernheimer, and Miss Clarice Lederer. Mrs. Joseph Fish is senior hostess for the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Griffin of 1519 Astor street have returned from Palm Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius P. Michael of Indianapolis, Ind., announce the engagement of their daughter, Pauline, to William P. Meyers, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Meyers of 4442 Prairie avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tausig of 4036 Washington Park court announce the engagement of their daughter, Lillian, to Harry Eisenstaedt, son of Rudolph Eisenstaedt.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Guthman of 4944 Michigan avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth, to Milton Klein of Atlanta, Ga.

IF BILIOUS, SICK OR CONSTIPATED TAKE CASCARETS

You're bilious! You have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow, with dark rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill-tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off, and what you need is a cleaning up inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't resort to harsh physics that irritate and injure. Remember that most disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels are cured by morning with gentle, thorough Cascarets—they work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels clean; stomach sweet, and your head clear for months. Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good and never gripe or sicken.—Advertisement.

"The Return from Calvary."

The purchase of Herbert Schmalz's famous canvas, "The Return from Calvary," is being considered by trustees of the new Fourth Presbyterian church. The painting is now on exhibition in the art gallery of Marshall Field & Co., and, although no definite action has been taken, the pastor, the Rev. John Timothy Stone, has referred to the picture in two different sermons and advised his congregation to see it. Individual members of the board of trustees have gone so far as to ascertain the price at which the canvas is held—$50,000.

What's Become of All the War Knitters?

BY CINDERELLA.

WHEN Mrs. Pullman returned home from New York this winter she brought with her the latest and most highly approved model of knitting bag, and sent several others round to her relatives and friends.

This was a bag rather deep than wide, to accommodate the knitting needles, and of black, either moire or satin to be inconspicuous, for it is not considered good form in New York, or here either, for that matter, to make a pose of knitting and to carry one's philanthropies on one's sleeve in bright colors.

This neat black bag over the arm is the correct thing for knitters—but the ardent and energetic knitter of early winter, where is she? Was the pace set of knitting at luncheons, dinners, the theater, and afternoon teas too strong for her?

Even bridge games at a cent a point could not hold her full attention and she knitted during the dummy hand. For some reason the occasional knitter looks as lonely now as Robinson Crusoe.

But 'twas ever thus; in suffrage, politics, popular new movements, or charity, in a little while the sawdust is out of the doll and the excitement is all over.

Mrs. Morse Ely, Mrs. Arthur Small, and Mrs. John L. Cochran, as heads of several Red Cross organizations, have had poignant experiences with knitters and their knitting this winter.

Each knitter paid a small sum and was given Red Cross wool and instructions for knitting the same, mufflers and wristbands for soldiers being in great demand.

Mrs. Small was quite stern with her people; she did not accept mufflers with dropped stitches and holes in them, nor was she entertained when a woman who tarted out to make a muffler came in with an afghan of khaki wool. One batch of what appeared to be gray wash cloths was sent in; each was supposed to go over the head, round the neck, and across the chest of soldiers, and a collection of wristlets arrived for brawny Belgian fists that would have been small for a new baby.

So perhaps, after all, it is just as well that our craze for knitting has abated.

The Junior league rehearsals keep a gay crowd of young people lunching, teaing, and dining at the Blackstone, and the Sunnybrook set of Mrs. De Koven, all married people, have the best time of all, for they rehearse in the evening on account of the men, and wind up with a supper and dance downstairs.

The afternoon rehearsals are very informal and amusing, and distinguished guests are occasionally asked in. Yesterday Mrs. F. Burrall Hoffman of New York, on her way to San Francisco with her son, F. Murray Hoffman, were among "the gallery" seated along the ballroom wall.

Harry Dangler gave a small dinner last night for Mr. Hoffman, whom he had known at the Beaux Arts in Paris.

Some of the patronesses at the oratorio of "The Creation," to be sung the evening of April 9 in Orchestra hall by the Haydn Choral society of Chicago, will be Mrs. Cyrus Hall McCormick, Mrs. T. B. Blackstone, Mrs. Harry Pratt Judson, Mrs. Frank R. Chandler, Mrs. Levy Mayer, Mrs. W. D. McIlvaine, Mrs. Thomas J. Prindiville, and Mrs. Fletcher Dobyns.

WHAT CAUSES COLDS?

This question and "How to Prevent Colds" is asked a thousand times every day. A cold is really a fever, not always caused by the weather but due to a disordered condition of the blood or lack of important food-elements. In changing seasons fat-foods are essential because they distribute heat by enriching the blood and so render the body better able to withstand the varying elements.

This is the underlying reason why the medicinal fats in Scott's Emulsion quickly overcome colds and build strength to prevent more serious sickness. It contains nature's medicinal fats, so skillfully prepared that the blood profits from every drop, and it is totally free from harmful drugs.

ART

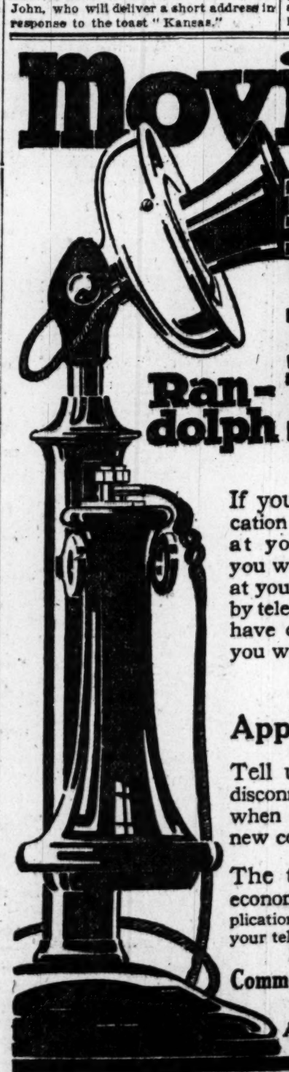

AN exhibition of paintings by Randall Davey of New York, one of the younger impressionists, will be hung in the Art institute next Monday. Mr. Davey's pictures, resembling those of George Bellows, with whom Chicagoans already are familiar, recently have been exhibited in the National Academy of Design in New York. One of them won the second Halligarten prize. Thirty paintings will be shown.

Officials of the institute assert that the Herbert Du Puy collection of drawings by old masters, which has just been placed on exhibition, is attracting more than usual interest. The pen, black and wash, and red chalk drawings, fifty in number, include specimens of the work of Andrea del Sarto, Leonardo da Vinci, Nicholas Poussin, Anthony Van Dyck, and Rembrandt.

Depredations of vandals upon many of the valuable books in the Ryerson library of the Art institute have caused Theodore J. Keane, dean of the art school, to place on exhibition a number of the books as an object lesson to the students. If the mutilations and thefts of books continue, Mr. Keane declares, it will be necessary to employ detectives.

McCormick to Address Kymry Society.

Medill McCormick will be the principal speaker at the sixth annual reception and banquet of the Kymry society of Chicago which will be held at the Auditorium hotel Saturday evening, April 17, according to plans arranged at a meeting of the officers and banquet committee at the Auditorium hotel yesterday.

MUSIC and the MUSICIANS

Concert Nets $4,000 for Pension Fund.

THE Chicago Symphony orchestra gave an extra concert at Orchestra hall last night for the benefit of the pension and invalid fund, which has received such impetus during the present season. Before the concert the fund stood at $147,000. Over $4,000 net was added through the efforts of last evening.

For several years members of the orchestra struggled to obtain from the trustees the right to give a benefit concert each year, but until this spring their requests were refused. Agitation of the subject during the winter culminated in a gift of $100,000 from the daughter of A. A. Sprague.

Mme. Julia Claussen was the soloist at the benefit—an all-Wagner program—in which she sang Senta's ballad from the "Flying Dutchman," three of Wagner's songs composed to words of his "Isolde," "Mathilde Wesendonck," "Der Engel," "Traume," and "Schmerzen," and the finale of "Die Götterdämmerung."

The orchestra under Mr. Stock's direction played the overture to "The Flying Dutchman," the "Tannhäuser" Bacchanale, the prelude to "Lohengrin," "Voices in the Forest," from "Siegfried," the prelude, love scene and "Brangaene's Warning" from the second act of "Tristan and Isolde," arranged by Mr. Stock.

The house was not entirely sold out, though a number of the boxes were sold twice, and purchasers of seats in many cases paid more than the required price. The hall was decorated with palms and an enormous American flag.

Plan Henderson Memorial Services.

One of the most notable memorial services in the history of Chicago will be held at the Auditorium theater on the afternoon of April 10 in honor of the late Prof. Charles R. Henderson.

Plans for the meeting will be made today at a luncheon at Field's. The call for the conference was sent out yesterday by the board of directors of the United Charities, of which Prof. Henderson was a former president; it will be attended by representatives of the federal, state, county, and city governments, the churches and social settlements of the city, the University of Chicago, and the various civic organizations with whose work Prof. Henderson had been identified.

Mayor Harrison, President Reinberg of the county board, and District Attorney Clyne are expected to be present. Prof. Shailer Mathews will represent the University of Chicago, Rabbi Emil G. Hirsch the Jewish organizations, the Rev. P. J. O'Callaghan the Catholic churches, and Miss Mary McDowell the settlements. Nearly a score of civic organizations will share in the project.

Another unique memorial will be held at the University of Chicago tomorrow. While the funeral services are in progress in Mandel hall, the students of the university will gather in the Hutchinson sunken gardens, on the campus next to the hall, and hold a mass meeting in Dr. Henderson's memory. Then they will divide and the body of the educator will be borne through their midst by the honorary and active pallbearers.

Mrs. Henderson, Dr. Henderson's sister, President Judson of the university, and Dean Albion W. Small will arrive with the remains at 8:43 this evening at the Fifty-third street station of the Illinois Central. They will be met by a party from the university consisting of Prof. W. I. Thomas of the divinity school, Mrs. Thomas, David A. Robertson, secretary to the president, Mrs. Robertson, and Cowan D. Stephenson, a member of the student undergraduate council.

Wanted—A Whip.

What has become of the Chicago man who a few years back prided themselves on being expert "whips"? When the coaching craze was at its height this city and environs had their due share of eager, even daring, drivers—young men of easy means who did not shy at a bad stretch of road and who rather welcomed a tricky turn or a snaky convolution of the highway as affording a test of especial craftsmanship in "handling the ribbons."

If there be such skill and enthusiasm in survival, a careful inquiry pursued through the last fortnight has failed to discover the possessors thereof. The search was made in behalf of William A. Brady, play producer, whose "Life" is to be shown at the end of the week at the Auditorium.

When "Life" was running in New York the job of driving the tallyho onto the stage was eagerly sought after by amateur "whips" of that city and Philadelphia.

GRAINS HIGHER; SHORTS BUYING

Producers Selling Little Wheat, Corn, or Oats; Speculators Shy.

LARD MARKET IS WEAK.

An unmistakably strong speculative situation developed yesterday in wheat. Nevertheless the trade was of limited volume in all branches. Revised estimates of the Argentine surplus gave the trade a new and important light. It indicated that the burden of exports was again heavily on the United States, although the latter was in no position to furnish any large quantity of wheat.

The revised figures indicated an exportable surplus of 80,000,000 to 104,000,000 bu from Argentina, which was a marked reduction from the former estimates, which indicated a surplus of 120,000,000 bu. In view of the well known damage to quality of the Argentine wheat the figures on quantity were expressive. World's available supplies decreased heavily last week—5,083,000 bu—to a total of 162,663,000 bu, against a total of 186,747,000 bu a year ago. Stocks in and afloat for Europe decreased about 2,000,000 bu last week.

Wheat Receipts Are Small.

Shippers and exporters of cash wheat assert that there are not sufficient receipts of winter wheat to enable them to do any business. Spring wheat centers report a tightening of supplies also, and were gaining some on the winter wheat markets yesterday. Clearances for the day were liberal at 1,066,000 bu, all American. Primary market receipts were less than a year ago at 526,000 bu, as against 598,000 bu. Northwestern receipts were about two-thirds as large as last year. Cars here were 143. Milling demand was slack. Shipping sales were chiefly of spring wheat from northwestern centers. Winnipeg sold 100,000 bu for export.

There was fairly persistent buying of May wheat during the morning, led by Chapin. It was presumed that part of it was for exporters. Some of the local cash houses sold May wheat early, but were covering later. Early buyers were selling considerable July near the close. Final prices showed net gains for the day of 3⅛c for May, 1⅞c for July, and 1½c for September. The close was within ⅛@¼c of the top of the session.

Corn Demand Improving.

Corn displayed much strength. The short interest was evidently larger than had been generally believed and the cash demand was a great deal better than heretofore. There was no increase in country sales, but there was considerable increase in the movement out of the western and southwestern markets, where the receipts were extremely small.

There was heavy buying during the morning, led by Clement-Curtis, Finley Barrell, Lamson Bros., and A. O. Slaughter, while the Armour company and Kidston bought quite a line of May. The selling on the hard spots were chiefly by the longs, who were taking profits. Primary receipts were less than half those of a year ago at 368,000 bu, as against 813,000 bu. Export clearances were trifling at 3,000 bu. Final prices showed gains for the day of 1⅛@1¼c for May and ⅞@1c for September.

Oats Seeding Delayed.

In oats as in corn the tone was quite strong. Nervous shorts were active buyers and were influenced by very unfavorable seeding prospects in leading states. It was snowing yesterday over most of the transmissouri country and the weather was generally too cold and raw to admit of seeding operations in much of the balance of the leading oats territory except Illinois and Indiana.

There was a little better domestic demand for oats and a few sales were made for export. Realizing sales by local longs caused some reaction from top prices and left the market with net gains for the day of ½c to ⅝c. Primary receipts were 847,000 bu, as against 618,000 bu a year ago. Export clearances were large at 1,091,000 bu.

Lard Weakens Provisions.

Provisions were lower under the leadership of lard. Selling pressure was not heavy, but support was limited. The trade in general was unusually light. Shipments of meats were smaller than a year ago. The packing at western centers fell off very sharply from that of the previous week and totaled 533,000 hogs, as against 679,000. These compared with 443,000 a year ago.

Receipts of hogs yesterday were 90,100, as against 70,700 a year ago at western points. Pork closed at declines for the day of 7½c to 12½c, while lard lost 10c to 12½c, and ribs closed unchanged to 2½c lower.

Rye Quiet and Steady.

Rye was quiet and steady, with No. 2 closing at $1.16 nominal. No. 4 sold at $1.15 and sample grade at $1.15½. Receipts, 12 cars.

Barley was steady to 1c higher, with malting at 73½@76c; feed, 71@73c, and screenings, 62@71c. Receipts, 72 cars.

Timothy seed was steady at $4.50@6.25 for cash lots. Cloverseed was quiet at $9.00@13.00 for cash.

Duluth flax closed ¼@½c higher, with cash on track, $1.94½. May $1.95½, July $1.97½, and September $1.99½. Receipts, 15 cars. Minneapolis was ½c higher, at $1.90@1.93½ for cash on track. Receipts, 12 cars. Winnipeg closed ¼@1⅛c higher, with May $1.78⅝, July $1.80¼, and October $1.88. Receipts, 38 cars.

BOSTON STOCK QUOTATIONS.

BOSTON, Mass., March 30.—[Special.]—Though heavy realization went on today prices suffered little if any. The movement for the consolidation of Boston and Superior and American Zinc is reported to be making progress. The former closed with a small net loss, but the latter went up to 30. The reported base of exchange is 2 shares of Boston and Superior for one of Zinc. Copper stocks were firm throughout. New Haven and B. & M. each lost a fraction. Call money, 3 per cent; time loans, short dates, 3¼@4 per cent; time loans, 6 months, 3½@4 per cent; time loans, year, 4¼@4½ per cent.

NEWS AND GOSSIP OF BOARD OF TRADE.

"Weather is now favorable in Argentina, but recent damage to quality from heavy, continued rain is being confirmed," says Broomhall's crop summary. "Argentine shippers are estimating the surplus at 80,000,000 bu, but our agent says about 104,000,000 bu. Italy—Weather is seasonable and complaints regarding the crop are few. North Africa—Crops generally are reported as looking well. Chile—Harvesting was disappointing, and importation is necessary on a large scale. Germany—Weather is fairly seasonable and all advices report a large area planted to wheat. Flour prices will be reduced from April 1. Prices for potatoes slowly advancing. India—Harvest weather favorable, while dryness continues in late districts. Harvesting confirms a good yield of fine quality. Wheat is not being offered for sale, while other food grains are cheap."

"Reports of our correspondents in the surplus corn sections tributary to the primary markets show a shipping possibility to Aug. 1 of 50,000,000 bu, which compares with an actual shipment of 60,000,000 bu last year from April 1 to Aug. 1," say Clement-Curtis. "With the 35,000,000 bu in the visible this indicates an available quantity of 85,000,000 bu, or 5,000,000 bu more than last year. Consumption of corn last year was 75,000,000 bu to Aug. 1, exports 3,000,000 bu. If consumption is no better than last year there is a theoretic amount of 15,000,000 bu available for exports and carry over. The exports of corn have been averaging 1,600,000 bu weekly, with every prospect of a continued demand. The reduction of 2,500,000 bu in the visible last week indicates that the corn situation is rapidly running to an acute point."

Corn specialists see quite an improvement in the demand from consumers. The bulk of the new demand is coming from the east, but there is a little inquiry from the south. Canadian industries were also buying corn yesterday at Minneapolis. Prices were up 1 cent relative to Chicago on this buying and there were sales of 25 cars. Kansas City and Omaha received a total of 28,000 bu yesterday and shipped out 182,000 bu. Shipment out of all primary markets were just a trifle larger than the receipts.

Good Friday will be quite generally observed in the grain and cotton trade in the United States. European markets will probably be closed as usual Friday and Saturday and some of them will be closed on Monday.

The government weekly snow map showed a trace to five inches of snow on the ground over Nebraska Monday night. The snow covering extended south to central Kansas and north to the international line, but there was little of it east of the Missouri river. It was snowing yesterday morning over a wide area, west and south. The snow fall covered all of Nebraska, Kansas, northwest Missouri, southern Illinois, and most of Kentucky and Tennessee. There was considerable rainfall in the south.

World's available supply, Bradstreet's compilation, shows a decrease during last week of 5,083,000 bu wheat. The total of 162,663,000 bu compares with 186,747,000 bu a year ago, when there was a decrease the corresponding week of 4,276,000 bu. Corn in the United States and Canada decreased 2,556,000 bu last week to a total of 38,795,000 bu, as against 22,784,000 bu a year ago. Oat supplies in the same position decreased 458,000 bu to a total of 37,823,000 bu, as against 39,055,000 bu last year.

According to B. W. Snow the winter wheat crop has improved its condition since last December, when it went into the winter with a condition of 88.3. He estimates that there has been little loss of acreage and that the present prospect is for as large a crop as was indicated at this time last year. The indicated yield in December last from the above condition was approximately 700,000,000 bu.

The Drovers' Journal estimates the slaughter of hogs last week at western packing centers at 533,000, as against 679,000 the previous week, 443,000 a year ago, and 243,000 two years ago.

The hearing by the Illinois public utilities commission, set for today, to consider change in grades of spring wheat, has on request of the commission been postponed for two weeks.

The Millers' National federation will meet at Toledo June 1 to 3 next, inclusive. A boat trip to Put-in-Bay is on the program for one of the days.

Memberships on the board of trade were posted for transfer by George H. Walker and the estate of James C. Page.

Fire Stops Monadnock Elevators.

Two elevators in the Monadnock building were put out of service by a small fire which started in a conduit shaft early yesterday. Crossed electric wires are believed to have started the blaze, which was quickly extinguished.

DUNNE TO SPEAK TO REALTY MEN

Governor and Senator Sherman Will Talk on "Illinois Waterway" Today.

OLD LANDMARK WILL GO

The weekly luncheon of the Chicago real estate board, which will be held today instead of Thursday, the customary day, will be unusually interesting by reason of the fact that Gov. Dunne and Senator Sherman will be the speakers, and will talk on the "Illinois Waterway."

As originally planned, Gov. Dunne was to be the only speaker, but a telegram was received from him on Monday stating that Senator Sherman would accompany him and would also address the board on the waterway subject. The interest in the subject and the prominence of the speakers, it is expected, will draw a large crowd. The hour is 12:15.

Landmark in Deal.

An old Rogers Park landmark figured in an interesting transaction reported yesterday. It comprises the old Forest hotel property, at the northwest corner of Greenleaf avenue and Paulina street, which has been sold by Louis Stover Jr. to David H., Andrew O., and William P. Jackson for an indicated consideration of $25,000, subject to an incumbrance of $13,500.

The lot fronts 150 feet on Greenleaf avenue and 171 feet on Paulina street, and is improved with the old hotel building, which will be wrecked and the corner improved with a new building containing seven stores and fifty club apartments.

The remainder of the lot, with 100 feet of inside frontage on Paulina street, will be placed on the market through Callistus S. Ennis & Co., who represented both parties to the sale of the property. In part payment the Jacksons conveyed the property at 3628 Lake Park avenue, improved with two dwellings, the property figuring in the transaction at a valuation of $12,000.

North Shore Avenue Sale.

Fanny B. Haven of Catania, Italy, has sold to H. Holsman the vacant 100x183 feet, north front, on North Shore avenue, 291 feet east of Sheridan road, for an indicated consideration of $15,000. It is stated the purchaser plans to improve with a high grade twenty-four apartment building of four and five rooms and sun parlors. Fred P. Kienzle & Co. were the brokers.

The construction of a thirty apartment building to cost in the neighborhood of $100,000 is involved in connection with the sale by C. W. Hoff to Michael B. Moran of the vacant 100x170 feet, east front, on University avenue, 100 feet north of Fifty-fifth street, 40 feet being acquired from K. P. Collins and 60 feet from Daniel B. Curran.

The property at the northwest corner of Lawrence and Harding avenues, vacant, 125x125 feet, has been sold by M. C. Gianocoulis to Joseph Healy for a reported consideration of $14,000. It is stated the purchaser plans to improve with a store and flat building to cost about $30,000.

Woodlawn Flat Deal.

The six apartment building at 6119-20 Ellis avenue, with 50x170 feet of ground, east front, has been sold by Sarah Metsker to James Phinney for an indicated consideration of $26,000, subject to an incumbrance of $12,000. The purchaser conveyed in part payment the northwest corner of Sixty-ninth street and Evans avenue, 125x125 feet, with three story brick storage building and the brick dwelling at 6850 Evans avenue. Frank Thompson was the broker.

R. A. Cepek & Co. have purchased from the Talbott estate of New York a tract of ten acres on Belmont avenue, between Fifty-first and Fifty-second avenues, three blocks from the Cicero avenue car line. Trees are now being planted and the lots surveyed, it being the purpose to place it upon the market at once. No business will be permitted on the residential lots. A sewer and water are being put in on Fifty-second avenue and will be put in on Belmont this spring.

South Side Transaction.

H. E. Quindel has sold to Stanislaw Idzikowski the property in East Twenty-ninth place, 88 feet east of Prairie avenue, lot 37½x125 feet, north front, with improvements, for an indicated consideration of $20,500, subject to an incumbrance of $12,500.

The apartment house property at Drexel avenue, 156 feet south of Fifty-fourth street, lot 50x108 feet, west front, has been sold by Louise W. Burgess to William N. Green, for an indicated consideration of $26,000, subject to an incumbrance of $15,000.

Oscar A. Peterson has purchased from Belle Sabel the property in Prairie avenue, 143 feet south of Forty-eighth street, lot 44 feet, west front, to the elevated road right of way, with residence improvements, for an indicated consideration of $20,000, subject to an incumbrance of $18,000.

Will Improve Corner.

Record was made of a declaration of trust in which the fact is set forth by Max Goldstine that Mark and Arthur Levy are each entitled to a one-fourth interest in the leasehold estate in the property at the northwest corner of State and South Water streets, 55x80 feet, which was leased by Archibald E. Freer to Mr. Goldstine for ninety-nine years from May 1, 1914, at an annual rent of $5,000 for the first year, $10,000 for the next four years, $11,000 for the next five years, and $21,000 for the rest of the term. The lease provides for the construction of a building prior to April 3, 1916, to cost at least $130,000. The declaration was executed in May, 1913.

Record was made of the acquirement by Daniel R. Carmode by masters deed from Hattie B. Hunt et al. of the property at the northeast corner of Fulton and Jefferson streets, 151x204 feet, for an indicated consideration of $105,000. It was a partition sale and was in connection with the acquirement of the property some time ago by George B. Limbert & Co. Mr. Carmode is connected with the company.

Sale Stimulates Market.

In connection with the purchase by the Chapin estate of the Fine Arts building it is interesting to note that the deed conveying the same, which has been filed for record, bears revenue stamps to the amount of $2,240, indicating that $2,240,000 was paid for the equity. With the incumbrance of $760,000 on the property, this makes the consideration of $3,000,000 for which the property sold. The sale has had a marked stimulating effect on the downtown market, which has been exceedingly slow for some time.

WESTERN UNION EARNINGS RISE

Total Income for 1914 Up 46 Per Cent; Profits Are Over 5 Per Cent.

CABLE BUSINESS HIGH.

Earnings of the Western Union Telegraph company for the year ended Dec. 31, 1914, showed a marked improvement over the previous year. The total income was $6,708,637, an increase of $2,136,491, or 46 per cent, due to increase in cable business. The profits on the $99,786,758 capital stock were 5.88 per cent, against 3.24 per cent the previous year. The company showed a final surplus of $18,531,921 at the end of the year. Comparative figures follow:

Market in Specialties.

Chicago has participated rather largely in the buying of the motor stocks, Bethlehem Steel, and the Studebaker shares. The market is in such a position that one buyer follows another, the incentive to purchase being based not on earnings but the mere action of the market.

Bethlehem Steel corporation common advanced further. Information from New York was to the effect that it is not possible to verify any of the rumors given as the occasion for the rise in the shares.

It may be pointed out that the earnings on the common stock shown in the last two fiscal years have been about 60 per cent. A short while ago Bethlehem common was selling around 30, so that the earnings were alone equal to almost twice the market price of the shares. Although there may be no dividend declaration on the common, the fact that the money has gone back into the property increases the book value and affords occasion for the advance in the stock.

Cities Service Year.

Profits of the Cities Service company for the fiscal year ended Dec. 31, 1914, were equal to 11.9 per cent on the $14,718,280 common stock after meeting the full 6 per cent on the $26,168,426 preferred issue. The income account follows:

	Dec. 31, 1914.	Dec. 31, 1913.

In regard to the "jitney bus" competition with the street railway lines President Doherty says: "Jitney bus operations have producerd no serious results. They have appeared at Toledo but so far have not affected earnings of the company. In St. Joseph, Mo., their operation was tried but has been discontinued. No other cities have been affected and no serious consequences from this form of competition are anticipated."

Will Retire Notes.

The General Motors company has authorized its bankers to redeem all or any part of its 6 per cent first lien five year sinking fund gold notes due Oct. 1, 1915. The price to be paid will yield 3 per cent per annum for the unexpired term. Payment for the notes will be made in either New York, Boston, Chicago, or Detroit.

First National Increases Dividend.

Directors of the First National bank declared a quarterly dividend of 5½ per cent payable today. The stock was placed on an annual 22 per cent dividend basis. Of the quarterly distribution 4 per cent was from earnings of the First National and 1½ per cent from the First Trust and Savings.

Silas H. Strawn, of Winston, Payne, Strawn, and Shaw was elected to the board of directors to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Norman B. Ream.

Financial News Notes.

Receivers for the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad have been authorized by the federal district court to pay a total of $1,249,540 interest on bonds and rentals maturing within the next three months.

The statement of the Ohio State bank as of March 4 shows total resources of $627,699,111, as against $616,795,675. Deposits increased from $519,458,178 to $530,940,211.

The directors of the Columbia Gas and Electric company adjourned their meeting until April 229, at which time, it is announced, important business will be taken up.

Chicago Securities.

Prices on the local stock exchange were irregular and generally lower. Peoples Gas dropped off to 122, a decline of one point. There was some profit taking in the stock of the Public Service company of Northern Illinois. Sears-Roebuck common worked lower through lack of interest. Union Carbide was fractionally higher. Montgomery Ward preferred was in good tone. Bonds were about steady.

ANOTHER BIG DAY IN WALL STREET

OVERTURN A RECORD.

New York, March 30.—Further sensational gains were made by "war specialties" in the course of today's active market, in which the value of transactions exceeded any session since last December's renewal of business. Bethlehem Steel retained its leadership, advancing to the new high price of 91½ and closing at 88⅛, a net gain of 1⅛ points.

Virtually all the automobile stocks trailed along, with gains of 2 to 5 points on very extensive trading. Maxwell, Studebaker, and Willys-Overland were the strongest features of this group. Other special stocks in which substantial increases of quoted values were made included United States Rubber, National Lead, Allis-Chalmers common and preferred, and Texas company.

Rock Island a Feature.

Rock Island was the conspicuous feature of the railway list, taking precedence over high grade shares by reason of its activity at increasing prices. The movement in this stock was believed to have its origin in a possible contest for control at the forthcoming annual meeting.

For the greater part of the session speculative favorites like Reading, the Pacifics, United States Steel, and Amalgamated Copper were under pressure. In the final hour these shares made partial recovery under the lead of Amalgamated, which rose to its best price in connection with announcement that shippers had perfected arrangements to export copper to neutral European countries. Apart from the pronounced gain shown by speculative issues the market closed with an irregular undertone.

Irregularity in Bonds.

Bonds reflected some irregularity, mainly as a result of recessions in some of the investment issues. Total sales, par value, aggregated $3,650,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Americans were stronger and more active in London, Canadian Pacific manifesting buoyancy and United States Steel selling above its previous day's close here. Cables from London pointedstrongly toward the early consummation of credit arrangements with this market.

IN FOREIGN STOCK MARKETS.

LONDON, March 30.—Money was plentiful and discount rates were easy today. The stock market had a good undertone, with Russian securities a feature of strength. Good yielding gilt edged shares commanded much of the attention of investors, and oil, rubber, and diamond stocks were prominent in other sections. American securities opened steady and gradually gathered strength on good buying of United States Steel, Union Pacific, and Canadian Pacific. The closing was firm. Bar silver, 23⅝d per ounce. Money, 1@1¼ per cent. Discount rates: Short bills, 2⅜ per cent; three months, 2⅜ per cent.

PARIS, March 30.—Prices were firm on the bourse today. Rentes, 72 francs 85 centimes. Exchange on London, 25 francs 60½ centimes.

Want Flat Dwellers to Buy Flats.

P. C. S.—The Chicago Building society has evolved a plan of building apartment houses and selling them to tenants under ten year contracts. The arrangements have worked out in great detail, promising success if Chicago flat dwellers can be induced to own their flats rather than to move every two or three years. Whether the plan will meet with approval remains to be seen. In the meantime a purchase of shares in the company could not be considered a conservative investment for savings.

Willys Overland.

W. R. S.—The Willys-Overland company was formed in November, 1912. It pays 7 per cent on $4,721,000 of preferred stock and 6 per cent on $20,000,000 common. Its present earnings are supposed to be at the rate of 30 or 40 per cent on common. The Eastman Kodak company was formed in 1901. It pays 6 per cent on $6,165,700 preferred stock and 10 per cent on $19,532,800 common. It has also paid 191¼ per cent in extra dividends on common. Neither common stock is a conservative investment.

Brief Answers.

S. W. O.—The stock of a solvent railway like the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific cannot be assessed without stockholders' consent. When a road goes into a receiver's hands its stock is practically wiped out. A new company may be formed and the old stockholders given the right to subscribe for new stock. This is often called an assessment, but strictly speaking, it is not one.

J. H. G.—Good bonds are safer investments than preferred stocks. They yield almost as much as Sears-Roebuck preferred at present market prices.

THE POLICY OF THE CHICAGO TITLE AND TRUST COMPANY

in adhering to first mortgages on improved Chicago real estate as the safest investment for trust funds has been justified by the fall in price of other classes of securities.

It is worth the trouble of inspecting and valuating real estate to be assured that no impairment of the principal of trust funds can occur in troublous times.

It is worth while to have investments that fall due in three or five years so that frequent reviews of the security and general business situation may be made to determine whether it is best to collect and reinvest or extend time of payment.

Hog receipts of 13,000 head at Chicago yesterday fell far short of expectations, and were quickly bought up at an advance of 5c over Monday's prices. Packers paid the appreciation without hesitancy, and the market closed strong, with best sales at $6.97½, the highest price in more than two weeks, and the bulk at $6.80@6.90. Shippers were credited with purchases of 1,500, and packers took 11,600 head, reducing the stale supply to less than 500 head.

Weakness again pervaded the market for beef cattle, although receipts were posted at only 2,000 head. There were few shipping orders to be filled, and local requirements were small, the general beef outlet being restricted by Lenten regulations and Jewish holiday restrictions. Cows and heifers held on a steady basis, while calves sold at a reduction of 50@75c, topping at $10.00 for prime vealers, with not many higher than $9.50.

Sheep and lambs made firm prices, and springers reached $12.50. Fat western lambs sold up to $10.00, the season's high point, and prime fed yearlings and wethers mixed reached $8.65. Receipts of 9,000 head found an early outlet.

COFFEE AND SUGAR.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The market for coffee futures opened at an advance of 1@4 points this morning, with active months selling about 2@5 points net higher during the early trading in sympathy with the steady showing of Brazil and as a result of some scattered buying, which seemed to be partly for European account. Offerings became slightly freer around this level, however, and prices later eased off under realizing, with the close net unchanged to 5 points lower. Sales, 22,500. SMALL APARTMENTS

Located in one of the most desirable sections of the South Side, overlooking WASHINGTON PARK; easy walking distance to "L" express, Cottage Grove and Indiana surface lines; convenient to tennis courts, theaters, and shopping district.

Apts. contain TWO, THREE, and FOUR ROOMS EACH. Every apt. has sun parlor or front porch. Large, light, airy rooms, plenty of large closets, full size kitchens and pantries. Each apt. has large dressing rooms and MURPHY IN-A-DOR BEDS. This makes these apts. as efficient as ordinary apts. of four, five, and six rooms, with two less rooms to light, furnish, and keep clean. Bath and electric fixtures are the best, and everything has been installed that will solve the servant problem and simplify housekeeping. The efficiency of these small apts. can not be appreciated until you see them. Ready for inspection NOW. See them today, as they are going fast.
